SOME THOUGHTS ON THE PAN-ASIAN CONGRESS

CABLE dispatches from Tokyo indicate much interest is being attached to the first Pan-Asian Congress, which will be held at Nagasaki on August 1.

Despite intimations from some quarters that the Congress was called as consequent of the humiliation received in California by Asiatic nationals, those who are sponsoring this Pan-Asian movement are taking the greatest care to prevent the Congress from becoming a gathering of revolutionary agitators or a medium for anti-white demonstrations.

The Pan-Asian Congress will accomplish much toward cultural development and promotion of peace of the world if it conscientiously limit its scope to its avowed purpose to effect the revival of Oriental civilization, the opening of

Japan's Capital Witnesses Romance Worthy of Time When Night-hood Was in Flower

Marriage Is Declared To Be Matrimonial Revolution

Considerable interest is being attached to the recent marriage at the Japanese capital between Noboru Seki, a man who has worked his way from a humble life, and Miss Noriko Tsuboi, daughter of Kuhachiro Tsuboi, a member of the House of Peers.

Second-generation girls may marry Prime Ministers if they go to Japan, according to a statement by a clever and imaginative American-born girl.

main avenues of communications in Asia, the promotion of the common existence and common interests of Asiatics, and the advancement of Asia's part in contributing to the peace of the world.

13 LOCAL YOUNG PEOPLE'S CLUBS MEET TO DISCUSS RECEPTION FOR VISITORS

Entertainment To Be Held at Kinmon Gakuen Hall

About twenty young people representing thirteen different young people's organizations of San Francisco convened at the local Japanese Association Hall Monday night, July 26, in an endeavor to formulate definite plans as to how the 56 members of the touring group from Japan are to be entertained upon their arrival in San Francisco.

The 56 members composed of college, middle school, and high school students from all parts of Japan, including one woman, are the first group of 112 student tourists, whose trip is sponsored by Kaju Nakamura, a member of the Imperial Diet.
