Worth Repeating

The world belongs to the enthusiast who keeps cool.—William McFee.

With the death of curiosity we may reckon that active intelligence has died.—Bertrand Russell.

Hundreds of Miles Away

Hundreds of miles away from here I know a small grey town, With white roads climbing out of it and blue hills looking down; And there a deep, clear river flows, in silence all the day, Yet wakes at night and sings wild songs that steal your heart away.... Often of nights, my thoughts speed there on swift en-

Japanese Boy Scouts of Stockton Given Honors

Sacramento Couple Are United at Wedding

Mr. Nobutaka Taniguchi and Miss Kanako Nishi were united in marriage at a simple and lovely wedding on May 23, 3 p. m., at the Sacramento Buddhist Church.

Mr. Taniguchi is a very active member of the Y. M. B. A. and the secretary of the Buddhist Church.

Miss Kanako Nishi was very charming in a bridal gown of white satin trimmed with pearls and rhinestones. Her tiara of orange blossoms with a long veil was especially lovely. Misses Shizuto Inbe and Eiko Iseri were the veilbearers. The baishyakunins were Mr. and Mrs. Miki and Mr. and Mrs. Iseri of Sacramento.

S. J. Fiesta de las Rosas Souvenir Booklet on Sale

A beautiful souvenir book attractively illustrated with photographs of the big parade which featured the colorful Fiesta de las Rosas celebration in San Jose recently is now on sale. In the Japanese section the book is handled by the Kawakami stationery store on Jackson street. The Japanese community, which participated in the parade with a mammoth "Takarakune" float, won first prize in one of the divisions. Miss Bernice Ueyama, a popular second-generation girl of Cupertino, was the queen of the float, while Sunada Komako, Japan's screen luminary, enhanced the beauty of the float by her presence.

ALAMEDA YOUNG PEOPLE RENDER MUSIC PROGRAM AT M. E. CHURCH SUNDAY

Lily Minami and Yoneo Taniguchi of Epworth League Give Vocal Solos On Saturday evening, May 28, beginning at 8 o'clock, the young pupils under the direction of Mrs. Yamamoto, the well known piano instructor of Alameda, presented a musical program in the chapel of the M. E. Church. The introductory address was delivered by Mrs. Yamamoto. Following this, a number of her future "Paderwiskis" tinkered on the piano in solos or in duets. Young American pupils of Mrs. Yamamoto were also on hand to offer several piano recitals.
