TODAY'S TOPIC

The Naval Arms Conference

President Coolidge's original proposal for a five-power naval arms limitation conference has narrowed down to a three-power conference...

Italy, according to one observer, "is out to make a place for herself in the world, to make room for her overgrowing population—peacefully, certainly, if possible; but, if not, then somewhat."

The French rejection of the President's proposal is based upon her fear that her acceptance will undermine the League of Nations. But behind the niceties of phraseology, one cannot get away from the impression that France is not nurturing any hope for a complete disarmament for many decades to come.

The French and Italian rejection may not be final. Japan, in her acceptance yesterday of Coolidge's three-power conference proposal, has hinted that the inclusion of France and Italy is desirable.

NISSEI SAMURAI DOWN SAN MATEO STUDENTS ON FRIDAY NIGHT, 22-10

Hisao Nakayama, Frank Kawakami and G. Yama Are Stars

On Friday night, March 11, at the Willard Court in Berkeley, the San Mateo Students' Club and the Nissei Club quintets met in a cage clash, starting at half-past eight.

San Mateo drew first blood when G. Yama dropped in a pretty shot from the side to score two points. The lead was increased when Takahashi converted a free throw, but Nissei tied the score, 3-3, when Hisao "Duke" Nakayama sank a foul and a field goal toward the end of the first quarter.

In the second quarter, San Mateo took the lead again when Onishi rang a clean basket from the black line, but Nissei tied it up again when Frank Kawakami put in one of the two free throws given him. San Mateo led at the end of the first half, 5-4.

The third quarter found both teams fighting hard for the advantage, but San Mateo still managed to maintain its lead at the end of the quarter, 9-8.

In the last quarter, the Nissei "samurais" staged a most amazing shooting rally when Hisao Nakayama, Frank Kawakami, and Ernie Takaki dropped in bucket after bucket to score fourteen points while holding the San Mateo to a single point, made by Karuja on a foul, Nissei winning out 22-10.

A DAY TOGETHER

(By Iwao Kawakami)

NIGHT

Do you remember It was still light When we finished work? Though we called it "night?" We would then get our daily quart of milk from the cow. I never thought that natural milk could taste so good. It was no wonder that your cheeks were unpainted red.

The supper was usually "Sukiyaki" and "nihonshoku." We would linger over the cleaning up of dishes till your mother began to scold. And insist on us taking our bath. Now I wonder how we could have ever bathed in that square, wooden tub. I remember when we met again in our foreman's parlor, you were dressed in a blue kimono. While I wore my black "haori."

We would then begin to write letters, or play cards—"rummy." And while we played, you would tell me of your trip to Japan. All too soon, the three old men and women watching us would turn into their beds—also shut the light. And through the dark your voice would come softly bidding me: "Good night, and pleasant dreams." And so now, as I write, I wonder if you, though invisible, could hear me bid you: "Good night and pleasant dreams."

Yama, 2; Onishi, 2; Center—G. Yama, 4; Guards—Karuja, 1; Takahashi, 1.

Nissei: Forward—H. Nakayama, 9; F. Kawakami, 9; Center—Nobuo Tabata. Guards—Shingi Yamamoto, Ernie Takaki, 3; Joe Kawahara, Shingi Shimamoto, 1; Sam Kimura.

STOCKTON CRITIC PICKS ALL-STAR BASKETERS OF NORTHERN CALIFORNIA

(By George Suzuki)

Dear Editor: Now that the basketball season has been definitely closed in the Northern California section, I have been urged by many to select an all star team representing the Northern California basketball five.

In comparison to the brand of basketball put up by the numerous Japanese teams around the other parts of California, particularly the Bay section, it is my personal opinion from observation, that the teams of Northern California do not display the smooth polish and experienced all-around playing ability as displayed by the Japanese basketball teams of the Bay section. However, Japanese basketball teams of Northern California have been steadily showing improvement in every department of play, for the past few seasons, and within a couple of years, with added seasoning and experience necessary, I feel that the teams in this section would bid fair to give good competition to the strong Bay section teams.

FIRST TEAM IS SELECTED:

The following is my selection of the first team, representing the All-Star Northern California basketball five:

Harry Tayama, RF, Penryn Y. M. A.; E. Yoshimoto, LF, Stockton Y. M. B. A.; Frank Mirikitani, C, Stockton Y. M. B. A.; Pete Hotta, RG, Black Pirates, Stockton; J. Akaba, LG, Stockton Y. M. B. A.
