SONNET (By Iwao Kawakami)

Without a thought Of self or praise, Through dark and splendid days She worked and wrought— To seek not what is sought By men, thick in the maze Of gold—the golden ways To happiness are not bought.

So she trod the torture's trail, And stopped to give to others, A drink from her shining gail; And help two willful brothers— We, her sons, now hail— Our mother—mother of mothers.

OAKLAND MERRITTS WILL PLAY "ALGUN TAI-KAI" AT ALAMEDA ON SUNDAY

First Game for Oakland Japanese Nine Will Be Test

The Oakland Merritts will play the "Algun Tai-Kai" nine today, Sunday, May 8, at 2:30 p. m., at Alameda Taikū-Kai grounds.

The "Algun Tai-Kai" is rated as one of the strongest Japanese teams. They are composed of players from San Francisco, San Leandro, San Lorenzo, and Centerville. The game should be an exciting one.

This will be the first Japanese game for the Merritts this season, as they have played only American teams and Chinese teams of Oakland. The forthcoming game will be the test for the Merritts if they are capable of playing good ball games with the Japanese.

Probably the batteries for the game will be: Oakland Merritts—George Ochiikubo and Hachiro Yuasa; "Algun Tai-Kai"—Araki and Mitsuhashi. G. Ochiikubo will return to the "slab," after being absent for a month, playing on the Technical High varsity, while H. Yuasa will be behind the "bat." He also was playing on the Oakland High varsity, and his playing will strengthen the Merritt nine. There will be plenty of rooters from the Bay vicinity. Don't forget to come and see this game, especially the baseball fans.

Oakland Line-up The line-up for the Oakland Merritts will be: Ke. Kitamura, 1B; T. Tanase, SS; G. Morimoto, RF; Onishi, LF; G. Ochiikubo, P; Mizusaki, 3B; Inouye, CF; H. Yuasa, C; and Arimoto, 2B.
