SAC TO GIRL KILLS MAN TO KEEP HONOR

Hisako Karakawa, 20, Fires Five Shots Into Sutor

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 6.—Sympathetic toward her because of her circumstances, friends of Hisako Karakawa, 20-year-old girl who shot and killed Tokujiro Furuta, 42, on Thursday, are sparing no effort for her release from the cold cells where she is now awaiting for the trial set for Tuesday.

"He grabbed me and tried to kiss me. I shot him—five times."

The girl, after the shooting, which was done in the dining room of Furuta's house at 1321 Third street at 11 a. m., called up Mrs. Yoshizawa, an old lady with whom she was staying. In the excitement the woman nearly collapsed. Miss Karakawa arranged with friends to continue the support of a young brother she is putting through school, then notified the police of the killing.

Furuta is the former common-law husband of her dead mother, Miss Karakawa told police.

IMPROPER CONDUCT

"Last week his advances became decidedly improper," the girl said. I bought a revolver and kept it by the kitchen stove. Today he came in, grabbed me and kissed me. I shot him—let him have all five cartridges.

Miss Karakawa told the district attorney that for some time Furuta had been hinting that he wanted her to be his common-law wife. The girl has been supporting her family by cooking in a boarding house since the death of her mother a year ago.

MOTHER'S WILL

It is reported that the mother of Miss Karakawa, at her deathbed, had given Furuta $1000 and the pool room she was operating, with the understanding that he leave her daughter and son alone.

The Sacramento Bee, for the issue of yesterday, carries these paragraphs:

Detectives Ed Soares and J. M. Catlett, who investigated, stated that Miss Karakawa claims that since her mother's death a year ago, Furuta has been continually attempting to force her to live with him.

THREATENED HER LIFE

The girl declared that her victim had, on repeated occasions, threatened to kill her unless she would accede to his importunities. Fearing that he would eventually attempt to carry out his threat, the girl claims she purchased a .32 calibre revolver a month ago.

KEPT HOUSE FOR VICTIM

The girl stated that today she went to Furuta's home to prepare dinner. The Japanese again attempted to force his attentions upon her. When she refused to yield to his demands he declared he would kill her.

"I knew he had a gun hidden in the house and I feared he would shoot me," she informed the officers. "I ran into the room, where my gun was hidden, and then returned to the dining room. My mind went blank for a few seconds and when it cleared Furuta was lying on the floor dead."

A grandson of Lord Tennyson, the poet laureate, is now secretary of the Dunlop organization at its headquarters in London. He is Mr. C. B. L. Tennyson, C. M. G., who until taking up his present appointment, was deputy director of the Federation of British Industries.

POOR CONDUCT

There have been various rumors current rebuking the conduct of some students abroad the past few years. It is alleged that the moral discipline of some students is more and more loose. Some neglect their duty of regularly reporting to the Education Office from the countries to which they are sent.

INSIST ON CUT

The Education Office, however, is insisting on cutting down the previous number to half, and declares that this applies to every university, higher school and special grade school.

THREATENED HER LIFE

The girl declared that her victim had, on repeated occasions, threatened to kill her unless she would accede to his importunities. Fearing that he would eventually attempt to carry out his threat, the girl claims she purchased a .32 calibre revolver a month ago.
