125 ENTERED IN BIG TRACK MEET IN S. F.

Tourney To Be Staged In Park Stadium Next Sunday

One hundred and twenty five numbers will be issued to the boys on June 9 to identify the athletes who will gather here on that day from all sections of Northern and Central California to vie in the first annual field and track meet. The affair is being sponsored by the J. A. A. U.

Lid was placed on the entry list last Monday and no changes in the events will be allowed. This gives a fair opportunity to all the athletes for planning their program beforehand.

The contest takes place at the Golden Gate Park Stadium, rain or shine. In the event of rainfall, the athletes will await their turns in the clubhouse.

Use of the old stadium for the afternoon was finally made possible by special arrangements. The Kezar Memorial Stadium is not in a condition for a big meet of this kind.

WASEDA JUDO PARTY SAILS FOR NIPPON

Consul General Host At Tea Given To 2 Student Groups

Ten members of the Waseda University Jiu-jitsu team who have been touring the coast and appearing in a series of successful bouts sailed for homeland from this port Wednesday aboard S. S. Shinyo Maru.

On the same boat were the 20 students of Modesto Junior College who are embarking on an extensive tour of the Orient during the summer vacation through the auspices of the Y. M. C. A.

The Wasedans and members of the student party were the guests of Moriaki Iida, Consul General of Japan at a tea given at his official residence on Laguna street on Tuesday afternoon.

The two collegiate groups were introduced to each other, and they were joined in the party by about seventy local young people and relatives of the students.

COLORFUL EVENT

Consul General M. Iida, in extending the cordial welcome to the students, vividly brought out the close economic relationship existing between the nations bordering the Pacific. He stressed the value of international friendship between this country and Japan.

The responses were made by Dr. Fuller, leader of the Junior College group, Professor Ujio of Waseda University, and Mr. Davis, secretary of the Y. M. C. A.

Carroll M. Power, professor of economics at Modesto Junior College, who has visited Japan twice in recent years, spoke on his impressions of that country.

Entertainments were supplied by talented second generation members, including Miss Saku Baba on the piano and Tsuneo Fukushima on the harmonica. Vocal solos were given by Miss Yuko Furusawa and Miss Dorothy Fujita. The Echo girls of the local Y. W. C. A. also sang a few selections, and the Wasedans rendered their school tune.

Refreshments were served later, and everyone mingled during the social hour that concluded the party.

Red Troops Barring Way To Prevent Thousands of Chinese From Returning Home Following Sino-Russian Brawl

LONDON, June 5—(U P)—The Daily Express at Peking reported today that Russian troops were massing on the Manchurian frontier and barring the way of thousands of Chinese who desired to return to their country from Soviet territory.

The Chinese have been alarmed by strained relations between the Soviet and China because of raids on Soviet legations in Manchuria and China.

The correspondent said it was understood that Chinese officials had arrested the Soviet consul-general at Mukden, capital of Manchuria, and the viceconsul at Harbin. They were en route to Moscow when arrested.

C. Wu.

LEGAL STATUS OF ASIATIC WIVES OF CITIZENS TOLD

FROM THE FAR EASTERN REVIEW

The immigration and naturalization laws of the American Government have, in some respects, grown without plan. They have been passed by Congress at various times not in accordance with a definite scheme but rather to meet current situations. The result is the curious anomaly of a disregard for the institution of marriage as an element in citizenship. American citizens marrying alien wives do not according to their wives the benefit of American citizenship; at the same time, these women usually lose the citizenship of the lands of their nativity. They become persons without a country; travel becomes difficult because such women cannot obtain passports, and there is always a possibility of confusion and grief.

This situation is complicated by the fact that under the immigration laws, aliens may be excluded from the United States. Should the quotas of the countries from which they come be filled. Thus families are liable to be separated, the father and children being admitted to the United States as citizens, the wife and mother being kept out of the country, except as a short term visitor. European women coming in as immigrants, may, at the end of a year, apply for naturalization papers, but Asiatic wives of American citizens are excluded from this privilege. They may never become citizens of the United States and are therefore forever deprived of permanent residence in the land of their birth.

IN THE PHILIPPINES

The Philippine courts have recently decided differently. The following account is taken from the "Manila Bulletin":

"The right of a Chinese U. S. Citizen in the Islands to bring his wife and children as long as he holds a landing certificate was upheld yesterday when Judge Block of the court of first instance granted the writ of habeas corpus sought by a Chinese named Jao Yan, local holder of a landing certificate, to bring his wife Tee Liok Huy to the Philippines."

"A year ago, Tee Liok Huy arrived in Manila on board the S. S. Tang Shan from China to join her husband Jao Yan. The insular collector of customs, however, having appointed a special board of inquiry to discuss the right of Tee Liok Huy to land in the city, refused to allow the woman to enter because the board had declared her an alien."

DETAINED

"Detained at the customs station for a considerable period, the woman through her husband Jao

Prince Henry arrived here several days ago from Japan. The following bulletin was issued by his doctors: "The fall resulted in a complete fracture of the outer collar bone. The fracture is not commuted and the results will be excellent. An X-ray following the reduction shows the fragments to be in an excellent position."
