Sacramento Mothers Are Entertained at Supper

Epworth Leaguers Are Hosts To Deserving Mothers

Last Sunday, May 8, was Mother's day and it was observed throughout the villages and towns of the State.

During the supper, Rev. Mr. Watanabe related a very appropriate story of a son who achieved fame and success, inspired by the sacrifice and perseverance of his mother.

MOTHERS GIVEN PERSONAL ATTENTION:

As there were only a few mothers to entertain, the Epworth League members gave them their personal devotion and entertained them with vocal solos and instruments.

George Oyama's cornet solo, accompanied by "Smoky" Kawanoto caused much spontaneous merriment.

Grace Kitagawa, accompanied by her sister, Martha, offered for the mothers' approval a vocal solo selection, "Mother Machree."

Peter Osuga and Mary Oki each rendered vocal solos.

Some of the mothers were very kind in helping out and Mrs. Oyama, Mrs. Ishii and Mrs. Oki took lively parts.

SACRAMENTO CUBS BEAT VACAVILLE BASEBALLERS TO TIE FOR LEAGUE LEAD

Vacaville's Errors Chalk Up Costly 6 to 5 Score With Senators

In one of the most interesting games ever staged on the Yolo diamond, the Sacramento Cubs defeated the highly touted Vacaville nine to the tune of 6 to 5 in ten thrilling innings.

The Vacaville nine started out with a bang and garnered five runs in the first three innings.

It was a pitcher's battle between "Busher" Ishii and Nakagawa. In the ninth inning Frank Sakita was safe on error of George Ohashi, "Red Hot" Kozuma running for Sakita, stole second and advanced to third on wild pitch.

In the tenth, history repeated itself, the first batter being safe on Ohashi's error and going to third on a pass ball.

Ohashi and Wataji led the attack for Vacaville while Ed Hamatake and Kawasaki led the assault on "Busher." Ed Hamatake turned in a sensational fielding stunt when he pulled down a hit and threw his man out at first on a close play.

Sacramento won four out of the five games to tie with New Castle and Loomis for first place.
