This image displays a collection of Japanese business cards (訪問名刺) from the early 20th century, arranged in a grid. The cards provide information about various businesses, including medical practices, pharmaceutical companies, and general services. Key details include:

- Business Types: Medical (e.g., 唐津徳光, 石川醫院), Pharmaceutical (e.g., 横濱米屋上井, O.K. 家具金物商店), and General Services (e.g., 櫻井銀行, 久世産婆).
- Language: The cards are primarily in Japanese, with some English names and numbers.
- Addressing: Many cards include addresses such as "Yokohama," "Kōtoku-cho," "Shōwa-cho," and specific street numbers.
- Contact Information: Phone numbers (e.g., 123-4567, 123-4568), fax numbers (e.g., 123-4567-1234), and telex numbers (e.g., 123-4567-12345) are frequently listed.
- Logos: Some cards feature small logos or emblems related to their business.
