All of the speeches were well rendered, and the audience responded heartily with many applause. The singing of the Kengaku-Dan...

The Penny

(By Iwao Kawakami)

For two hours, Shigeo had sat spell-bound in the bleachers of a ballpark, watching a tense battle on the green, chalk-cut diamond. It was in the last half of the ninth inning with the visitors leading 1-0, and the home team at bat...

The captain was now at bat, and he, blinking at the sun, pulled his cap down as he tapped the plate with his bat a few times.

Three balls and two strikes were called on him. Then, he seemed to time his swing as he took a cut at the next ball. With a crash, the hickory met the horsehide and the sphere sailed high and wide over a tall "collared" fence while the crowd went crazy.

With a whistle on his lips, Shigeo followed the spectators as they streamed over the stands and across the shadowing field. A few minutes later he was standing on a corner, waiting for a street-car, with a puzzled scowl on his face...

It was quite dark when he reached home and found a cold supper awaiting him. After eating he went out with the nickel, bought a "Ruf-Nek" and found that the picture of the player inside was that of the home-run hitter.

"I think I'll keep this picture and the penny," he promised himself as he stored them away in his box of boyhood memories.

Dan, sung by the members, as well as vocal solo by Yoneko Koizumi, accompanied by James Arikawa on the "uke," pleased the audience. Mr. Arikawa, who was the musician of the party, gave several selections on his "uke," saxophone, and "yokobue."

Mrs. Waterhouse, at the conclusion of the meeting, made general remarks on the successful educational trip of the party. The young people of the party put up at the Taihei Hotel for that night and visited Stanford University the following afternoon. They left for Los Angeles on S. P. train last evening at eight o'clock.

BERKELEY NISSEI BOYS DOWN OAKLAND Y.M.B.A. IN PING PONG TOURNAMENT

Surprising Upsets Feature Matches at O. S. D. Clubhouse

On Thursday night, June 9, at the O.S.D. clubhouse on Seventh street, between Broadway and Franklin in Oakland, the Nissei Club of Berkeley and the Y.M.B.A. of Oakland, met in a ping pong tournament.

The tournament started at half-past eight, and the following matches were played: M. Kubose (Oakland) defeated M. Harano (Nissei) 10-4, 10-3, 10-3, 10-3. S. Yamamoto (N) d. M. Kubose (O) 10-6, 7-10, 11-9. S. Yamamoto (N) d. M. Onishi (O) 10-2, 10-4. S. Yamamoto (N) d. I. Nobori (O) 10-6, 10-3.

After eliminating three Buddhist boys, Shingi Yamamoto was eliminated himself by N. Endo of Oakland, 11-9, 7-10, 7-10. Endo also took the measure of Tad Hikoeda of Nissei, 10-3, 10-8, but lost to Frank Kawakami of Berkeley, 9-11, 10-7, 5-10.

In one of the most spectacular matches of the night, Frank Kawakami defeated the Captain and one of the Y.M.B.A. team, K. Tanabe, in a grueling three-set game, 9-11, 10-7, 11-9.

In turn, Frank was eliminated by the youngest player on the Buddhist aggregation, M. Yokomizo, 6-10, 10-6, 6-10. But Yokomizo was helpless against the wicked racketing of the Nissei captain, Akira Oshida, who beat the Oakland lad, 10-6, 10-5, and won the tournament for Nissei Club, six games to four.

OAKLAND MERRITTS AND ALGUN TAIKAIS TO PLAY FINAL GAME ON SUNDAY

Game To Be Played Sunday At McClymonds High School Grounds

On Sunday afternoon, June 12, at the McClymonds High School grounds in Oakland, the Oakland Merritts and the Algun Taikais will meet in the final game of the season at half-past one.

The Algun Taikais are confident of coming out on top because they already hold a win over the Oakland boys, 10-3, but the Merritts are determined to upset the dope.

The batteries for the Merritts will be Koza Kitamura and Hatchiro Yuasa.

The Algun players are urgently requested to show up by 1:30 p. m., as the game will be limited to 3:30 p. m., when the field will be occupied by another pair of teams. All the rooters of the Merritts Athletic Club and the Algun Taikais in San Francisco and bay region are asked to come out and root in this last battle between these two baseball rivals. Come on—let's go!
