

日本國產の無類の調味料。此れ味は御用を乞ふる。新撰支那外教育ペン毛三童。

This horizontal banner contains Japanese text and illustrations. The text includes 'ヨーロッパの病床生活を充分厳重に行なう特効藥' (Special effective medicine for European hospital life), '第一号ニ優る' (Superior to the first number), '日分取寄せ販賣' (Sales by mail order), 'はすは夙夜苦悶の確信を得医' (Obtained medical confidence through continuous suffering), '全般致候今日' (Today I am fully dedicated), '永水間次郎氏' (Yasui Kanshirō), and 'ヨーロッパの病床生活を充分厳重に行なう特効藥' (Special effective medicine for European hospital life). There is also a small illustration of a person's head.

店

Japanese American News
THE LARGEST JAPANESE NEWSPAPER
PUBLISHED OUTSIDE OF JAPAN
K. ABEKO, PUBLISHER AND EDITOR
600 ELLIS STREET
SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA
ENTERED AT U. S. POST OFFICE
AS SECOND CLASS MATTER
SUBSCRIPTION RATES
IN ADVANCE
ONE MONTH $1.00
SIX MONTHS $5.00
ONE YEAR $10.00
SINGLE COPY 5 CENTS

The Situation in China

Yen Shi-shan, powerful governor of the "ideal" province of Shansi, was bound to invade Peking. It has ever been thus in China.

A warlord appears on the political stage of the Celestial Kingdom sufficiently great to rule with an iron hand, or otherwise, certain limited sections of the vast republic—to bring about sweeping reforms, modernization, and in fact to assume an ideal state of affairs to ensue—and no sooner does he sacrifice the inestimable fruits of his labors. The henchman of a group of hired flatterers whom he has gathered about him, and who to acquire as much of his wealth while the robbing is good, have thrust upon him through pretended compliments and cajolery, the dreadful task of saving China, he is prepared to do anything that is not sane.

It was thus with Chang Tsolin. So also was it with Feng Yu-hsiang and Chiang Kai-shek. Tsoo Kun, Sun Chung-fang and a multitude of others were no less the victims of the flattery that they had purchased. Now comes Yen Shi-san, surprisingly successful governor of what has come to be known as the ideal province of Shansi (it really was properly and skillfully governed) to join the fold. Latest reports from Peking indicate that his forces are nearing the Chinese capital and it would not be at all surprising to hear within the next two or three days, that he has actually accomplished a coup d'état. And in doing so Yen will merely prove that he also lacks the greatness to see his own weakness.

For anyone who knows the China of today realizes that not even a Mussolini could unify the country. The people are not prepared for it. To them, that is, to the masses, what is happening today is but a tedious repetition of incidents which are preparing them for a new era—for the time when they will be sufficiently educated to understand that they, and not a group of scheming militarists, politicians and states-

LATE BARON SUMITOMO'S ESTATE VALUED AT TWO HUNDRED MILLION YEN

Inheritance Tax Amounts to Nearly 13 Million Yen

Special to the Japanese American News
TOKYO, October 8—The late Baron Sumitomo's property is valued at 200,000,000 yen. The inheritance tax that is to be levied by the government will amount to 11,970,000 yen. Baron Sumitomo was founder of the great banking institution which bears his name. He amassed one of the largest fortunes in Japan, and was interested in scores of enterprises.

Goto Postpones Russian Trip

TOKYO, October 8—Viscount Shimpei Goto, who was reported yesterday as having accepted an invitation to visit Moscow to attend the celebration of the tenth anniversary of the Russian Revolution, has decided to postpone his departure to the Soviet capital. It is understood that the veteran statesman's decision was arrived following a conference with Dr. Sano.

Emperor To Review Naval Maneuvers

TOKYO, October 8—H.I.M. the Emperor will leave Tokyo for Yokosuka on October 30 to review the grand naval maneuvers which will be held this fall.

men, must rule the land.

Discussing, however, the immediate effects of a possible coup d'état by Yen, it is very likely that Chang Tso-lin will again be driven back as far as Mukden where, as usual, through the protection Japan must defend him to protect her own rights, he will be safe and in a position to recoup his losses. In the meantime the Nationalists will be in control of the Capital, and it is greatly to be regretted that at this moment when they are again in Peking, their party should be in such a state of disruption, with a leader nowhere to be seen. But one can never tell about things in China. They say it is darkest before dawn, and this may be the present situation in the republic. With such men as Chiang Kai-shek, Eugene Chen and Borodinot of power, a new leader will have a vastly easier time of running matters without interference.

Scrub Years
(By I. E.)

(Continued from yesterday)

As Tsuki played on the piano, Chikao endeavored to follow her on "That Old Gang of Mine." "Let's hear this one now." He had found "I Love You" on top of the piano and proceeded to place it on the rack.

"No, really, Chikao—I said 'just once'—and that's all it's going to be."

"Lovers always sing the same familiar thing, I love you, I love you I do. How nice it would be—"

"I'm going out now."

"—to do it differently, but now that I am saying it to you; I—"

She had left the parlor and was crossing the kitchen when he hastened after her, just in time to open the door for her. "—is all that I can say—"

"And that's enough, Chikao. You must stop singing that song before me."

"—I hate you, I hate you, the same old words I'm saying in the same old way, I—"

"Chikao—please stop! You're making a nuisance of yourself."

He stopped singing and said quietly: "Tsuki, I love you."

"Chikao—you're mad!"

"Am I?"

They were half-way down the steps, in the dark, when his right arm slipped about her waist and, for the first time in his life, he kissed her.

"Tsuki—gee—"

"Chikao, please—I must go to the meeting."

"Just one more—"

Another breathless moment of ecstasy and then she struggled loose from his arms and running lightly down the steps, disappeared around the corner.

"So this is the lunacy of love," he thought as he looked up at the moon.

Reconstruction of Highway Started

Special to the Japanese American News

TOKYO, October 8—Heavy automobile traffic during the past twelve months has completely ruined the model highway between Tokyo and Yokohama, which was completed a year ago. Reconstruction work has already commenced, but is not known when the highway will again be in its former condition. The Tokyo-Yokohama highway, and that between Kobe and Osaka, are the only two highways of any consequence in Japan.

Your surroundings do not re-

THE SECOND-GENERATION LACKS UNTAMED SPIRIT SAYS JAPANESE WRITER

Young Journalist Here from Tokyo Writes on Our Young People

BY KIMPEI SHEBA

(A young journalist from Tokyo, Mr. Kimpei Sheba, who is sojourning here for a study of California problems, has been engaged as special writer for the English section of the Nichi-Bei. He was news editor of the Japan Times of Tokyo before his departure for world tour and his engagement comment on the second generation is as follows:

It would be difficult to find a community of youths so uniform in thought, appearance, and character as the young men and women, boys and girls, who constitute the second generation of Japanese in California. Ambitious and modest, serious-minded and amiable; they are imbued with more good qualities than are possessed by the average community of growing people in most countries.

They are cheerful, they are kind; they are industrious, and they are contented. In any group of these young people, one will not find a nasty, or mean, or really selfish person. There may be some unfortunate enough to possess these traits but they do not make themselves apparent.

YOUNG PEOPLE POSSESS PLEASANT DISPOSITION

In other words, the second generation of Japanese here, taking it as a whole, has no discouraging characteristics—no really hurtful disposition. That is to say, there may be selfish persons among them, but they have not the ruthlessness to inflict harm upon one unjustly; there may be mean persons among them but they cannot be cruel—cruel and unrelenting in the sense of the word as in Japan know it.

The principal fault of the men and women of the second generation, if they have any fault, is—though this impression may have been hastily obtained—the lack of an untamed spirit, a ferocious, inhuman, brutal substance which seems to be imbedded only in those brought up in an atmosphere in which there is bitterness, where cruelty is to be found in equal proportion as much as kindness, where love and hatred literally walk hand in hand.

Your surroundings do not re-

Berkeley Fellowship To Hear Stitt Wilson

Members Also Invited To Social by Dr. Hunter

S. Yamagishi Sent by Japan To Study Western Art

BERKELEY—Instead of their usual Sunday night meeting, the members of the local Fellowship will go in mass to the First Congregational Church to hear, starting from eight o'clock, a talk by Mr. Stitt Wilson, former mayor of this city, who recently returned from a tour around the world.

After this lecture, Dr. Hunter, pastor of the College Avenue Methodist Church, has invited the Japanese young people for a social at his home.

quire you to be perpetually on guard. You have no slums. It is not necessary for you to fight as we must for what we want. You have few "hot-headed" men, what we in Japan call "ranbo na yatsu", who, for instance, on being "fired", even though for good reasons, will threaten his superiors with: "I'll blow the daylights out of you!" and do it.

It is being brought up in such a frightful atmosphere that braces one up.

By this it is not meant that you lack a fighting spirit. This is apparent from watching you at your games. The difference is that you play a clean game and expect others to do the same.

Not so in Japan. Every moment we must be on the lookout for "dirty" plays, and this is not alone in sports. The clutching of fists and the gritting of teeth in the face of such disheartening surroundings bring out the best or worst in peoples.

It is when one can emerge a "good" man or a "good" woman after being plunged in the midst of such an atmosphere that one can first correctly judge a person. This frightening atmosphere is to men what meat is to a tiger. It calls forth all the savagery and ferocity that is in one.

Whether going through life amidst such surroundings is good or not, it is not for this writer to say. It is merely that he likes it. He likes being in midst of bad men and bad surroundings, just as much as he likes being with good men and in good surroundings.

Now, as to the question of passing judgment on the second generation of Japanese here, it is beyond the province of this writer to do anything of that nature. He does not "choose" to commit himself. Just as it is impossible to determine the qualities of a machine before testing it, so it is with human beings. And, when all is said and done, the second generation has not been put to any real test. Under such circumstances, anyone who praises or criticizes the young people here merely passes judgment on an untested product.

UKIYOE ARTIST FROM JAPAN TO HOLD EXHIBIT AT SACRAMENTO CHURCH

Members To Hear Mr. Julian Randolph in Evening

SACRAMENTO—An extraordinary interest has been aroused in Japan in the color prints, and the latest exponent of that branch of fine arts, to travel abroad for investigation and study, is S. Yamagishi, master ukiyoe painter and recognized authority on color prints, who is giving an exhibition of his works at the local Buddhist Temple on 12th street from 9 to 12.

The exhibit will contain about one hundred prints and paintings and his wife, who is also an artist and well-known in Japan under the pen name of Kotan, will have some of her choice works displayed at the exhibit.

Mr. Yamagishi has been commissioned by the Imperial Government for the present study tour of the world, at the recommendation of President Masaki of the Tokyo Art School.

It is being brought up in such a frightful atmosphere that braces one up.

By this it is not meant that you lack a fighting spirit. This is apparent from watching you at your games. The difference is that you play a clean game and expect others to do the same.

Not so in Japan. Every moment we must be on the lookout for "dirty" plays, and this is not alone in sports. The clutching of fists and the gritting of teeth in the face of such disheartening surroundings bring out the best or worst in peoples.

It is when one can emerge a "good" man or a "good" woman after being plunged in the midst of such an atmosphere that one can first correctly judge a person. This frightening atmosphere is to men what meat is to a tiger. It calls forth all the savagery and ferocity that is in one.

Whether going through life amidst such surroundings is good or not, it is not for this writer to say. It is merely that he likes it. He likes being in midst of bad men and bad surroundings, just as much as he likes being with good men and in good surroundings.

Now, as to the question of passing judgment on the second generation of Japanese here, it is beyond the province of this writer to do anything of that nature. He does not "choose" to commit himself. Just as it is impossible to determine the qualities of a machine before testing it, so it is with human beings. And, when all is said and done, the second generation has not been put to any real test. Under such circumstances, anyone who praises or criticizes the young people here merely passes judgment on an untested product.

Berkeley M. E. Epworth Leaguers To Meet Sun.

Members To Hear Mr. Julian Randolph in Evening

BERKELEY—The Epworth Leaguers of the local M. E. Church will hold an evening service, starting with a light supper at six o'clock, Sunday.

The speaker will be Mr. Julian Randolph, secretary of the International Y.M.C.A. at Stiles Hall, and his subject will be "Yesterday, Today, and Tomorrow."

Everyone is cordially invited to attend this meeting.

U.C. Pharmacists' Meeting Notice

The local U. C. Pharmacy Students' Club will hold its general meeting at the Japanese American Association Hall on Sunday, October 9, from 1 p.m.

It is imperative that all members attend this meeting.

Fresno Y.W.B.A. To Meet Today

FRESNO—A meeting of the representatives of the Central California Y.W.B.A. League will be held Sunday afternoon, October 9, from two o'clock. The various component members of

OAKLAND, BERKELEY JAPANESE TO PLAY AMERICANS TODAY

Japanese To Enter Winter League from Next Sunday

OAKLAND, October 9—Before their entrance in the Maxell Hardware Class "C" Winter League from next Sunday, the two sister city Japanese nines, the local Merritt Athletic Club and the Berkeley Taiku-Kai will engage in their final practice games today with Americans.

BERKELEY vs. MERCURY

The Berkeley Taiku boys are scheduled to meet the Mercury Athletic Club tossers at San Pablo Park in Berkeley, starting from 2:30 p.m.

MERRITTS vs. SPARTANS

The Duck Hunters of Merritts Club will be seen in action with their new "tailor-made" suits against the Spartan Athletic Club at Bayview diamond near the 16th street station from 1:30 p.m.

the League are urged to send their representatives.

WANTED

Wanted—Newspaper delivery boy with bicycle for San Francisco district. Apply at the Nichi-Bei, 650 Ellis street—Adv.

THINGS THAT NEVER HAPPEN

American-Japanese Treaty Negotiated

Special to the Japanese American News

TOKYO, October 8—The Foreign Office has cabled instructions to Ambassador Matsudaira at Washington to negotiate an American-Japanese prohibition treaty. The exact nature of the treaty has not been divulged.

Japan To Take Census in 1930

TOKYO, October 8—Japan's next census will be taken in 1930.

nature. He does not "choose" to commit himself. Just as it is impossible to determine the qualities of a machine before testing it, so it is with human beings. And, when all is said and done, the second generation has not been put to any real test. Under such circumstances, anyone who praises or criticizes the young people here merely passes judgment on an untested product.

nature. He does not "choose" to commit himself. Just as it is impossible to determine the qualities of a machine before testing it, so it is with human beings. And, when all is said and done, the second generation has not been put to any real test. Under such circumstances, anyone who praises or criticizes the young people here merely passes judgment on an untested product.

nature. He does not "choose" to commit himself. Just as it is impossible to determine the qualities of a machine before testing it, so it is with human beings. And, when all is said and done, the second generation has not been put to any real test. Under such circumstances, anyone who praises or criticizes the young people here merely passes judgment on an untested product.

nature. He does not "choose" to commit himself. Just as it is impossible to determine the qualities of a machine before testing it, so it is with human beings. And, when all is said and done, the second generation has not been put to any real test. Under such circumstances, anyone who praises or criticizes the young people here merely passes judgment on an untested product.

nature. He does not "choose" to commit himself. Just as it is impossible to determine the qualities of a machine before testing it, so it is with human beings. And, when all is said and done, the second generation has not been put to any real test. Under such circumstances, anyone who praises or criticizes the young people here merely passes judgment on an untested product.

nature. He does not "choose" to commit himself. Just as it is impossible to determine the qualities of a machine before testing it, so it is with human beings. And, when all is said and done, the second generation has not been put to any real test. Under such circumstances, anyone who praises or criticizes the young people here merely passes judgment on an untested product.

nature. He does not "choose" to commit himself. Just as it is impossible to determine the qualities of a machine before testing it, so it is with human beings. And, when all is said and done, the second generation has not been put to any real test. Under such circumstances, anyone who praises or criticizes the young people here merely passes judgment on an untested product.

nature. He does not "choose" to commit himself. Just as it is impossible to determine the qualities of a machine before testing