JAPAN GIRL IN MTN. VIEW WINS HONOR

Miss Sugai Delivers Valedictory Talk At Graduation

Special to The Japanese American News MOUNTAIN VIEW, June 15—Miss Marjorie S. Sugai, valedictorian of Mountain View Grammar School, will be given a party this evening, Saturday, by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tokumatsu Sugai, at their home in this city. Mrs. M. Minton and Mrs. G. Brubaker and about 20 friends will attend the party.

Miss Sugai won the honor of delivering the valedictory in a class of thirty-eight seniors. Her speech, which was commented favorably by all who attended the commencement, follows:

It is my privilege to say a few words in behalf of our class of June 1929.

We have chosen a motto "Conquering Now and Still to Conquer." We all should try to fulfill the promise contained in this motto. We should try to be something worth while, and not idle. Choose what we want to be and work hard to conquer. If we reach the point for which we are striving, let us make even greater endeavor and in the words of a poet: "Sail on, and on, and on!"

DO SOME GOOD I know we cannot all be an Edison or a Lindbergh, but we can be of some use and do some good.

Edison, known as the "Wizard of Menlo Park," is the greatest among the world inventors. He was born of poor parents, but worked hard to accomplish something. Once someone tried to compliment him on his achievements. Edison replied, "Genius is about two percent inspiration and ninety eight percent perspiration."

When a task is completed and when he seeks a vacation, he plays as hard as he has worked, and enjoys his leisure as much as he has enjoyed his work.

Edison has invented many things helpful to the people as incandescent light, phonograph, motion picture machine and developed electric railways. The numbers of Edison's patents are more than 2000, and nearly 1200 in other countries.

Colonel Chas. Lindbergh is a clean young man, who neither smokes nor drinks. He liked aviation when he was a little boy, and now he has succeeded. He made a flight from New York to Paris, and when he reached Paris, he was cheered by many hundred people. President Coolidge honored him.

Now we are ready to enter high school and work hard there. "Conquering Now and Still to Conquer" must be our motto.

We leave this school, remembering it as a well equipped building preparing us for yet to conquer.

NEVER SAY FAIL Keep pushing 'tis wiser Than sitting aside, And dreaming and sighing And waiting the tide. In life's earnest battle, They only prevail Who daily march onward And never say fail!

With an eye ever open A tongue that's not dumb And a heart that will never to sorrow succumb— You will battle and conquer, Though thousands assail; How strong and how mighty, Who never say fail!

The Spirit of angels Is active, I know, As higher and higher In glory they go, Methinks on bright pinions From Heaven they sail, To cheer and encourage, Who never say fail! Ahead, then, keep pushing And elbow your way, Unheeding the envious, And asses that bray,

All obstacles vanish All enemies quail, In the might of their wisdom Never say fail.

In life's early morning In manhood's firm pride Let this be your motto Your footsteps to guide In storm and in sunshine Whatever assail, We'll onward and conquer And never say fail.

The Weekly Junior editor asks us to thank the kind sender of the first letter for the weekly. It is full of interesting things about its writer's play and work. Look for it in the first Weekly edition.

From Mary Harada, in Eau Gallie, Florida, comes a beautifully typed, charmingly expressed letter that we wish we could show to every Junior because in a club like ours we are all proud and glad of each other's success.

We have a message for you, Mary, from the Weekly Junior Editor, who has seen your letter. She says: "Will you please ask Mary Harada to write for the Weekly? We need stories (not necessarily funny ones). We prefer that they be original. And they can be any length."

"We need poems. It looks to me as if the writer of this letter can probably compose very lovely poems. Will she be so good as to send us one or more? The hokku is a splendid form, and one that is being studied and used as a model in some of the best American schools."

"We need descriptions of Florida or of any beautiful or strange places or things; and many other pieces of writing. Mary's cooperation would be a real help."

Mary sends five capital jokes. We thank her cordially.
