HOOVER PLEDGES SELF TO BONE DRY PROGRAM IN PALO ALTO SPEECH

Takes Issue with Governor Alfred Smith

By PAUL R. MALLON

United Press Staff Correspondent STANFORD STADIUM, Palo Alto August 11.—A bone dry declaration for prohibition and a definite farm relief program were laid down by Herbert Hoover, the Republican Presidential nominee, in his acceptance speech delivered today in the vast football stadium of his alma mater.

Taking direct issue with Gov. Alfred E. Smith, his Democratic opponent, Hoover declared strongly against any modification of enforcement laws and promised, if elected president to institute a searching investigation to determine methods for correcting abuses now existing.

The nominee took the position that those opposed to prohibition must first change the 18th amendment in a constitutional way before they can tamper with the Volstead Act. It is the position held by the most ardent dries, like Sen. Borah of Idaho, and is directly opposed to Smith's contention that the Volstead act can be modified to permit sale of light wines and beers.

Hoover announced that he favored an expenditure of a billion dollars in the next four years for cheaper transportation, irrigation, reclamation, domestic water supply, hydro-electric power, public roads and public buildings.

He definitely opposed the national origin clause of the immigration act and declared himself in favor of the present immigration system. He scoffed at suggestions that the tariff should be lowered. He promised to conduct an honest campaign in which every penny spent would be accounted for. He pledged himself to seek further limitation of armaments whenever possible and agreed that this nation had refused finally to enter the League of Nations.

Foreign relations should be conducted, he said, to assure adequate preparations for defense and to promote good will and peace among nations. The nominee pledged himself to seek further limitation of armaments whenever possible and agreed that this nation had refused finally to enter the League of Nations.

Hoover, too, made clear that he would not permit religious questions to enter the campaign. He denounced by implication the anti-Catholic charges which have been leveled against his opponent.

"In this land dedicated to tolerance, we still find outbreaks of intolerance," he said. "I come from Quaker stock. My ancestors were persecuted for their beliefs. Here they sought and found religious freedom. By blood and conviction I stand for religious tolerance both in act and in spirit.

"The glory of our American ideals is the right of every man to worship God according to the dictates of his own conscience."

Letter to Sen. Borah. In his pronouncement on prohibition the nominee recalled his letter to Sen. Borah last spring. In it he stated: "I do not favor the repeal of the 18th amendment. I stand for the efficient enforcement of the laws enacted thereunder."

"Common sense compels us to realize," he added in his speech, "that grave abuses have occurred—abuses which must be remedied. An organized and searching investigation of facts and causes can alone determine the wise method of correcting them.

"Crime and disobedience of law cannot be permitted to break down the Constitution and laws of the United States.

"Modification of the enforcement laws which permit that which the Constitution forbids is nullification. This the American people will not countenance. Change in the Constitution can and must be brought about only by the straightforward method provided in the Constitution itself.

"There are those who do not believe in the purposes of several revisions of the Constitution. No one denies their right to seek to amend it. They are not subject to criticism for asserting that right. But the Republican party does deny the right of anyone to destroy the purposes of the Constitution by indirect means.

Flight To Tokyo To Be Made Soon By Noted Airman

By Noted Airman

SANTA MARIA, August 11.—A proposed flight from California to Tokyo, with the start planned to be made as soon as the financial arrangements are completed, was revealed today as in the making by James Warner, radio operator of the Southern Cross on its famous transpacific flight. He declared he might be a member of the proposed flight, but declined to identify the backers.

Warner stopped off here to visit the Santa Maria fair while en route to Los Angeles from Oregon.

PRODUCTS OF U.S. FAVORED Japan Increasingly Is Using Goods Made In America

TOKYO, August 12.—How Japan is increasingly using more and more American products, not merely as regards the bigger commodities, such as automobiles, typewriters, elevators, office appliances, etc., but also products of every day use for the dining room, the bed-room and in articles of dress and for the dinner table was pointed out to the Pacific Advertising Congress by Mr. Douglas M. Young, representative of the Far Eastern Advertising Agency, Kobe, at dinner held recently at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel in Honolulu.

Mr. Young said that, in most of the middle class homes of the Japanese, it is still customary to remove one's shoes before entering. As a consequence, it was not surprising that very often Felscher's wool is kept in reserve to guard against the inevitable holes in socks and in stockings caused by frequent removal of such hard-wearing stuff as Monarch-of-the-Oak or similar branded leather.

Draws Picture. He then proceeds to draw a little picture of the master of an average middle class home arriving in the house on a hot afternoon. After dressing himself of his shoes, he proceeds to remove his suit of imported—yet unadvertised—cloth and perhaps his Van Heusen collar before taking a stroll with his family. The younger members will perhaps take a Daisy Air Gun, and the more mature ones a Cine Kodak. On their return, dinner is ready and, to the Japanese dishes and fare, there is sure to be one or more of some foreign food.

Several of Heinz's 57 varieties, according to Mr. Young, are to be found in most Japanese houses, tomato ketchup being a general favorite. Then the names of Swift and Libby, McNeill and Libby are fast becoming household words here where foreign foods are partaken of, despite the high duties levied.

Foreign Entertainment. "The meal finished," he told his audience, "the family occupies itself in very much the same manner as the average American or European family. If it is decided to stay at home, they divide their attention between the Columbia or Victor gramophone or radio selections and the evening newspapers. Should they decide to spend the evening out, if the town is of any size, there will be a movie theater with a Paramount, Fox, or some other American picture showing, while if a purely Japanese picture is patronized the film is sure to be an East-man.

After the show they may drop into a good modern-style restaurant by means of an Otis elevator perhaps and have a cup of Instant Postum. If the hour is late, a taxi is sure to be requisitioned, either a Chevrolet or a Ford, fitted with Dunlop, Goodyear or Firestone tires. Arriving at home they will find that Flytox or Pitt has been used to drive away the mosquitoes while Westing-house fans are perhaps keeping the army of winged insects who are attracted by the rays of the Mazda or Osram lamp, at bay.

Articles of Luxury. In the morning, the newspaper comes at an early hour and the modern Japanese prepares for the strenuous hours of another working day in much the same manner as I elsewhere in the world. Many foreign soaps—such as Cashmere Bouquet or Pears Soap—is patronized by the better class families. Eau de Cologne is made to lend an added fragrance and cleanliness to the ablutions. For the teeth, Kolykos and Colgate's Ribbon Dental Cream are great favorites. The male members are devoted patrons of the Gillette safety razor, while the ladies use their extra time in keeping their hands fit by means of Cutex preparations.

Breakfast, even if not strictly a message than the Japanese.

Appeal to Customers. All these foreign articles mentioned, Mr. Young added, are advertised in the Japanese newspapers and magazines and have an appeal to customers here. In conclusion he said that the island empire of Japan wants American goods both the raw utensils and branded articles just as much as Japan wants to sell her products to American and the rest of the world. "There is no nation that responds so quickly to properly planned advertising as Japan," declared Mr. Young in conclusion, "and there is no nation with better facilities for carrying that message than the Japanese."

PAN-PACIFIC'S WOMEN MEET IS DESCRIBED

Parley's Relation To League of Nations Outlined

HONOLULU, August 10.—Japan, China, Australia New Zealand, Canada, countries whose women will be present in strongly representative numbers at the Pan-Pacific Women's Conference, are states-members of the League of Nations. The United States is frequently represented by prominent specialists in the Commissions and Committees of the League, and of the International Labour Organization. Thus, it is natural that the Pan-Pacific Women's Conference Committee should conceive that there was potential interest for the League and for the I. L. O. in the forthcoming gathering. Indeed, there will be women present at the conference, competent to speak for their country upon issues that have engaged attention of both these organizations, whose discussion will be of great value for those members of the Secretariats charged with responsibilities in relation to women. Realizing that the specialized knowledge of the experts from Geneva would add immeasurably to the content-value of the discussions, the Women's Conference Committee called to Geneva, to the Secretary General of the League of Nations and to the director of the International Labor Office. In the first case it was requested that Dame Rachel Crowley of the League's Committee on Women and children, be invited, and her nominee. In the second, instance the presence in the gathering of Miss Martha Mundt, charged with responsibility for matters relating to women in industry was suggested.

Called reply to the former invitation in the terms an set out, shows with what interest Geneva regards this group and recognizes its importance. "Secretary-General highly appreciates invitation of Pan-Pacific Union to send me or nominee Women's Conference. He regrets impossibility of sending member Secretariat, but proposes asking Julia Lathrop League Member Child Welfare Committee to keep in touch on behalf League's activities. Join with Secretary-General in good wishes success Conference. (Signed) Crowley."

Miss Julia Lathrop, formerly Director of the Children's Bureau of the Federal Government of the United States, had regretfully refused a similar invitation to be present. Under these circumstances a cordial invitation was again called for.

From Bernice Sumis Hikiji of Sacramento, comes an interesting letter. Bernice writes: "I am sorry I couldn't write to the Junior Club for a long time. I am so interested in reading the Junior Section and every day I am the first one to read it. The Japanese American News reaches here at 9:30 in the morning and every day before 9 o'clock I go to the highway and wait for the paper. And I am making a book of the Junior Club."

We're very glad to hear that you are making a book out of the Junior Section. Bernice. A good number of other members are doing the same and they'll all have something valuable before long.

And now here's a joke from Bernice. "I say, Fred, you're not still engaged to that old girl of yours are you?" "No, I'm not." "Lucky for you. How'd you get rid of her?" "I married her."

Bernice's sister, Miss Gertrude Hikiji sends in this contribution: "Voice on the phone: Who's this?"

Men Charged With Outrage Are Acquitted

TACOMA, August 11.—(Special)—Ten white laborers, charged with complicity in the attempted deportation of three Japanese which took place at Copalis Crossing about 15 miles nor of Hoquiam on July 29, were today acquitted in the Montezano court, due to lack of sufficient evidence.

During the trial, which was attended by Consul Hanawa of Seattle, the defendants in the case produced evidence to show that they were at a card party when the attempted deportation of the Japanese laborers was committed.

Edward Parker, 36, suspected by the police as being one of the leaders of the group, brought five witnesses to prove his alibi.

One of the three Japanese victims, who were evicted forcefully from Copalis Crossing, been badly beaten and approximately $100 in cash was taken. It is declared that 50 men were in the deportation mob.

GIRL WEDS PISMO MAN Many Attend Nuptial Rites At San Luis Obispo Temple

SAN LUIS OBISPO, August 11.—(Special)—The marriage of Miss Kotuji Etto, prominent local girl, to Kaurichi Pukunaga of Pismo was solemnized in the local Buddhist temple today.

The wedding, which was one of the most brilliant affairs of this season, was attended, by scores of friends and relatives of the couple in both this city and Pismo. Rev. Mizumata officiated.

Following the wedding, a banquet was held in honor of the couple, and leading Japanese of the community tendered congratulatory speeches.

Those who have acquired tickets for the mammoth "Japan Day" celebration to be staged on August 12 at the exposition will have an opportunity to win twenty other prizes given in the raffle. These include phonographs, de luxe bed sets, watches, groceries, and other useful articles.

The Japanese Palace, which is now open to the public at the Long Beach fair, is one of the most popular exhibits of the whole exposition and is daily attracting huge throngs. Leading commercial and industrial firms of the Pacific Coast have their special displays of Japan's artistic products.

The "Japan Day" evening program will be featured by a gorgeous "Springtime" dance to be given by a group of second generation girls trained in the colorful costumes of the Nippon. The central stage will be decked with a huge cherry tree in full bloom, and beneath the falling blossoms five dainty Nippon maidens will conduct a classical dance, as eight other dancers from the two sides of the stage appear with parasols to form a brilliant Japanese review.

Other ditto: How do I know? I can't see you.

Mary Hiroshima, a new member, sends in this one: Ques: Why is a woman like a street car? Ans: Because if you miss one you can get another one.

MAN SHOOTS WIFE, KILLS SELF IN L. A.

Farmer Despondent Over Financial Reverses

LOS ANGELES, August 10.—(Special)—Apparently despondent over his financial reverses, Yoshitaro Hashimura, 48, a brewer, shot and killed his wife and then ended his own life early this morning.

Financial reverses due to crop failure had worried Hashimura to the point of temporarily deranging his mind, according to his neighbors. Early this morning the man woke his wife and threatened to take her life. Before the woman was able to pacify her husband, he sent a bullet through her brain, which caused her instant death.

Awakened by the report of the gun, the eldest daughter, Mary, 12, came to her father, whose wild gesticulations frightened her. The girl rushed out of the house for help. Before the neighbors were able to get to the scene of the tragedy, Hashimura sent several bullets through his breast and was found lying dead on the floor of his home.

The couple is survived by five children, who are all under 12 years of age.

AUTO GIVEN AWAY IN FAIR TICKET RAFFLE

LOS ANGELES, August 10.—(Special)—A 1928 model Chevrolet auto will be given away to some lucky Japanese and a score of valuable secondary prizes will be presented to others Saturday evening when the winners in the "Japan Day" ticket "fukubukii" or raffle at the Pacific Southwest Exposition at Long Beach will be announced before hundreds of people who are expected to pack the Union church on North San Pedro street.

NORTHERN CALIFORNIA BALL TOURNEY OPENS AS FLORIN AND ALAMEDA CLASH; IDA HURLS BALL IN PRESENCE OF 500

Alameda Wins From Florin 4 to 13 In First Game

The strong Alameda Taikuu diamond aggregation swamped Florin's powerful ball tossers 13-4 in the opening game of the Northern California Japanese baseball tournament at Ewing Field Saturday morning.

The Bay boys collected 18 hits from two of Florin's splendid twirlers. They garnered 4 runs in the fourth, 3 in the first, 1 each in the second and seventh and 4 in the eighth frames.

Weakness at the bat, however, did not account for the Florin defeat. Kurima and Fukushima of the visiting line whalloped Ide for triples, the longest hits of the day.

In the fourth, with the score 2-4 in favor of the Alameda boys, the Florin men weakened.

In this frame Alameda collected four runs, and thereby clinched the game. After Takahashi fanned, Ide singled to short. N. Nakano followed with another safety and on Kurima's grounder to first, the bases were filled. Ide scored when Kawamura's hit to left. The latter reached second on a throw from left to home. R. Nakano walked after which R. Towata singled to left, scoring N. Nakano. The Florin captain yanked Nakatsu out of the box and replaced him with Yasui. R. Nakamura scored on Hue's single to left. R. Towata was out on the throw in.

The box score follows: Alameda 3 10 4 0 14 8-13 Florin 1 0 0 1 0 0 2 0 0-4

OSAKA PUPPET THEATER WILL OPEN AGAIN

TOKYO, Aug. 10.—The Bunrakuza, the famous puppet theater of Osaka, is to be rebuilt. The Bunrakuza troupe which used to play in it has been using another theater recently in Osaka, but it has proved wholly inadequate to its needs.

The Japanese puppet theater is unique unto itself, and its productions do not resemble the puppet plays of Java or the Punch and Judy shows of England. Several hundred years ago dramatic performance by men and women were forbidden in Japan, which led to the establishment of the puppet theater.

Many of the masterpieces of the Japanese stage were written for the puppets. The influence of the puppet theater on present day Japanese acting and stage dancing is marked. Poses and gestures which seem at first inexplicable are easily understood once one has seen the original puppet acting from which they were derived.

The puppet show has gradually yielded first place to the legitimate drama, and but one famous company, that of the Bunraku-za, is still in existence.

Yokohama Will Have Aquarium At Takigashira

Yokohama will build an aquarium by the end of this summer at a cost of 30,000 yen. The city authorities have decided to lease a plot of 550 tsubo at Takigashira, Isogo, Yokohama, to the Yokohama Marine Products Association, which will build the aquarium.

It will be 24 yards wide and 60 yards long and will be a one storied concrete building. It will be divided into salt water and fresh water sections and more than 60 fishes of rare species will be on view there.

In a brief address, Aoki tendered San Francisco's welcome to the Kansai Gakuin baseball nine of Kobe, Japan, which is at present touring this country and which played its first game in this city yesterday against the Showa club's powerful aggregation.

Aoki then stressed the need of clean sportsmanship among Japanese athletes, especially during the present tournament. He rejoiced in the presence of a large gathering of residents at the matches yesterday not alone from San Francisco and other Bay cities, but from localities further inland.

Following Aoki's opening address, Consul General Morikazu Ida hurled the first ball of the Alameda-Florin game. Aoki stood behind the plate while M. Manabe, leader of the Kansai Gakuin team swung the bat.

At 10:40 o'clock the Alameda-Florin match was started. Games Today. The finals of the Northern California championship baseball series will be played at noon today between the winners of Saturday's games at Ewing Field.

The consolation match between the two losing teams will start at 10 o'clock to decide the third place, and after luncheon there will be a parade and other prizes to break the monotony of the program. The championship game will be started at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon.

JAPAN And Things Japanese TOSA AND AKITA DOGS

The history of Japanese fighting dogs is confined to the activities of the Tosa and Akita hounds. Dog fighting in Tosa, island of Shikoku, has a longer and more interesting history than that of Akita, northern Hondu.

Of the two varieties, the Akita dog is more pure-bred than that of Tosa. It is courageous, but lacks patience, although its teeth and legs are strong. Another characteristic of the Akita-inu is that it will stop fighting as soon as it finds that there are strangers among the spectators.

The dalmatians of Tosa, issued, revised and re-issued a number of regulation about dog fighting. Long before Commodore Perry arrived in his black ships, dog fighting was practiced among the towns-men of Tosa. One of the early dalmatians, Yamamotochi Kauroto, prohibited the non-samurai class from owning dogs. But the people indulged in this pastime secretly. Severe regulations were issued later, which, however, were abolished when Yamanouchi Shuma came into power. He liked dog fighting and under his rule it was greatly encouraged.

In time it became so open and so great in scale that in the 10th year of Meiji the government had to impose a prohibitory tax of 10 yen per head on every dog. In the 22nd year of Meiji one of the enthusiasts even asked the late Count Taisuke Itagaki, then one of the Ministers of State, to repeal the dog tax, which however, was not granted. Baron Kiyuwa Iwasaki took some foreign-bred dogs, including Bull terriers, to Tosa, which created greater interest in the fighting. The present Tosa dogs are a mixture of the native and the foreign varieties.

JAPAN RELAY TEAM PLACES AT OLYMPICS

AMSTERDAM, August 11.—(UP)—The U. S. swimming team won the finals of the 800 meters relay today, establishing a new Olympic record of 9 minutes 36 1/2 seconds. Japan was second and Canada third in 9:41 2-5 and 9:47 4-5, respectively.

The Americans far outclassed the other nations and if the United States anchor man, Johnny Weismuller, had exerted himself the Americans could have bettered the record considerably more.

The Japanese team, composed of Yoneyama, Arai, Sata and Takahashi maintained second place throughout the four legs of the relay. The Canadian team was composed of Bourne, Thompson, Ault and Spence.

SHOWA CLUB MERMEN TO CLASH WITH HUMBOLDT

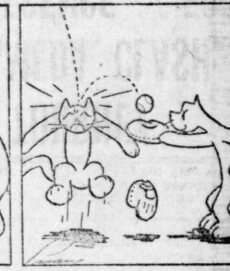

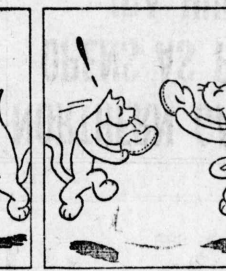

A meet between the local Showa club and the Humboldt high school's crack swimming team was officially announced yesterday by officials of the local organization. The two teams will clash some time in September through a challenge made by the Showa club.

The challenged team is expected to give the Japanese some real competition. It has such noteworthy swimmers as Raymond Slatery, winner of the round the city eight mile swim; Robert Winter of the Olympic club; and Clyde Goldwater nationally known swimmer.

Showa will be represented by Seizo Murata, star Japanese 50-yd swimmer, former member of the C.I.F. wonder relay team, who recently joined the organization.

Murata has a long record of swimming accomplishments, having been one of the first Japanese swimmers to be recorded in the American Athletic Almanac, and named on the roster of the American Red Cross Life Saving Corps.
