JAPAN'S NEW FACTORY LAW

THE revised Factory Law, which was passed by the last session of the Japanese Diet and put into operation on July 1, is a tremendous piece of social legislation...

The prohibition of child labor has been extended to all industries, whereas some limitations were contained in the old law.

The hours for protected workers (women and workers of either sex between the ages of fourteen and sixteen) have been shortened from twelve to eleven hours per day...

The age limit for juvenile workers was twelve, whereas the new law places the limit at fourteen...

The new act provides for general increase of relief to be paid by employers for injuries, deaths, sickness, etc.

Under the new act an employee must be given fourteen days' notice before being dismissed, or else he must be paid fourteen days' additional wages...

SUTTER "Y" BOYS MAKE GOOD SHOWING AT AMP McCOY

Four Boys Are Enrolled in Honor Society

Four Sutter Y. M. C. A. boys, who wisely took the opportunity of enjoying two weeks of wholesome and recreational vacation at Camp McCoy, which is the annual boy's summer camp of the San Francisco Y. M. C. A., returned with the feeling of contentment.

The entire group of campers were sheltered in 12 tents, nine boys to each tent; and the tent that won the highest honors for the various activities of the camp was tent No. 10, which was occupied by four Japanese and five American boys.

Four boys were initiated into the Raggers Society, a national honor organization, and the lucky boys were none other than Kimi Obata, George Koba, Misao Miho, and Mamoru Endo.

George Koba also won distinction by being enrolled in the O. O. S., an honor society of San Francisco. He was the one to receive special mention out of five boys who were selected from 180.

Salinas Recovers Defeat from Visalia

Being defeated by the Visalia nine in the morning of Sunday, July 11, by 6-7 score, at Salinas, the losers staged a return battle on the same day and trounced the victors, 14 to 3.
