YWBA GIRLS' ORATORICAL STIRS PRAISE

Entertainments Also Take Audience in Watsonville

Special to The Japanese American News
WATSONVILLE, July 29—More than 600 spectators filled the Toyoh Hall to its capacity Friday evening to witness the third anniversary entertainment given by members of the North American Federation of Y. W. B. A. Leagues. The hall was filled long before the event started, and hundreds were obliged to stand at the back end of the hall.

At 8 o'clock when the curtain was raised, the new and old officers of the federation were seen standing on the beautifully decorated stage. They were the Rev. Mr. Kyogoku, Federation adviser; Miss Itoko Tsukada, retired president; Mrs. Kazuko Fujiwara, new president; and her cabinet officers.

After the Rev. Kyogoku gave a brief address, Miss Tsukada performed the installation ceremony for the new officers. Following this exercise, Miss Ross Shirasaki of Sausalito, chairman of the evening, made a short opening address. She then introduced Miss Chiyo Hayano, representative of the Central California district. The latter spoke on the subject of "Women in Buddhism."

The next speaker was Miss Tami Tamai Yamamoto of Los Angeles, who spoke on "Japanese Women's Culture" in a very fluent Japanese. Miss Beatrice Hayashi of Watsonville was the third to be presented to the audience. She discussed in English on the future of Buddhism in America. Her stimulating talk gave much room for reflection.

"Self-Examination" was the subject of the speech delivered by Miss Toshi Sano of Los Angeles. She stressed the importance of meditation over one's personal conduct.

Miss Akiko Tanaka of Guadalupe delivered one of the most forceful and eloquent speeches of the evening. Her fine command of Japanese enabled her to discuss a rather difficult subject, "Under the American Flag," in a most convincing style. When she used the famous quotation of Socrates, "Know Thyself," Miss Tanaka reminded the audience of the famous Rev. Haya Akegarasu's lecture. As she finished her ten minute address, the appreciative audience gave her a tremendous ovation.

Miss Fujiko Masuda of Oakland also spoke in Japanese. She, too, surprised the listeners with her fluent Japanese. Her topic was "Mother Love."

The last speaker, Miss Lorraine Tsuda of Sacramento, was, however, far the best speaker. Her natural attitude, gesture, and thought enabled her to stand out.

Following the oratorical meet, the various clubs presented many interesting entertainments on the stage. The features were the dance, "Broadway Novelty," by the San Francisco girls, and the skit, "Fox Movietone News," by Sacramento Rejo Kwi. These two performances stood out far above the others.

The comedy, "Unveiling Ceremony of Saigo's Statue," presented by Watsonville Y. W. B. A. gave a constant laughter to the spectators.

Miss Shizuka Matsumura's vocal solo, the graceful dance by an Oakland girl, and the "Dokusho" or vocal solo by Miss Matsumura of Salinas were also given applauses by the audience.

The other numbers were a dance, "Blossom Time," by San Francisco girls; a musical skit, "Evening News," by Los Angeles Y. W. B. A.; an interpretative dance, "Sora-Uki," and chorus, "Kao-Kao," by the Central California League; and a musical skit, "Button up Your Overcoat," by the Los Angeles girls.

Slash in Budget
Without Consent
Arouses Attack

Special to The Japanese American News
TOKYO, July 30—Seyukai, or the conservative party, today launched an attack upon the new Liberal Cabinet for having slashed the old budget by 90,000,000 yen without convoking a special session of the Diet and getting its approval.

Wife of Japanese
Tenor Returns To Join Her Husband

Special to The Japanese American News

TOKYO, July 27—Mrs. Akiko Fujiwara, newly wedded wife of the famous Japanese tenor, arrived here today from Nice, France, where she had sojourned for some time to pursue her study of art.

With a happy smile she sauntered out of the second-class cabin and greeted the huge crowd that awaited her on the pier. She first went to the Aoyama Hospital, where her husband is convalescing from a recent operation.

Mrs. Fujiwara caused a sensation recently when she forsook not only her husband, Dr. Miyata, but also her children, in order to wed the noted tenor. She is a daughter of a wealthy banker in Osaka.
