Friendly Talks On Business Management

By Wilford E. Talbert, Director Bureau of Management Research

(Editorial Note: The Japanese American News is very fortunate in securing the consent of Mr. Talbert to give our readers a series of articles on business management which will appear every Wednesday and Sunday.

The Bureau of Management Research, which Mr. Talbert represents, is a group of business consultants with offices in the Flood Bldg., San Francisco. This Bureau has served more than 100 of the largest firms on the Pacific Coast, so Mr. Talbert speaks from a broad business experience secured through first-hand knowledge and observation.

The Editor will be glad to hear what our readers think of these articles, and letters to Mr. Talbert telling him of your appreciation will be welcomed.)

Mr. K. Abiko has asked me to write a series of articles on business management. However, I realize that many of the readers of this paper are not in charge of businesses so I have chosen for my first topic a subject which

MRS. KAWASAKI'S PUPILS OBSERVE 'HINA MATSURI' WITH MUSICAL PROGRAM

Madame Kineya and Pupils Assist in Program

Pupils of Mrs. Edith Kawasaki of San Francisco gave a delightful musicale Friday evening at her home on Van Ness Avenue in order to celebrate the Japanese Dolls Festival. About forty prominent music-lovers of the city were entertained with selections from Japanese composition. The following talented pupils participated in the program: Miwa Kai, Mutsu Bepp, Michiko Nishimoto, Kimi Neriki, Ritsuko Nakashima, Saku Baba, Naoyo Takayama, Hideko Nakamura and Kaoru Nakamura.

MADAME KINEYA AND TWO PUPILS FEATURE:

Madame Kineya and her two pupils, Mizuye Kakehi and Sadako Oku, assisted in the program with very interesting Japanese nagauta (narrative song) numbers, to the tune of a beautiful samisen music. After the program refreshments were served.

should be of interest to every man and even to every housewife.

The problem I refer to is that of managing your finances. This is a real problem whether you are a day laborer, a housewife, a grocer, a professional man, or a manufacturer.

Whether you handle thousands of dollars or only a few dollars, the problem is the same—how to make the income cover all of the expenses.

A DAY TOGETHER

(By Iwao Kawakimi)

MORNING

Do you remember How for a month Our days had passed Working and living together? I remember once Of standing outside Of the door of your room At quarter to seven On Monday morning And demanding brusquely: "Get up, you sleepyhead! Do I have to Drag you out of bed?" Your answer had been One of sheer laziness: "My goodness, what fuss! Don't delay your breakfast On my account."

Though you knew very well I would not eat without you. And can you forget "Misoshiru-sakana-daikon?" Our "asa-meshi" of "Misoshiru-sakana-daikon?" To keen-edged appetites. Then little past seven We would start walking To the packing house. And take a seat together By a long, white table And begin to clean the grapes With short, sharp scissors. I have never known A greater joy than to work Over the same box with you. With our low whispers Breaking the repressed silence Despite the frowning disapproval Of our American "boss."

And at ten, I would be Called out into the fields Because the heat had begun To dry the dewy grapes. And as I swung into the rhythm Of the stolid, swift pick I would constantly hear Your parting admonition: "Don't work too hard." Which, like all feminine

BERKELEY FELLOWSHIP TO HOLD DISCUSSION GROUP, SUNDAY NIGHT

Members Will Have Supper, Followed By Discussion Led By Dr. Tolson

On Sunday evening, March 6, at the Japanese Christian Church, the Berkeley Fellowship will have its semi-monthly discussion meeting.

An interesting innovation has been made in the Fellowship program by the members having a supper together at 6:30 before the discussion, which will start at 7:45.

Dr. Tolson, one of the most interesting personalities that the Fellowship has known, will stimulate and lead this brilliant group of second-generation people.

The Fellowship will gladly welcome any young people who would like to take part in its discussions.
