Japanese American News THE LARGEST JAPANESE NEWSPAPER PUBLISHED OUTSIDE OF JAPAN...

"MONEY WRITES"

In his most recent book, "Money Writes," Upton Sinclair, noted Socialist writer has something interesting to say regarding the censorship of books in Boston.

Our readers will recall, of course, that Massachusetts has banned a number of Sinclair's books, and has even barred Sinclair Lewis's "Elmer Gantry," Theodore Dreiser's "An American Tragedy" and certain copies of the American Mercantile.

"When I left Boston and returned to New York," Sinclair says in "Money Writes," "the first sight I saw was a stack of my books, four feet high, in front of one of the news-stands in Grand Central station; I inquired of the clerk, and learned that this stack would last one day, and the cause of its rapid disappearance was people from Boston who took a copy home with them."

In Boston the Reverend Charles Bodwell, we are told by Sinclair, is secretary of the Watch and Ward Society which suppresses any book it pleases. A reporter, we are further informed, asked Reverend Bodwell recently what he thought of Upton Sinclair's idea that the Bible and Shakespeare are obscene under the Massachusetts law.

FELLOWSHIP HOLDS SOCIAL AFTER FINALS

DR. BEN WATSON IS HOST TO MEMBERS WEDNES.

BERKELEY—"Games, games everywhere, and not enough to play!"

Such was the sad plight revealed at the "after-finals" social given by Dr. and Mrs. Watson to the local Fellowship on Wednesday night.

However, the small number of the people did not dampen the warm and laughing spirit of those present. About a dozen fun-lovers dove into as many games and each group was just as excited as the other, over rook, rubber, rings, checkers, and baseball.

After two hours, following the tasty refreshments of plum pudding, "shio-senbe," and tea, fortune-telling by means of a crystal cube proved to be the feature "riot" of the night. More than one girl blushed when it came to "love" and "marriage," while the boys were all "hot" concerning their future and financial careers.
