TRAGIC ROMANCE TOLD OF 'DAUGHTER OF 2 WORLDS'

By DAVID GAY (Continued from yesterday) The young father's illness cut short his education and forced him and his family to go to his wife's home in County Kerry, Ireland, late in 1903. When he had recovered, his family remained in Ireland while he studied in Germany, Austria, and France. In November 1906, the family returned to the United States on the steamship Baltic, which went around three hundred miles from Delaware Water Gap. While his wife and children, together with the wives and children of other passengers, were safe on an upper deck, Kunitomo and scores of other men waded in water for twenty-four hours before help came.

SCRIPPS-HOWARD Writer Here from Visit to Orient

William Philip Simms, foreign editor of the Scripps-Howard papers, returning from a tour of the war fronts in the Orient, arrived in San Francisco yesterday on the N. Y. K. liner Taiyo Maru. Simms was a member of the tour party of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, and was in the Orient with the recent outbreak occurred. He left the party and remained there during hostilities.

NEW MISFORTUNE

This experience and the pneumonia that followed was but the beginning of a new series of misfortunes which befell the young Japanese as a result of leaving the land in which he had friends and relatives for the alien country which his wife had adopted.

FORCED TO LABOR

To make the children understand what Thanksgiving really was, the doctor pawned the only article that he had at the time upon which any money could be realized—a suit of clothes. With the money obtained in this way his wife bought a chicken and fixed it for the children that they might have something for.

TAKAO OKAMOTO is the new vice-president, and W. Nohira secretary. The anxious task of editorship was shifted to Paul Kasugai, who is known as an able writer in not less than three languages.

The Hi-Y Club also decided at Friday night's meeting to hold a welcome party in honor of Tamotsu Murayama, who returned here from Japan aboard Taiyo Maru on Monday from a tour of the Orient with the "Hands Across the Pacific" party of the Lowell High's Nichi-Bel Club.

This welcome will be held on the evening of his arrival, Sept. 6, according to the present plan.

AIR STUNTS THRILL OUR JR. READERS

Forty Members Attend Our Matinee Given at New Fillmore

Over forty members of the Junior Club enjoyed as merry and glorious time as can be imagined when they took part in the theater party given by the Junior Club of The Japanese American News on Saturday afternoon.

The young guests assembled at the Japanese playground next to the reformed Church and were taken to the New Fillmore Theater by Miss Ruth Margaret Dodge, editor of the Junior Section, and Kohei Suzuki, principal of the Kimmon Gakuen.

They saw hair raising stunts in the "Flying Fool", starring William Boyd, and also "The Pirate of Panama", a thrilling serial. Moving pictures were shown of beautiful cumulous clouds that looked like huge snowballs.

We surely wish that out-of-town members were with us. We wish some of the Junior members would write about it for the benefit of others.

The chaperones of the group were Miss Ruth Margaret Dodge, Mr. Kohei Suzuki, Misses Itoko Tsukada, Lily Hata, K. Takaguchi, and Victor Yamakawa.

Japan to Display At World Oriental Exhibit at Prague

PLZEN (Czechoslovakia), Sept. 2—Through steps are being undertaken at Prague, Czechoslovakia, to insure the maximum of success for the coming World Oriental Exposition to be held in the most beautiful city of Europe—Prague—in 1931, according to the newspaper NOVA DOBA. Arrangements have already been made with the Imperial Government and business associations of Japan. Participation is also promised by China, Siam, as well as British and French Colonies in Asia.

A splendid, gigantic exposition palace will be built in addition to those in which the already world famous Prague Fairs are held twice a year, always with a heavy participation from Japan.

It is intended, through the Oriental Exposition, to bring closer understanding and commercial and cultural co-operation between the marvellously progressing Land of the Rising Sun and the leader of Central Europe. It is believed that the ideal location for this great gesture of world friendship is in the Heart of Europe, Prague, so often sought by famous writers of Japan.

OUR JUNIOR SECTION

BIRTHDAYS—August 30 (See second New Member), Aug. 31 Flora Watanabe and Dora Sakata.

NEW MEMBERS—George Eihachi Tani, age 11, birthday October 8, grade 3, address R. F. D. 2, Box 3, Leominster, California.

Hideki John Ura, age 6 years, birthday August 20, address R. F. D. 9-A Palm Avenue, Irvington, Calif.

Welcome to you two! We haven't enough boys in this club. It is splendid to have two more.

Grace Chiyeko Ura (same address as her brother, Hideki's, above) says: "Every day I can hardly wait until the Japanese American News comes. The Club seems to be big now."

"I could not write for a long time because I had to work in the apricots. We are starting on the prunes now, and after prunes come tomatoes."

"I will draw some pictures for the Club soon."

That will be fine, Grace. We have some shelves where we can keep your pictures now. So when your pictures come we shall put them safely away to show to visitors.

Many thanks to Jane Chiyko Tano for her welcome letter. Her address is the same as her brother George's, our new member today. George asks for letters from members about 8 or 9 years old.

We have a welcome letter from Ruth Watanabe, too. Her address is P. O. Box 27, Dinuba, Calif.

Here are the answers to two questions asked by several people. The way to join this club is to send a letter addressed "Junior Editor, The Japanese American News, 650 Ellis street, San Francisco."

Say what you like in the letter, being sure you give your full name, your full address, your age, your birthday, and your grade in school. Send stories or poems or jokes or riddles if you like, telling where they came from if you know. Or if you take the Weekly and like to have your letter answered and your membership announced there, instead of "Junior Editor" address "Obasan" exactly the same address, saying "We take the Weekly."

The queer part of this is that the Junior Editor and Obasan are the same person, at present! And this shows the answer to the second question that some of you have asked: how to address letters to Miss Ruth Margaret Dodge. The same answer! All to the same address. She is only one person with three names. And how she does like to get letters addressed to any of them, especially "Obasan" because it is a

Romance Rumor

Miss Alice Davis, attractive daughter of former Secretary of War and now Governor of the Philippines, Dwight F. Davis, denies the rumor current in Washington which joined her name with that of Allan Hoover, youngest son of President Hoover, as engaged to marry, but admits they are "good friends."

FROSH GIVEN FETE IN S. F.

16 U. C. Students Are Guests of Sophs At Sho Wa Low

Sixteen freshmen were the guests of honor at a welcome reception tendered them by the sophomore students of the University of California Friday evening at the Sho Wa Low on Post street. The reception is an annual affair.

Mike Matsushima acted as toastmaster and delivered a speech of welcome, representing the Japanese Students Club of the University of California. Tokio Katsuchi spoke a few words of greeting.

The remainder of the evening was spent in singing school songs and enjoying conversation.

Following this, the freshmen all stood up and sang "All Hail Blue and Gold." The reception ended at 8:30 p. m.

SCOUTS ARE BACK IN S. F. FROM JAPAN

Sac'to Troop, Lowell High Party Arrive On Taiyo Maru

Parents and relatives of the Sacramento Japanese Boy Scouts of Troop 25 swarmed the pier 34 Monday noon as the huge liner, S. S. Taiyo Maru, dropped anchor here from Japan.

Led by George F. Murray, scoutmaster, these boys left this port on June 19 aboard the liner Siberia Maru for an educational tour of Japan. During their three-month stay, they were the guests of different Japanese boy scout organizations, and they everywhere enjoyed warm hospitality.

The leaders include Yoshio Sato, Hiroshi Sunahara, Ray Nishiyama, and Kikui Ryugo, patrol leaders; Donald Toriumi, Henry Tanaka, and Dick Jones, buglers; Albert Nagahashi, scribe. Other scouts are Paul Otani, Wm. Tanaka, Takeshi Kato, George Okura, Ben Kumagai, Howard Yamagata, Hiroshi Sakamoto, Fred Fujita, Wm. Yamamoto, Sasano Oji, Kiyoshi Kumagai, J. Kubo, Isamu Shijo, Taro Nakaoki, Yasuji Matsui, Yoshio Kamikawa, Yonemi Kubota, and Ellis Tomita.

The officers of the troop were Geo. F. Murray, scoutmaster; Seigo Takai, business manager; Dr. C. B. Jones, physician; Harry Maeda, assistant scoutmaster; William Mayeda, Junior-assistant and senior patrol leader.

Another tourist party to return here is the Lowell high school's Nichi-Bel Kenpaku Dan, conducted under the leadership of George Lorbeer. While touring Japan's historic centers as well as the industrial cities of Osaka and Kobe, the young students forming the party were given enthusiastic welcome by the various chambers of commerce and cultural and educational societies.

Tamotsu Murayama, a member of the local Japanese Hi-Y Club, is the only Japanese in the party.

Another Y. M. C. A. member to return to San Francisco aboard the same boat is Kimio Obata, son of the noted local Japanese artist.

Japanese name. Juniors who went to the Theater Party, don't forget to send stories about it (quite short ones will do) so that we can share the fun with members who could not go.

NEW MEMBER (see letter) Dear Junior Editor: I wish to join the J. A. J. C. but I do not know if I could. May I join it? (Indeed you may. You are a member now. Editor)

My name is Mary K. Yego, age 8, second grade, address P. O. Box 374, Newcastle, Calif.

Please have members write to me. I will write to them too for I want to be friends.

I will write to you again. I like the J. C. very much. Yours truly, Mary K. Yego.

That is just exactly what the letter said—no changes in spelling or anything else. Lots will write to welcome you first. We welcome you now.

A member who forgot to sign the letter sends us this interesting suggestion.

"Would you please ask Obasan if we can have a primary section. Then people 8 1-2 years and under may become primary members. We would like to have another for people 14 years and over in the Japanese American News."

That seems an excellent plan. If it is all one club, called The Japanese American Club we could have three sections, the Primary for people 8 1-2 and under; the Junior for people from 8 1-2 to 14; and the Senior for people over 14. Shall we do this? There would not need to be any special joining. We could just be graduated from one section to the next. What do you think of the plan, all of you?

The joke sent with this suggestion: "Junior"

"Aunt Lisa, is this your boy?" "Yes, miss, dat's Prescription."

"Goodness, what a funny name, Auntie, for a child. How in the world did you happen to call him that name?" "Ah simply calls him dat becuz ah has sech ha'd work gettin' him filled."—Front Rank.
