Nichi Bei Sends Telegram to Three Japanese on Graf

The Japanese American News sent a wireless Saturday afternoon to Graf Zeppelin which is sailing over the great Pacific on its way to Los Angeles to complete the third leg of its flight around the world. The telegram reads:

HE LOVED NATURE

To us who have not the power to read the whole pattern of Fate, there seems an irony in the fact that death should have come to Furuya, out of the splendid white mountains that he loved and whose meaning in beauty he sought to translate in pigments for all humanity.

Cruises at Sixty As Flying Condition Is Improved

King George of England sent a telegram to H. I. M. the Emperor of Japan recently, thanking him and his subjects for hospitality shown his son, the Duke of Gloucester when he visited Japan to present the Order of the Purple Garter to His Imperial Majesty.

KING WIRES HIS THANKS

TOKYO—King George telegraphed to H. M. the Emperor of Japan saying: "I am delighted to welcome my son upon his return from the mission to Your Imperial Majesty and Your House my most grateful thanks for the friendly, and indeed affectionate manner in which he was received and made to feel at home in Your Family Circle. Nothing could surpass the reception arranged in my son's honor. The whole mission was deeply impressed with the warmth and enthusiasm of the welcome afforded them in every part of Your country they visited."
