The Japanese American News. THE LARGEST JAPANESE PUBLISHED OUTSIDE OF JAPAN. K. ABIKO, PUBLISHER AND EDITOR. TWO EIGHT STREET, SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA.

YAMADORI'S COLUMN

Edwin Bjorkman, writing in the Forum, is responsible for the following statement regarding Sweden's attempt at solution of the divorce problem.

The doctrine that marriage being a purely voluntary agreement is subject to cancellation by mutual consent is all right if the two parties concerned were on a deserted island away from contact with other individuals whose relations are intricately interwoven with them.

perament can be found in the differences in taste for drama of the two people. Japanese attend the drama to weep, while Americans want to be amused.

TOGASAKI GIVES INSPIRING ADDRESS TO ALAMEDA LEAGUE

"Live Above Circumstances" Is Speaker's Plea to Second-Generation

Many young people of Alameda who heard George Togasaki speak to the Japanese Epworth League of Alameda Sunday evening, September 26, were greatly inspired by the wonderful message which was delivered in a brilliant manner.

"Let us live above circumstances and not be slaves to situations and surroundings," pleaded Mr. Togasaki. "God alone makes the unprofitable profitable. Surrender ourselves to be prisoners of Christ," he continued.

Preceding the address, scripture was read by Miss Lily Minami. A vocal duet by Misses Shizu Nagai and Mary Takii and a saxophone solo by John Yoshino were the added features of the program of the evening.

tween Japanese and an American tem. One of the noticeable differences between a tragic scene, where the lovers parted for the last time. The ending was touched with a bit of convincing realism.

Nichi Bei First Ken-Gakudan Members Enjoy Reunion

Wonderful memories of the trip to Japan were recalled as eight members of the First Nichi-Bei Kengaku Dan, besides a few guests, assembled at the home of Mrs. Abiko, wife of the proprietor of the Japanese American News, for a reunion held Sunday afternoon, September 26. Mrs. Abiko acted as hostess.

The party came together at 2:30 p. m., and interesting tales of the trip were told in undiminished fervor until the hour for disbanding. A wholesome dinner was enjoyed at 6:30 p. m., and the party broke up at 9:30 p. m.

Among those who were present at the affair were Misses Miya Sannomiyama, Hisako Fujii, Maki Utsumi, Margaret Tann, Yuki Furuta, and Miss Yamakawa, and Messrs. Hara, manager of the party; George Okimoto, Norman Kobayashi, and Yasuo Abiko.

ALAMEDA NINE DEFEATED BY STOCKTON YAMATOS

Stockton Huskies Strike Ball At Will; Alamedans in Poor Spirit, Surrender Game

A record crowd of colorful baseball enthusiasts jammed the Alameda Taiiku-Kai baseball ground bleachers, Sunday, September 26, an hour before the game, expecting to witness a thrilling conflict unprecedented in the history of Japanese baseball, but the fans were soon disappointed, and gloom fell over the tumultuous crowd (especially Alameda section), as the Stockton Yamatos smashed their way to victory, leaving the Encinal City nine in the hole with 2 runs to their 8.

Although Alamedans displayed several brilliant plays, luck was entirely against them, and they soon found themselves waylaid by their opponents. Domoto struck out one man in every inning he pitched, but he was far from his usual condition, so he was replaced by Hue in the fifth inning, during which time the "Pototote Diggers" amassed 4 runs. Iwai, Alameda's only second baseman, was prevented from playing on account of illness and was substituted by John Towata, a second team player.
