Hail! Fresno Harmonica Band

Again it is the mouth, second-generation mouth, which beget honors. Fresno Scouts tout their mouth organs and win a loving cup!

John Aiso and Henry Shimamoto, Southern California orators, achieved glory by the use of their mouth and vocal properties. So did our own Yamakawa a few years ago at the Shakespearian contest, and it was warbling through the mouth that blazed the fame of our radio songbirds, Misses Agnes Miyakawa of Sacramento and Maki Utsumi of Oakland. And now we have the Fresno Scouts, sons of sturdy raisin growers, winning honors not by toiling to victory by their brawn and sweat as their fathers have done before them, but by making sweet music with a mouth organ. May the second-generation mouth keep on achieving glory!

Why complain if the canal our marines are guarding in Nicaragua is not yet built? The blueprints must be protected.—Detroit News.

SACRAMENTO CHRISTIAN CONFERENCE TO HAVE MANY NOTED SPEAKERS

Local Yells and Songs To Feature Social Banquet

Elaborate plans of the Christian Conference of Sacramento district are rapidly materializing through the untiring efforts of the various committees. The Conference will be held at Sacramento on Saturday and Sunday, February 12 and 13.

TOPIC WILL BE "CHRISTIAN SERVICE."

It has been decided by the discussion committees that the topic of group discussion will be "Christian Service." Under this topic it is possible to discuss the meaning of Christian service at home, service in schools, and church work as social service.

The Conference motto will be "The Greatest of All Is the Service for All." Mr. Al Dingle, a popular man among the younger set of American churches, will lead the Open Forum. He promises to make it as interesting as possible, if all the delegates will unquestionably take part in discussion of the topics. Rev. Mr. Kowita and Rev. Mr. Takahashi, the chairmen of the Young People's Department of the Northern California Church Federation, will take an important part in the meeting. Also, Mr. Henry Takahashi of San Francisco will attend the Conference to encourage the undertaking.

The Social Committees are working hard so that the delegations will be contented when they leave. They are expecting each group to be prepared with some local yells and songs at the banquet.

Fresno Scout Harmonica Band Entertain Lawyers

On Sunday night, January 30, the Fresno Scout Harmonica Band entertained the American Lawyer's Association at a banquet. The scouts played their favorite selections and were awarded with generous applause. These Scouts recently won second place. A beautiful loving cup was presented to them as a result of their efforts at the last harmonica contest conducted by the Liberty Theatre in Fresno.
