HAWAII HEALTH BOARD SAYS 130,000 JAPANESE POPULATION IN ISLANDS

2,000 American Citizens of Japanese Ancestry Register For Election. Heretofore, it has been generally understood that the Japanese population of Hawaii amounted to 120,000; but according to the investigation conducted by the territorial board of health, the Japanese population of the Islands on June 1 was 129,910, or only 90 persons short of 130,000 mark.

2,000 Citizens of Japanese Blood Register. Two thousands citizens of Japanese parentage in Hawaii have registered for election, although reports indicate that there are several times that number who were eligible to register but did not do so through negligence.

Pine Street Japanese sewing class has been conducted during the summer vacation for the benefit of the second-generation girls; but due to the great popularity of the class, it will be continued on every Saturday afternoon.

The packing house of J. Inouye, situated on the Victor's estate on Rock Avenue near Wayne Station, was burned to ashes Friday, August 20. Wayne Station is about five miles north of San Jose. The fire started about eleven o'clock in the night, and the packing house contained implements for the packing of pears as well as fertilizers, which belong to Messrs. Inouye and Santo. Fortunately the fertilizers and the implements were taken out before they could be ravaged by fire, but the building was destroyed, with an estimated loss of $10,000.

ALAMEDA LOSES TILT TO AMERICANS AFTER SENSATIONAL COMBAT

Score Remains 2-2 Until 8th Inning; Result is 3-2; Second Team Defeats Merritts, 10-4. Evidently the Oakland Billiards team, a strong American nine, and the Alameda Taiiku nine are the best evenly matched aggregations, judging by the conflict that took place Sunday, August 22, when both teams exhibited equally brilliant plays and both sides, with two even runs, would not acknowledge defeat until the only error for Alameda occurred in the eighth inning, enabling Warren to annex the deciding point.

The following are the scores of both games: First Team: Billiards Alameda 3 4 1, Merritt 2 5 1. Second Team: Alameda 10 5, Merritt 4 9.

S. F. Buddhist Young Men Ready To Meet Comers in Ping Pong

Ping-pong stars of the San Francisco Y. M. B. A. are eager to meet all on-comers who desire to match their skill in a real game of ping-pong. The local men have acquired two sets of table tennis. With such champions as I. Furuki and T. Ota, they expect to stand undefeated. In the early part of September a ping-pong tournament will take place at the Buddhist Hall.

EDITORIAL DR. ELIOT, NOTED EDUCATOR PASSES AWAY

Dr. C. W. ELIOT, noted writer and educator, who was president of Harvard University for forty years and president emeritus of the same institution until his death Sunday, has had an exceedingly active career. For more than fifty years he has held an enviable position among the great men of his time. He was a fearless writer and an original thinker, and his many reforms which he instituted at Harvard while he was president had caused Oliver Wendell Holmes at one time to remark: "He is turning the university like a flapjack." The flapjack turning was necessary, and Dr. Eliot was the man to accomplish it.
