JAPAN

And Things Japanese

Japan and Things Japanese, a section devoted to present-day news and views, and ancient facts, regarding the Japanese people and their country, is a regular feature of the English Section.

THE FIRST JAPANESE WOMEN TO COME TO AMERICA

But soon these pioneer students married, and again seemed lost to the public, for in Japan all married women are required to remain in their homes. Traditional customs could not be disposed with overnight.

These women encountered great hardships and strived against apparently unmovable barriers in their effort to improve the social and family system of Japan. As time rights as mistresses of the homes of titled, wealthy and powerful men, they were again able to put their ideas into practice.

And thus for many, many years, these women have devoted themselves to the uplifting of the women of their country until at last their labors bore fruit.

Their constant and courageous battle against idiotic traditional rules and ridiculous family customs gradually paved the way towards the enlightenment of the feminine sex and opened new fields of enterprises for all classes of women in Japan.

Slowly these students rose to leadership among the women of the Empire in social, educational and other fields and have earnestly and steadfastly worked to impress new thoughts and ideas on the minds of their sisters.

The success of their tireless endeavors is attested in the rapid growth of the feminine movement in Japan.

This development of Japanese womanhood could and would have been attained much sooner and without the annoyance of combating such strong opposition, had Japan sent one hundred or more girls to the United States in 1871. The fact that but five students were dispatched—the hardships these daughters of Nippon encountered, and the results they have accomplished—renders the work of Japan's first five pioneer students all the more significant.

(THE END)

CHRISTIANITY FIGHTS CRIME SAYS WOMAN

Visitor From Japan Speaks At Local Church

Christianity is waging a tremendous battle in Japan. Poverty, unemployment, political unrest, the crime wave, and Russian propaganda are threatening to make young Japan a nation without deep religious convictions.

But Christianity, despite these obstacles, is pushing ahead and will increase its present 170,000 converts to 1,000,000.

This was the keynote of the address delivered by Miss Yoneko Imai, social worker of Japan, at the Japanese M. E. Church on Pine Street, Sunday night, before a large group of first and second generation people.

Assisted Kagawa Miss Imai was assistant of the famous reformer Toyohiko Kawagawa before her arrival here half a year ago to conduct researches in social science at the Pacific School of Religion at Berkeley. Her address Sunday night was delivered under the joint auspices of the Epworth League and the Fujin-Kai of the church.

"The outstanding trend in the Christian church movements of Japan," Miss Imai said, "is their growing unity." With only 170,000 converts out of a total of 30,000,000 people, with the materialistic philosophy of the Russian propaganda alienating some of the most serious, thinking students from religion, Christianity has got to cooperate, Miss Imai declared.

Christian leaders are now concentrating their attention upon the class of people they have neglected—the proletariat. Eighty-two per cent. of the Christian converts are of the upper class. A concerted movement to Christianize the people of the slums and the workshops has been started by Toyohiko Kawagawa and his followers.

JAPAN RACER BRIDE-TO-BE DUE AT 9 A. M. GRADUATES

Matsui, Beaten But Game, Arrives Tuesday

Admitting defeat in his globe girdling race with Toichiro Araki who now has but 3 days to go before returning to Japan, Ryukichiro Matsui arrives at Oakland at 8:30 o'clock Tuesday morning and will proceed immediately for this city where he is due at 9 o'clock.

Matsui arrived at New York last week on the Aquitania and was to have flown to Seattle to catch a President boat. A delay of a few hours, however, rendered this flight impossible and forced Matsui to admit defeat.

Araki is due at Tokyo May 11. Matsui will probably not return until May 26. Both left Tokyo, one east-bound, and the other west-bound, three weeks ago.

Miss Matsudaira To Be Honored At Commencement

WASHINGTON, May 7—(Special)—Miss Setsuko Matsudaira, daughter of Ambassador and Mrs. Tsuneo Matsudaira, and fiancée of Prince Chichibu, heir presumptive to the Phoenix Throne of Nippon, will be honored here tomorrow at the commencement exercises at Friend's School.

This winsome lass of Nippon who leaves the Capital late this month for Tokyo to wed Prince Chichibu is included among the springtime crop of girl graduates of Friend's School.

In her last year, Miss Setsuko has been studying French, geometry, American history, English and singing, in addition to her athletic work. She is especially fond of golf.

If there were a higher grade in mathematics Miss Matsudaira would undoubtedly have it, as her teachers say she is extraordinarily apt in algebra and geometry.

The Matsudaira's are scheduled to depart for San Francisco May 30 or June 1. They sail from the latter port June 8 on the Shinyo Maru of the N. Y. K. line.

BEAUTY ROBS JAPANESE IN LOCAL CAFE

Elderly Man Drugged As He Talks With White Woman

Police yesterday were conducting a city-wide search for an unusually beautiful white woman who late last week enticed an elderly Japanese into an uptown Japanese cafe, put knock-out drops into the man's cup and, when the latter dropped senseless from the effects of the drugged beverage, relieved him of $97.50 in cash and disappeared into the night.

The Japanese, a newcomer, shortly after 10 o'clock Friday night had completed his meal at the cafe and went to the counter where he presented a $100 bill. He received $97.50 in change and was about to leave the cafe, when a ravishing beauty who apparently had been observing him through a window, breezed in, winked suspiciously at him and opened a familiar conversation.

Enraptured by the feminine charms and wiles of the woman, the man seemed in a trance as he was enticed to a table. Followed familiarity and necking. Coffee was ordered.

Presently a crash was heard. Someone rushed into the room. The elderly Japanese lay unconscious on the floor. When he came to, he found his money gone.

Shizue Tamura, 440 Pacific St., age 11, birthday not given.
F. S. N., 131 S. Commercial St., Stockton, age 13, birthday, Nov. 3.
Chie Kawai, San Pablo, age 10, birthday, Jan. 31.

Miss Y. O. S. of Stockton, who forgot to give us the date of her birthday as well as her age, saw her name on the list we had the other day. She says perhaps when she copied her letter over she skipped a line or two.

How careless of you, Miss Y. O. S. But then, you're not the only one. Just glance at the list we've got today. Let's hope our other neglected members will write in soon. Thanks for your letter.

Miss Y. O. S. sends in this poem:
I Always
I always write with true delight;
The things I do each day,
The nicest things I want to say,
'Cause I want to be polite.

That's a dandy, Miss Y. O. S. Write in again.

Innocent purchaser: Do I get all the meat on the scales?
Crooked butcher: Sure, vy not?
Innocent purchaser: Then give me your right hand, too.

That funny joke was sent in by F. S. N. of Stockton.

And now, here's a riddle from Shizue Tamura:
What has four legs and a back, but has no head or arms? Answer: A chair.

Fumiko Sugihara sends us this riddle:
Who has the biggest hat in the army? Answer: The one with the biggest head.

From Chie Kawai comes this awfully funny riddle:
What kind of a nut has no shell? Answer: A doughnut.

Thanks for your letter, Chie. We enjoyed hearing from you.

Sumie Saito writes in to tell us that she is following the example of Fujie Itaya and is clipping out our section daily and making a joke book out of it. That's right, Sumie. You're very wise. Thanks for your letter and your nice story about the Chinese men. We liked that story, Sumie, but it's just a wee bit too long to be used. Won't you all make your poems and stories a little shorter? It'll help a great deal.

From Hidalgo, Texas, comes a letter.

JAPANESE WOMEN ARE BURNED ALIVE; MEN'S EYES STRIPPED AND FILLED WITH STONES IN TSINAN MASSACRE

Boycott Of Japanese Goods Fails; Japan Sends More Men To China

TOKYO, May 7—(Special)—Dispatches from Shanghai State that the anti-Japanese boycott in South China today in observance of Humiliation Day, was called off through orders of leaders of the Nationalist army. Latest reports state that the situation in Shanghai is quiet.

Humiliation Day was observed throughout China in protest of the 21 Demands sent to China by Japan thirteen years ago.

The Japanese government has decided to increase its force in Shantung Province to 28,000 men in an effort to maintain peace, it was said today. General Ugaki, former Minister of War will probably be appointed commander-in-chief of Japan's forces in China.

The Foreign Office, at the same time, will appoint an official of ministerial rank to take charge of diplomatic affairs in the province.

Horrible Details Of Terror Reign Told

SHOW NO PITY

CHINESE TROOPS MUTILATE BODIES AFTER KILLING CIVILIANS

TOKYO, May 7—(Special to The Japanese American News)—The first eyewitness reports of the horrible massacre of Japanese civilians outside of Tsinan, capital of Shantung, last week by Chinese Nationalist forces, reached here today.

They tell of an indescribable display of barbarity by the Chinese looters. Japanese women were assaulted, kerensene poured over their bodies and set fire to. The women died in the most pitiable state imaginable.

Details Recounted
Veteran newspapermen, who were among those who escaped the massacre, shuddered as they recounted details of the outrage.

The eyes of Japanese men, they said, were torn away and stones filled into the cavities. They were murdered, their bodies mutilated in the most inhuman and savage manner imaginable, before they were buried.

The corpses of fourteen Japanese men and women have thus far been unearched, and all bear signs of ruthless mutilation.

Worse Than Nikolaevsk
The Tsinan massacre, it is said, was far more horrible than that at Nikolaevsk during the World War, in which more than a hundred Japanese were slaughtered by Russians.

In Tsinan itself, the dead, Chinese as well as foreigners, are strewn on the streets and the stench is unbearable.

Revision of the casualty figures put the Japanese military losses at twelve soldiers killed and thirty wounded.

Residents Slain

Eighteen Japanese civilian residents were slain by Chinese; six of them were women. The bodies of the dead were mutilated.

Many residents of Tsinan have been driven insane by the barbarous scenes through which they passed.

Mobs of maddened Chinese, drunk with the lust for killing, surged through the streets, wrecking buildings, pillaging and firing their rifles in every direction.

Many Atrocities
Dead bodies were decapitated, Chinese with knives and bayonets ripped the clothing from corpses and cut the bodies.
