Kengaku-Dan Diary (By Harry Takeda)

Wednesday, March 9 Ship sailed amid hilarious farewell at 5:30 o'clock. The bay was beautiful as the sun sank in the clear sky...

Thursday, March 10 Everyone felt so blue that this was an uneventful day, with the ship rocking up and down, side to side. All of us stayed in bed with no ambition of getting up...

Friday, March 11 The third day found us in control of our "sea legs" with the exception of Jimmy and Mary, who were still victims of the swaying boat...

At 10:00 we had a regular Christian Endeavor meeting with the discussion of the topic "Ship of Life." Each one contributed with his or her own ideas of such things as the cargo, fuel, ballast, dangers, and pilot...

As we approached Japan, we had a glorious view of Mt. Fuji covered with snow, which reminded us of the old poem "Haru te-mo kumotte mo, Fuji no yama; Moto no sugata wa, kawarazari-keri."

As we approached Japan, we had a glorious view of Mt. Fuji covered with snow, which reminded us of the old poem "Haru te-mo kumotte mo, Fuji no yama; Moto no sugata wa, kawarazari-keri."

When the company's boat reached our steamer, we were overwhelmed by a group of newspapermen, and the representatives of Nichi-Bei Shinbun were very kind to us, bringing us flowers and helping through customs. We had to pose for a number of pictures, many of which have appeared since in the newspapers here...

S.F. Japanese Hi-Y Issues Special Easter "Clarion"

Many Descriptive Essays and Poems Fill Artistic Feature Number

The Hi-Y Club of the San Francisco Japanese Y. M. C. A. has issued a special number of the "Clarion" for Easter, and it is one of the best numbers issued by this worthy organization...

To start off with, the editor, C. Nakano, has written a very thoughtful editorial on "The Ideal of Chivalry." On the next page is a beautiful poem by Dr. E. A. Sturge on "Easter."

Mr. L. E. Wilson, membership director of the San Francisco Y. M. C. A., has also contributed a short, but an appropriate comment on "Easter."

This is followed by another informative article on "Easter and Hi-Y" by Mr. H. O. Hill, State Secretary of the Y. M. C. A.

In a rather joyous mood, Y. Watanabe has penned the "Easter Vacation," and he concludes with "Let us have it forever."

Another noteworthy essay, "Pictures," has been written by Dr. R. R. Perkins, General Secretary of the San Francisco Y. M. C. A., and this is followed by a brilliant article on "The Little Acorn to Great Oak" by John E. Anderson, an American student at the Kinmon Gakuen.

A warm, personal touch has been added with "A Letter from an Old Friend" by Hidejiro Kato, the first editor of the "Clarion" who is now studying in the East.

Doubtlessly, a feature of this issue will be "A Shadow" by N. Kusumoto, which is a delightful story-essay. Also, "Water" by S. Aoki.

A poem, "April Again," by Y. Uchima, is very expressive in depicting the moods of this wayward, spring month. "From Tarō's Diary," by H. Makino, and "My American Life," by T. Murayama, reveal interesting phases of two serious thinkers, and further lessons in Japanese (nihon-go) are given by Mr. Murayama.

NORTH AMERICAN Y. M. B. A. LEAGUE PUBLISHES SEMI-ANNUAL JOURNAL

New Buddhist Journal Has 118 Pages in Japanese, English

The North American Y. M. B. A. journal "Bhadrati," has been published and is now being distributed throughout America to its numerous organizations. The journal is a beautifully designed, purple covered, 118 page publication, similar to the high school annual.

"Bhadrati," in Sanskrit, stands for "brotherhood," and throughout the entire volume the "Bhadrati" idea is poetically dwelt.

The opening page features a portrait of Chief Abbot Sonyu Otani. Seventy-two pages of the journal is devoted to English reading matter, including contributions and pictures of the different organizations. The remaining forty-eight pages are comprised of Japanese comments and advertisements.

The "Bhadrati" may be obtained from Mr. H. K. Terakawa, editor, by addressing to him, Box 354, Stanford University, California. The price is one dollar.

Concluding comments, "In and Out," by the editor and artistic embellishments by Mr. Endo, famous artist of the Hi-Y Club, round out this special Easter publication of the "Clarion."

S.F. JAPANESE 'Y' NEWS Progress of Comrades Club Ping Pong, Basketball Tournaments Given

The two groups, the "Wild Togos," led by Ray Kaneko, and the "Spartans," led by Carl Hirota of the San Francisco Japanese Y. M. C. A. Comrades Club, are in a "hot" race of competition.

So far, the "Spartans" are leading with 549 points, but the "Wild Togos" are right behind them with 491 digits. The "Wild Togos" really would be in the lead if it was not for the fact that the "Spartans" gained 60 points by "pulling off" an extra "musical" night. However, the "Wild Togos" are planning to take the lead by "pulling off" something better, all by themselves, too.

The incentive of this fierce competition is a silver cup, and a banquet to be given to the winner by the loser, who will also have to foot the expenses. Who will enjoy the "feet"? Time will tell.

The standing of the winners after the fourth round of the Ping Pong tournament are as follows:

Class A K. Fujita won three, M. Kaneko (3), M. Ichiyasu (3), Roy Kaneko (2), K. Obata (1), K. Baba (1), T. Kawabe (1), and K. Sanada (1).

Class B Susumu Takao and Ray Kaneko have won three apiece.

The fifth round will be played this Saturday. After four rounds of "inter-organization basketball tournament," the five teams had come out with the following results: "Phantoms" won three, lost one; "Fighting Irish" won two and lost two; "Galloping Ghosts" won two, lost two; "Flaming Eskimoux" won two, lost two, and the "Thundering Herd" had won one and lost two.

FIRE DESTROYS LINCOLN SCHOOL OF SACRAMENTO

Three-Story Grammar School Building near Japanese Quarters Is Almost Wholly Destroyed; Six Hundred Japanese Children Are Enrolled

Lincoln Grammar School, which is situated in the Japanese section of the town, between Fourth and Fifth Streets, has an enrollment of 632 Japanese children, of which 614 are American born. Besides the Japanese pupils, there are 120 Chinese, 9 Koreans, and 300 Mexican children enrolled in the school. The total enrollment is 1370.

The cause of the fire is unknown, though results of the investigation now being conducted tend to show that the fire was probably caused by leakage of electricity. The total damage is estimated at 150,000 dollars.

The pupils gathered promptly at the usual hour the same morning. The first, second, and third grade pupils were given instruction in the bungalow extension houses, while the upper class pupils were taken to Eighth and K Streets, where their classes were conducted without interruption.

The Japanese officials offered the use of the Buddhist Nihon Gakuen (Japanese Language School) as temporary quarters for the Lincoln Grammar School pupils.

Principal Miss N. Hopley, who is highly esteemed by the Japanese population of the city for her considerate services to foreign children, announced that Oriental children will not be segregated when the new building is constructed.
