NIGHT IS DARK AND LONG

By Harue Minamoto The night was dark and long; The stars were twinkling in the sky; When morning came, those stars were gone.

The night was dark and long, And as I looked into the river My thoughts wandered to my friend.

FORTITUDE

When you have been a naughty child, Or have taken more than your share, When you've been sulky, cross or wild, You must not say, "Oh, I don't care!"

But when you hate to see it rain, And when it's time to comb your hair, And when you have a little pain, Then you can say, "Oh, I don't care!"

TOTS GIVE UP MARBLE FOR CLEATS

Modern Youth Says 'We Want More Action'

SALINAS—Piling up a handsome score of 41-7, the scrappy Cowboy Juniors of the Rodeo city trounced their rivals last week at the neighboring city of Monterey.

Marbles and tops seem to lose its attraction with these hardy lots who prefer cleats and head-gears of horsehide. The scorpions down here have perhaps seen Tut Inlay doing his daily dozen behind the bill board fence in his early days.

The diminutive cowboys from Salinas showed superiority over the "17 Milers" in all branches of turf battle. With glaring errors now and then, the game proceeded to a favorable climax.

Catching a pass on the opponents 40 yard line Hop Fujino raced down the green for the first touchdown. Tad Tanda, Salinas center showed speed and fight during the stock several points. Half back Sugawara executed a sensational sprint of 55 yard sticks for another 6 point.

From now on, the Juniors will terrorize the valley district with its bull throwing feasts.

Family Broadcasting.—"We've had the best time playing post-man," exclaimed the small hopeful of the family. "We gave a letter to every lady in the block."

"But where did you get the letters, dear?" "Oh, we found 'em in your trunk in the attic, all tied up with a blue ribbon."

—New Outlook So She Couldn't.—"Well, after his behavior yesterday, I'll never go fishing with him again as long as I live."

"Heavens, what did he do?" "Oh, he just fished!" —John Bull's Summer Annual.

NEW CONSUL GENERAL IS ENROUTE S. F.

MORIZO IIDA DECLINES TO GIVE VIEW ON IMMIGRATION

Special to the Japanese American News HONOLULU, Dec. 3.—M. Iida, newly appointed Japanese consul general to San Francisco, passed through here today aboard the Korea Maru enroute to San Francisco.

Consul General Iida left his family in Japan for the purpose of affording his children an opportunity to acquire education in the land of their parents. Iida was consul general to Batavia prior to his appointment to the San Francisco post.

Interviewed aboard the Korea this morning, Consul General Iida declined to express any opinions regarding the immigration question, declaring that he had not yet formed any definite opinion regarding the matter.

Turning to other questions, Consul General Iida declared that he was giving serious consideration to the question of the inter-marriage of children born in the Hawaiian Islands and in the mainland of the United States, with native Japanese.

Youth Not Flaming At Oregon College

ENGLE, Ore., Dec. 4 (United Press).—Maybe youths go to some colleges and universities for the mere purpose of flaming, and all that sort of thing, but not so at the University of Oregon, according to the figures of Earl M. Pallett, registrar.

Of 2,849 enrolled students at this university only 813 are wholly supported by their parents and of this fortunate 813 all but 151 are women, indicating that large portion of Oregon's young men gain an education by hard work.

Men who depend entirely on their own earnings while attending school total 560 while 172 of their own earnings while attending the girl students earn all of their money.

COUPLE IN DOUBLE TRAGEDY

Victim of Hysteria Kills Husband, Self

SAN PEDRO—The occurrence of a Japanese dual tragedy some time after midnight at 1621 South Grand street has caused a sensation among the residents of this city. Mrs. Kakinomoto, wife of a grocery store proprietor, slashed over her husband's jugular vein with a razor while he was asleep early Friday morning between three and four o'clock, causing his immediate death.

She then ended her own life with a pistol before a "Fudo" Buddhist shrine within her home.

Investigations disclosed that Mrs. Kakinomoto has been afflicted with a serious case of hysteria. She left a "yuigon," or will, in which she expressed her wish that the funeral be conducted with the money they had saved in one of the local banks.

The husband, Tokio Kakinomoto, 45, is a native of Kumamoto prefecture. He was the proprietor of a grocery store on Sixth street. The wife, a native of Yamaguchi prefecture, was thirty years old.

Stork Visits S. F. Couple

A baby daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Goro Odagiri of California street, San Francisco. The baby was born at the Kawaguchi maternity home on Bush street at eight o'clock Friday morning.

Both the mother and the child are doing well. They will stay at the maternity home for about two weeks. The child was christened Aiko.

Mr. Odagiri is a graduate of the University of California and is at present a member of the staff of the local Nippon Dry Good Company.

BUDDHISTS OF FRESNO ISSUE PUBLICATION

"BYAKU RENGE" ISSUED BY FRESNO Y.W.B.A. LEAGUE

The English department of the Nichi-Bei has just received a copy of an exceedingly attractive Buddhist publication, "The Byaku Renge," issued by the Central California Y. W. B. A. League.

The journal is divided into the Japanese and English sections, with advertising section in between. The Byaku Renge is beautifully illustrated with photographs and engravings, and it is dedicated to the late Yoshiko Heyano, an earnest worker of the League.

The League of Young Women's Buddhist Association of Central California is composed of Y. W. B. A.'s of Fowler, Bowles, Fresno, and Parlier, and the Selma Vishka Club. It was organized in January, 1926.

The literary section of the Byaku Renge includes several poems of considerable merit. Haruyo Minamoto is responsible for "The Night is Dark and Long." "The Voice" is by Masao Handa. Other contributions are by Shigeko Nagare, Kazuko Matsumura, Isami Ota, Harue Yamasaki, Lillian S. Heyano, Kimiko Taniguchi, Alice Kondo, Rev. K. Ogura, and Mr. Fujii.

The staff of the Byaku Renge includes Yoneko Toyoda (English editor), Isami Ota (Japanese editor), Kazuko Matsumura (business and advertising manager), Alice Arata, Alice Kondo, Tomiko Shimizu, Mae Matsui, Vivian Hashimura, and Ruth Matsumura.

Fresno Boys Leave For Berkeley

FRESNO—Three representatives of the local Japanese Y. M. C. A. left Friday for Berkeley in order to attend the Y.M.C.A. conference. Those who made the trip are Nobuyuki Fukushima, Motoji Kazeto, and Ikuya Kawai.

MORIWAKE GIVES VIEW ON JAPAN

Net Queen Imprest With Diverse Costumes

By Tokuko Moriwake (Nippu Jiji)

HONOLULU—During my 40-day tennis sojourn of Japan, I participated in three major women's net tournaments and in one exhibition contest. And besides playing in tennis matches, I visited Tokyo, Osaka, Kyoto, Nagoya, Nikko and Hakone. Naturally I was kept busy all the time.

It may have been the aftermath of a disastrous earthquake, or it may have been the process of rehabilitation; but Yokohama sure looked very unclean.

On the other hand, as one might have expected, the Marunouchi region of Tokyo reminds visitors of the great cities of Europe and the United States.

While in Japan I was struck, however, by the extreme difference in living conditions between the rich and the poor. This state of affairs may probably be a phenomenon common to all the civilized nations of the world; but to me, born and reared in Hawaii, it had a special appeal.

The residents of the rich resemble castles in their massiveness, appear like palaces in their gorgeousness; while the homes of the poor look like tiny dirty kennels. What an inequality of living conditions exist even among fellow human beings! I was deeply struck by this reality.

Populous Japan and Diverse Costumes

While in Japan wherever I went I noticed many people—many people wearing diverse costumes. Half of the male population of the cities wear foreign clothes while the other half dress in their native costumes. On the other hand, among the female population, the majority of the girl students prefer foreign dresses while a few wear short skirts and bobbed hair and the others attire in kimonos.
