Dr. Smith Talks To Fellowship

BERKELEY, Jan. 18—"In the next twenty-five years, I believe, no other group in America will have a greater struggle than the second generation Japanese. And if you are to succeed, you must constantly keep the fire of will and faith burning high within your hearts." Such was the gist of the talk given by Dr. Frank Herron Smith before the members of the local Fellowship last Sunday night at the Japanese Christian Church. Dr. Smith also threw some new and interesting lights on the life of Paul and bits of humorous experiences from his own life in Japan. A profoundly moving poem by Harry Kemp, the "tramp poet" and schoolmate of Dr. Smith at Kansas, was also another feature of the discourse. Before the talk by Dr. Smith, Kono Ichihara announced the program for this semester, and one of the surprising features will be two or three talks by the members of the Fellowship.

INVOCATION

By Iwao Kawakami O winds bring back to me The freshness of that morn, When I stood by the sea And felt myself reborn. O sun bring back to me The warmth of that mid-noon, As I listened lazily To birds and bees in tune. O stars bring back to me The infinity of that night, When I discovered ecstasy In the dark—a heron in flight.
