TO-DAY'S TOPICS

Attempt at Mussolini's Life

Benito Mussolini, Italy's black-shirt dictator, narrowly escaped death Sunday evening. The Premier's car had entered the main thoroughfare, the Via Indipendenza, in Bologna, when a shot cracked above the cheering of the mass.

The eighteen-year-old youth, who attempted the assassination, was immediately torn by the mob. Fourteen knife wounds were found in his body.

When the passage was cleared after the episode, Mussolini's automobile proceeded to the station. Italy's dictator showed not the slightest sign of nervousness. Nevertheless, it is interesting to speculate upon what were his thoughts at that moment.

Meanwhile, from one end of Italy to the other rings the acclamation: "Long live the Duce. Woe to him who touches the savior of Italy!"

Mussolini has had a spectacular career. His success so far is due largely to his appeal to the patriotic instinct of his people. He has the audacity of a Napoleon and possesses a keen sense of the dramatic.

Fresno Taikū-Kai Huskies Defeat Stockton Yamatos

Stockton Yamato's confidence to capture the 1926 baseball championship was shattered Sunday, October 31, as the Fresno Taikū Kai nine collected their strength at the last moment and downed the undefeated Yamato Braves by the score of 9 to 7.

The following is the score for Sunday's game: Stockton 0 0 3 2 0 1 0 1 0-7. Fresno 0 3 0 0 0 5 0 1 *-9.

San Jose Asahi Ties For 2nd Place With Alameda Nine

The Alameda Taikū-Kai nine met their second defeat at the hands of the San Jose Asahis, Sunday, October 31, at San Jose, thereby, forced to run equally for second place in the league, with the victors.

Nishida and Hinaga composed Asahi's battery, while Kawamura, replaced by Hue, and Hanamura made up Alameda's.

The score is as follows: Alameda 0 0 0 1 0 2 0 1 0-4. Hits 0 1 1 1 1 2 1 1 1-9. San Jose 5 0 1 0 0 0 0 0 0-6. Hits 5 1 1 1 0 0 1 0 *-9.

Errors—Alameda 4 San Jose 4. 3-base hits; Hanamura, Ikeda. 2-base hits; Nakano, Tsukimura.

at his life the Duce, in military uniform, attended the opening exercise of the Littorale Stadium astride a charger. "Black shirts!" Il Duce addressed the throng. "Put on your stirrups, and feel the pulsations of your determined and invincible hearts."

WATSONVILLE YOUNG BUDDHISTS FORM FORENSIC CLUB

Meeting Friday Reveals Much Youthful Aspirations; Members Plan Monthly Magazine In English and Japanese

On the eve of the annual Oratorical Contest of High School Students in the State of California conducted by the Japanese Alumni of the University of California a casual social meeting was held at the Rectory of the Buddhist Church. Among those present were the Rev. Mr. Sarubashi, the fiery pastor of the local church, Mr. Kawamura, instructor of the Japanese Language School, Messrs. Mitono, Suzaki, Sakai, Shiwota and Fujimoto, the latter three, graduates of the University of California.

From the day of its inauguration this organization has met with much enthusiasm, and with each meeting developed a need for further consideration of adequately meeting the aspirations of its members. Never before has interest risen so high, nor a group of promising youth come together to appeal so spiritedly for direction.

Accordingly, an acting executive body composed of seven members convened to consider proposals for the definite organization of the Forensic Club with sufficient latitude to meet their multiple demands. Besides fostering the art of expression it was desired that additional functions purporting to develop personality, sociability, and for the making of a man generally be instituted; that a constitution with a well defined preamble stating the ideals of their organization be drafted and the body be organized in concrete, definite form.

Rev. Sarubashi Leads

Paralleling the frenzied psychology of the excited mass of England creating the New Liberal Party, the impatient members of the assembly greeted the opening of the meeting. Rev. Sarubashi took the lead again, and amidst an uproar of acclamations, outlined the ideals and plans of the organization.

Subsequently Mr. Sakai assumed the duty of a temporary chairman, and proceeded to the execution of the plans. After a brisk floor discussion, in which a fluent flow of oratory made a marked display, the plans were accepted and ratified.

President—Mr. Ernest Fujimoto. Vice-Pres.—Miss Yoshiko Yamamoto. Secretary—Miss Handa (Helen). Treasurer—Mr. Harry Kamiya. Social—Miss Gloria Fujimoto.

Coolidge Cables Felicitations To Japanese Emperor

Washington Correspondent—October 31 being "Tenchosetsu," birthday greetings were cabled on that day by President Coolidge to Emperor Yoshihito of Japan.

Literary—Mr. James Nii. Athletic—Mr. Harry Shirachi. Reporter—Mr. Harry Ogi. Officers Port-Folio—Rev. Sarubashi A. Sakai.

As an added feature to the organization an editorial staff for the purpose of issuing a monthly magazine in both Japanese and English was created. This enterprise was somewhat audacious in view of what it requires in the way of work and expense, but the members felt that they would be capable of the task and voted for its incorporation.

Chief Editor—Rev. Sarubashi (Japanese). Acting Editor—Mr. A. Sakai (English). Business Manager—Mr. Harry Kamiya.

General Staff: George Yokoyama, Gloria Fujimoto, James Nii, Yoshiko Yamamoto, Robert Yamasaki, Marian Iwami.

This was established what may be considered the most promising young people's organization in Watsonville with a most daring program ever undertaken. The will to do has manifested itself in the few months of its probationary period and considering the hopeful element which makes up the body much promise seems evident of its future progress.

Over 200 Participate in Local Y. M. B. A. Halloween Party

An unexpected crowd of over 200 people gathered at the San Francisco Buddhist Hall in gay Halloween costumes, Saturday night, October 30, to participate in one of the jolliest Halloween parties, sponsored by the young peoples' clubs of the church.

Games appropriate to Halloween, refreshments and costume dance were enjoyed until midnight, when the mirthful crowd reluctantly dispersed.

The hall was disguised with colorful decorations, mingling with the colors of variegated costumes. As a special feature, the "Bakemono Yashiki" (haunted chamber) produced many gasps and screams from couples, especially from the weaker sex, as they were led through the dark chamber, filled with dreadful oracles.

James Hashimoto, acting as chairman of the affair introduced many new games that were participated by all and the unique decorations were the ideas of Itoko Tsukada.

San Francisco Couple To Be Wedded Tonight

The wedding of Miss Nakai Kikuchi and S. Asano, both of San Francisco, will take place tonight, Wednesday, 7:30 o'clock, at the First Reformed Church, on Post Street. The marriage ceremony will be officiated by the Rev. Mr. Kowta. The reception will take place immediately after the wedding at the Community House adjacent to the Reformed Church.

Miss Kikuchi is a popular member of the Reformed Church, while Mr. Asano is a member of the editorial department of the Japanese American News. The baishyakunins for the couple were Mr. and Mrs. Abiko, publisher of the Japanese American News, and Mr. and Mrs. H. Shishimoto, managing editor.
