A MESSAGE TO JAPAN'S KENGAKU STUDENTS

THE Japanese students' touring party, now in San Francisco, crossed forty-five hundred miles of water for a specific mission. The members came primarily and ostensibly on a "kengaku" tour as differentiated from pleasure excursion. "Kengaku" means first-hand study. The word implies investigation and observation, not mere sightseeing for pleasure or thrill. These latter elements cannot be dissociated with a tour of this nature, but they are secondary to the fundamental purpose of observing America as she really is and introducing her to Japan. As one member declared at the send-off reception in Tokyo, the party should "return to Japan with good news and noble harvest".

The party will be royally entertained throughout their entire sojourn here. They will be feted, feasted, showered with golden phrases, and taken around in limousines to points of interest and pride around the Bay region. But except for a dash to Fresno and Stockton, which is now pending, the students will not have the opportunity of observing the typical California Japanese or the conditions under which they live. Japanese Californians are essentially farmers, and a "kengaku" of California from the Japanese standpoint will not be complete without contact with our farmers sheltering in the melon ranches of the Imperial Valley or the raisin fields of upper Sacramento basin. The brief

Articles Valued at 750,000 Yen Reported Lost in Japan

According to statistic disclosed by the Property Clerk of Tokyo, Japan, an estimation of 488,308 articles, amounting to 750,000 yen, were reported lost last year, and 486,773 articles, totalling one-third of the entire sum, were recovered, identified, and returned to their owners.

Centerville Gakuen Team To Invite Alameda Midgets

Much joyful feelings and expectations are being shown by the young ball tossers of the Centerville Japanese Language School nine, who acquired new uniforms recently. They are preparing to stage a brilliant battle (without soiling their new apprals) with the Alameda youngsters, who are being invited by Centervilleans on Sunday, August 8.

sojourn of the Japanese students will not permit a thorough observation of actual conditions in California, but we would not want our visitors from Japan to return merely with the impression that California possess a supremely congenial climate, that our highways are magnificent, and that Japanese residents are apparently prosperous, and capable of entertaining them right royally. We would want the our visitors to dig under the surface and discern the heroic struggle Japanese in California have undergone to survive the storm of adverse sentiment. We want them to see our people turn the worthless delta lands of the interior into fertile garden, to see them toil, struggle, conquer, always looking forward, brave, uncomplaining, and with their hands on the shoulders of the second-generation. If the Japanese student tourists can discern all this, we are content, for they then shall have known the true spirit of the Japanese in America.

ALAMEDA TO STAGE RETURN BATTLE WITH COLORED GIANTS

Regular Players Back from Country; Ready To Fight

With the regular players back from the country, hardened, sun-burnt and eager to tussle the old game of ball-tossing, the Alameda Taikai-Kai baseball nine will have its first sensational combat, since the close of the spring season, on Sunday, August 1, at 2:00 p.m., on the home grounds. The opposing team will be the Colored Giants of Oakland, the same team that have once staged a 12 inning conflict with Alameda and escaped victoriously by a narrow margin. Although the colored men consider themselves invincible, the Alameda braves expect to over-ride them and recover their defeat.

The line-up for Sunday will be as follows: pitchers Domoto, Hue, Ide; catchers, Hanamura, Tawata; first-base Iwai; third-base Kawamura; shortstop Tawata; fielders Tambara, Ito, Araki, Utsumi, Nohiro; captain Narahara.

S. J. Asahis Will Attempt To Wrest Victory From Americans

"Hiyamizu" Team To Stage Preliminary Game

The baseball enthusiasts of San Jose are much stirred up by the two games to be played to-day, Sunday: Having given the strong American Billiard nine a showdown of 5 to 4 defeat, the Asahi nine will threaten the American Crystal nine with another onslaught.

The preliminary game of to-day also promises to be interesting. The famous "Hiyamizu" teams (old men) of San Jose will come to a clash at noon.

Diet Member Heads Party, Declares Purpose of Tour Is To Inculcate Spirit of Internationalism Upon Students

Fifty-seven members of the student touring party from Japan, led by Hon. Kajju Nakamura, M. P., arrived safely in San Francisco Friday morning on board N. Y. K. liner Shinjo Maru, and the party includes one American-born girl.

Sunday Program Outlined

This morning, Sunday, the students will attend service at the First Congregational Church of this city, corner Post and Mason Streets. The Rev. Dr. James Logan Gordon will deliver the sermon. To-morrow, Monday, the students will enjoy swimming at the Oakland Y. M. C. A. tank, beginning from 10 a.m., while a luncheon will be given by Oakland Kiwanis Club at Oakland Hotel at noon.

The Kiwanis Club will take the Japanese students on a sightseeing motor tour from 1:30 p.m. At six o'clock in the evening they will assemble at Stiles Hall of the University of California, where they will be escorted to American homes to stay as guests until Wednesday.
