REDS DIRECT TROOPS FOR OFFENSE AGAINST CHINA

LONDON, June 14—The Express today prints a dispatch from Peking, China, saying that Soviet Russia has launched the first direct war move against China following the recent raids on Soviet Consulates in Manchuria.

RUSH REINFORCEMENTS

The Soviets were said to be rushing reinforcements in special trains over the trans-Siberian railway. Chang Hsiao-liang, dictator of Manchuria in succession to his father the late Chang Tso-ling, has sent an urgent appeal to Nanking advising that measures be taken to protect his territory.

CONSULATES SURROUNDED

The Express says that Outer Mongolia may be already considered diplomatically the ally of Russia, whose next move probably would be occupation of part of Manchuria, to be held until satisfaction for recent raids on Soviet consulates is received and the ownership of the Chinese Eastern Railway settled.

The government of Nanking was said to have been notified by its consuls in Russia that the consulates were surrounded by Russian troops.

OUR JUNIOR SECTION

Address The Junior Editor, 650 Ellis Street, San Francisco, Calif.

BIRTHDAY

June 16—George Mura, NEW MEMBER

Grace Reiko Naito, 13 years old, address Rt. A, Box 87, Calexico, California.

Grace is a freshman in high school. She likes writing letters, so if all you old Club members who want more correspondents will write to her, she and you will have a good time. Welcome to you, Grace. Will you like. After today you are an old member of the Club now on! Even if they are not just your age, they will be pleased to have a note from you. Then after others of their age write, you can stop if you help us to welcome members "old member" too.

Your motto is so good, Grace, that I am glad that we can have it for our motto. Courtesy is one of the most valuable things in life, because it adds to everyone's happiness and makes everybody's work easier.

Grace's motto:
To be courteous to one
Is to be courteous to all.

Lillian Moriwaki sends us a riddle which we have been glad to receive. We thank you, Lillian. Will you send us a joke or a story about some pleasant thing next time? Please excuse us for the mistake about your birthday. We have it correctly on our cards.

—Junior—
We thank you, Mary Fujii, for your letter. We are proud of your splendid marks (99 in state examination and 85 average for daily work). Probably it was because you forgot to send in your birthday that we did not even have a card for you! It certainly is good that you wrote. Your choice of motto:
Rowing not drifting is surely a good one. But we are asking you to send it in once more as soon as we ask for votes. When we do, we shall be grateful if all Juniors will please write the votes on separate sheets of paper. It will be splendid if they will send jokes and riddles and letters in the same envelope, but not on the same paper.

Mary's Joke:
Mrs. Griggs: Remember the minister is coming for dinner. Please cook a very good meal.
Mandy: Oh lassy, chie, why didn't you tell me befo? Ah done cooked devil food cake foh dinner!

Toshi Yano's address is 2456 Grant Ave., Ogden, Utah. I am sure that she will be glad to have you write to her, Mary.

—Junior—
Juniors, please do not vote on the mottoes quite yet. We shall tell you when we want the votes.

BRILLIANT NEW SHIP SALVAGING DEVICE PERFECTED BY JAPANESE NAVAL OFFICER IMPRESSES EXPERTS AT ITS FIRST TRIAL

Kure, Japan, June 14—Foreign naval officers attached to the embassies in Tokyo were agreeably surprised today when they witnessed the test of the new Japanese salvage system employed for the first time in Hiroshima Bay today by naval engineers.

The old supply ship, Asahi, which forms the central pivot for this salvaging outfit, was reconitioned by Lieutenant Admiral Junpei Fukuoka, inventor of the system. The invention was suggested by a Japanese well with its water-drawing outfit. The sunken ship is salvaged and brought to the surface by a lever system in which an old ship is sunk alongside the floating pivot ship to pull the cables. The trial of this new system proved exceedingly successful.

The theme was well carried out by the menu, consisting of four pages with names of the honored graduates. The menu was divided into two headings, "In Mother's Garden" and "On Mr. Brown's Farm."

Among the delicious dishes under the first head were: I Love You California Poppy, Flowers Delight, June Bride's Bouquet, and 'Tis the Last Rose of Summer. These, if translated into the common day language were: Boiled carrots and peas, water, fruits of various colors, and strawberry pie, respectively. His Pride (mashed potatoes), His Minister (chicken), His Vineyard (cucumber salad), His Wheatfield (bread), and Sweet Buttercups (The Meadow (butter), made up the "On Mr. Brown's Farm." The dinner concluded by various groups singing their Alma Mater and giving the school yell. Masagi Goto acted as the toastmaster.
