Surplus of Marriageable Girls in Hawaii

Because a surplus of marriageable girls in Hawaii is causing secret concern to their parents, there has been much discussion lately over the proposal to induce young continental Japanese to marry Japanese girls of the Islands. Already a "Hawaii matrimonial bureau" is rumored to have been established in Los Angeles (by bashful bachelors, so the rumor runs), while the more dashing of the would-be Romeo are organizing Hawaii Kengaku-Dans in Southern California.

According to statistics compiled by the Consul-General Kuwashima, there are the following number of girls of marriageable age:

17 years	786
18 "	809
19 "	700
20 "	629
21 "	522
22 "	510
23 "	475

25 "	297
26 "	309
27 "	199
28 "	241
29 "	135
30 "	125

According to reports from Hawaii, the following facts are generally conceded:

Q. Is there a large number of girls desiring to cross the continent?

A. There is a considerable number.

Q. What are the wishes of their parents?

A. Some of the parents are willing that their daughters marry continental Japanese, while others are not.

Q. Are the girls desiring to come to the continent living in the country districts or in the cities?

A. Both.

Almost all of the girls are grammar school graduates. The majority of them are either attending high school or are graduates herefrom, although only a small number are college students.

Tokyo Papers Comment On Situation of Chinese

Special to the Japanese American News TOKYO, April 2—Concerning the Nanking affairs, the Friday issues of the Tokyo Jiji and Hochi raise considerable discussion.

The Jiji asserts that inconsiderate strong measures against China will only make the situation worse. Japan must give China a chance to solve the Nanking problems by her international conscience.

The Hochi also states that use of force against China will bring temporary success, but the eternal evil opinion of some selfish business men must be disregarded for the sake of all Japanese people.

6 High School Aspirants Enter Alumni Oratorical

Many Cities in Northern California Represented

With eager hearts and high hopes, six high school students have entered the sixth annual U. C. Alumni Oratorical Contest to be held at the San Francisco Reformed Church on Post Street, San Francisco.

Berkeley is represented by Mrs. May Imamura, member of the Hoshi-No-Hana Club, and Oakland has a potential winner in Mary Ikeda of the O. S. D. Club.

Heading the boys are Koji Murata, a member of the Comrades Club of the San Francisco Japanese Y. M. C. A., Kikuo Taira of the Fresno Student Club, Howard Imaizaki of the Sacramento Better Fellowship, and Yoshio Nakagawa of the Sacramento Student Club.

San Jose was also to be represented but withdrew its entry in the last moment. There are several other cities in Northern California conspicuous by their absence, including Watsonville, Stockton and Alameda.

Three prominent men are to act as judges, but as yet, only one, Dr. Guy, has definitely decided to do so. The two other judges will most likely be a university instructor and a public attorney.

Popular Sacramentans Announce Engagement

Nippon Star Artist and Buddhist Member To Unite

The happy marriage engagement of Mr. Ichiro P. Hamatake and Miss Shizuko Moriwaki, both of Sacramento, was been announced recently.

HAMATAKE IS "PATCH" MAN:

Mr. Hamatake is a prominent figure of the Sacramento Nippon Stars. He has done some wonderful exhibition out in the "patch" for many years past.

Miss Moriwaki is connected with the Buddhist Girls' organization. Their union should bring about much happiness.

P. S. This is not April Fool.

Picnic Is Postponed

The Sacramento town picnic, scheduled for this Sunday, April 3, has been postponed till the next week, April 10, because of the present rainy weather.

However, the entertainment scheduled to be held at the Boxing Hall on the same evening will take place regardless of the weather.

P. S. This is not April Fool.

FIRST TWO DAYS ARE ROUGH:

For the first two days the sea

was rough since the Korea Maru came in contact with stormy weather.

Most of our players,

with the exception of Fred Yoshikawa and myself were sea sick.

Talk about Mr. Simons, our American catcher, Nakano of Alameda, and Mimura of Fresno!

—well, they were just like babes

in a cradle. I had to watch

Simons for fear of his dropping overboard to get rid of his sea sickness forever. Mr. Simons was terribly sick, but now most of our players are up, and they are appearing for the feed.

"SAX" AND "UKE" RATTLE OFF JAZZ:

Fresno players are making a great hit through the three musicians, namely, Hirokawa on the ukulele, Iwata on the "sax," and Yoshikawa on the mandolin.

These three players are out-running the regular Filipino musicians.

ZENIMURA WRITES OF FRESNO NINE'S VOYAGE ON BOARD KOREA MARU

Hirokawa, Iwata, Yoshikawa Make Great Hit As Musicians

Mr. K. Zenimura, who is leading the Fresno baseball team for a Japanese tour, writes an interesting letter to Mr. Kameno, of the Fresno branch of the Japanese American News, concerning the voyage on the Korea Maru, which left San Francisco for Japan on March 15. Following is an extract from the letter:

ZENIMURA WRITES ON BOARD:

Mr. Kameno: Ever since we left "Frisco," the Korea Maru is heading toward Honolulu, which is known throughout the world as the Paradise of the Pacific. In the meantime, we will be saying "Aloha," meaning in Hawaiian, "best wishes and hello!"

Right now I haven't got much news to relate but will write to let you know some of the things that occurred the four days of our trip.
