OAKLAND, Sept. 10.—To honor the many incoming and outgoing officers of the society, the Oakland Japanese Y. W. C. A. held a party in their new center, 594-9th street, on Tuesday evening.

In token of their untiring efforts rendered in behalf of the Y. W. C. A., the two outgoing officers were presented with wrist watches by the girls.

Miss Yone Okamura, secretary of the Japanese center for four years, left for Stockton to attend College of the Pacific to work for her master's degree in biology.

Others honored at the party were Miss Edith Hanson, retiring executive secretary of the International Institute; Miss Clara Newell, retiring secretary, who has served the Institute for 10 years and Miss Rhoda Newell of the Y. W. C. A.

The incoming workers are Miss Mary Baker, new executive of the International Institute and Miss Toyo Domoto, new secretary for the Japanese Center.

All of the outgoing workers were presented with beautiful gifts from the members. Miss Okamura and Mrs. Utsumi presented monetary gifts to the Japanese Center.

Alameda Taiiku Defeats Oakland Merritts, 13-10

Special to The Japanese American News ALAMEDA, Sept. 10.—In an exciting game marked by a lively batting spree on the part of the local boys, the Alameda Taiiku has defeated the Oakland Merritts, 13 to 10, Sunday afternoon at the local Japanese ground.

By using three pitchers during the game, the Taiiku boys held down their opponents fairly well, while their own batters smashed one after another, and tamed their traditional rivals.

This is the second game for the Taiiku since this season, and the local boys have won both of them. The score follows:

H. R. E.
Merritts	200 203 120—13 10 4

Hawaii Youth Gets Reappointment at Doshisha College

HONOLULU, Sept. 10.—Shunzo Sakamaki, graduate of the University of California, who has been in Japan during the past two years in the capacity of student professor at Doshisha University has accepted reappointment for another year, according to word received from him recently. Under this new arrangement he will be in Japan until the end of March, 1931.

Mr. Sakamaki expects to pay a visit to Hawaii next spring, bringing with him a group of eight or nine Doshisha students to spend a month at the University of Hawaii next March.

Shunzo reports the birth of a son to Mr. and Mrs. Raymond K. Oshino on August 11. He also writes of his meeting Ted Kurashige, who is now connected with Sales & Company of Tokyo, and Norikazu Muramaru, who is teaching at Miyazaki.

The "talkies" are a regular thing in Japan now, Shunzo says, but he has a thousand and one grievances against the "censors." They are a generation behind the times, and their censorship is terrible. In the talkies, sometimes, at crucial points, all the sound dies out, and those in the audience don't hear a blessed thing, although the figures continue to move their lips, Shunzo writes.

At present, Shunzo is working in the office of the Japan council of the Institute of Pacific Relations, which is getting things ready for the meeting of the institute in October at Kyoto.

Founding of 2,000,000 Yen Body For Study of Children's Disease Will Be Urged Upon Japanese Diet

TOKYO.—Increasing number of primary school graduates seeking jobs, and the relatively decreasing number desiring to enter schools of the higher grades is regarded as the reflection of the ailing of hard times.

The figures prepared by the Social Affairs Bureau of the Home Office, which looks after the interests of juvenile job-hunters through the juvenile employment agencies and primary schools, show that out of 495,343 children who graduated last March, 87,386 signified their intention of going to work.

This represents fully 18 per cent of the total graduates, an increase of 1.2 per cent over the figures of a striking phenomenon in view of the Government's frantic efforts to spread educational facilities.

For the benefit of juvenile job-seekers, there are 166 juvenile employment agencies and 44 juvenile employment committees, under the supervision of the Bureau, in 3,252 primary schools with which they are connected.

Where there were 110,030 openings for jobs for juveniles, 69,641 actually applied for jobs. After test, 48,748 out of this number were pronounced fit to work, of whom 28,479 actually secured jobs. The number is nearly double compared with last year's figures.

Vocationally classified, they were: Clerical apprentices 1,588 Office boys 3,968 Store boys 6,463 Shop apprentices 9,733 Miscellaneous 7,640

Fujiwara, gave a delightful dancant in her honor, in the beautiful ball room of the M. H. De Young mansion on California street.

Dressed in a lovely green satin gown, with a bouquet of snow-white gardenias attached, she appeared radiantly winsome as she hoped to receive the 150 guests who arrived to enjoy the affair.

The ball room was decorated with bouquets of mixed flowers and wine colored draperies.

The prize waltz was won by Lincoln Tokunaga and Miss Nao Zalman. In response to an encore, they gave an exhibition dance.

The music was furnished by Chas. Kikugawa, the local musician, and his band of youthful syncopators, including Dick Motoyoshi on the saxophone, Willie Ito, saxophone; Lee Prader, piano; and Shinglin Omoto, banjo. Refreshments were served.

TRAGIC ROMANCE TOLD OF 'DAUGHTER OF 2 WORLDS'

By DAVID GAY (Continued from yesterday) Marie was too quick of wit not to realize that she had created a feeling of antagonism. She did not blind herself to the facts. They objected to their pal marrying her. But for what reason? Was she not good enough for him, not pretty enough, not accomplished enough to be his wife? Clearly, these were not the reasons for the seething spirit of antagonism. It could not be one thing. There was Oriental blood in her veins. She was not a white woman!

Just what these two young people said to one another on their way home that night no one may ever know. The boy marrying her, Marie, thought that she had created a feeling of antagonism. She did not blind herself to the facts. They objected to their pal marrying her. But for what reason? Was she not good enough for him, not pretty enough, not accomplished enough to be his wife? Clearly, these were not the reasons for the seething spirit of antagonism. It could not be one thing. There was Oriental blood in her veins. She was not a white woman!

When they parted at the girl's door it was with the understanding that Jim was to leave town the next morning on a business trip in a neighboring town, from which he would return that night. They said good night, but it was to be farewell.

Back at home, Jim's telephone rang. It was a friend calling. What did he want? Only to know whether Jim was in earnest about marrying that Japanese girl. Earnest? The boy laughed at him.

"Why, I've known her for years," he said. "She's the finest woman in the world, and I'm crazy about her."

He hung up. Not long after, another American friend called. A similar conversation ensued. Before

Japanese Emperor Returns to Tokyo From Nasu Villa

Special to The Japanese American News TOKYO, Sept. 10.—His Imperial Majesty the Emperor today returned to Tokyo from the Nasu Detached Palace located near Nikko, the famous historic center.

will take years for me to forget, maybe never. But he will never be happy. He ran away to save his sister and mother disgrace and brought disgrace upon himself.

"I'm going away in a day or two to God knows where. Wish I could come up there to somebody who understands. I just want to cry out loud when I think how happy I was going to make everybody, also myself, but it's too late now. My wedding dress coming, my hat and everything ready. Gee, Mary, I loved him."

When the doctor went up to his room that night he looked into the eye of his daughter, as she had done hundreds of times when she was a child, and saw her sleeping soundly. The next morning when he left for his office she was still sleeping. He was never to see her awake again.

TAKES REVOLVER An hour later the girl left the house in her car. Her sister-in-law believed she had gone to see about her wedding dress, which had been slow in coming. Sick at heart, she called the hospital where she was employed and informed them she was too ill to work that day. Then she went down to the garage where the did bookkeeping. It is believed that she had not thought of suicide until she opened a drawer in the desk and came upon a revolver.

Taking it with her, the girl drove away and headed for a secluded spot near the railroad tracks.

HER CONVICTION It was there that she sat and wept over the picture of the man she believed had been faithless—and there that she wrote her farewell note. If the mind of a person who is about to kill himself goes over the outstanding events of his life, how many scenes must have passed before Marie Kumitomo's eyes in rapid succession during those last fifteen minutes. The devotion of her mother and father! Her brother's pride in her! Her love for Jimmy! Their last years of courtship! And then the turbulence and happiness of the last week. The pretty wedding gown, the going away costume. No doubt, he had done it on purpose. He had left her—jilted her!

Dear Mary. My heart is broken thinking Jim would be so yellow. It

Y GIRLS TO GIVE PLAYS AT FAIRMONT

Program Tonight Will Launch Building Fund Drive

A score of local Japanese girls, attired in the costumes of feudal Japan, will present two powerful Kabuki plays and a colorful Oriental pantomime tonight (Wednesday) at the Fairmont Hotel. The plays start at 8:30 p. m.

The program, presented under the direction of Miss Margaret Shedd, dramatic artist of the San Francisco Civic Repertory Theater, and Masa Mitu, local Kabuki director, promises to be a rare treat to all lovers of the theater.

The performances are being staged as a preliminary affair to the Y. W. C. A. building fund campaign, which takes place during the first of the month. The Japanese group, under the leadership of the Japanese Center, will launch the drive from Sept. 11.

The $10,000 city-wide drive is being conducted for the purpose of raising funds to build dormitories for working girls and students.

The Japanese Center will receive $20,000 for construction of an extension to the present over-crowded dormitory on Sutter street.

"ICHI-NO-TANI"

Tonight's program will be featured by the famous historical drama, "Ichi-no-Tani," which depicts a heroic incident in the Japanese War of Roses between the families of Minamoto and Taira. Kumage, a Minamoto chieftan, engages in a deadly combat with the action of a Taira lord, Kumage, after the duel, finds that he has slain a mere boy. The sight of the dead boy with the bloom of youth ennobling its countenance so moves him with thoughts of the fatality and cruelty of war that he betakes himself to the monastery.

This story is dramatically presented in the one-act play to be given tonight.

The other play, "Tera-Koya," will be given in English.

The dance pantomime, the last act on the program, will be featured by Julius Craven, a distinguished dramatic artist, and Miss Koyuki.

JUNIOR AND SENIOR CLUB

JUNIORS, you see that we have a new heading to our column. It just means that we are growing, and that we have made room for another section which we shall call "THE SENIOR SECTION OF THE JAPANESE AMERICAN CLUB." You who are over 14 may transfer your names to this new SECTION if you wish to do so—a sort of graduation.

But we shall share the column and our good times just as before.

Four NEW MEMBERS have joined Hisako Kobayashi, S. M. (that means SENIOR MEMBER), address 177 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco (other particulars will be printed later).

Alice Okamoto, S. M. Address 1371 Post Street, San Francisco (other particulars later).

Marian Ayako Yamashita, S. M. age 17, birthday March 25, 3b in high school, address 2313 Bank St., Alameda, Calif.

Tomoe Yamashita, S. M. age 16, birthday August 17, 2b in high school, address 2313 Bank Street, Alameda, California.

All four of these new members joined in person at the editor's desk, so they have already been welcomed here. But you "old members," be sure to welcome them by letter, won't you?

All who want to become SENIOR MEMBERS, please write to say so. And as you reach the age of 14, everybody will be welcome in the new SECTION. But we shall only transfer those who ask to be transferred.

REMEMBER THAT BOYS AS WELL AS GIRLS ARE WELCOME IN THIS CLUB. And everybody who is a member may write to anybody else who is a member.

REDS INVITED TO INSTITUTE

Greene on Way to Rus Capitol to Extend Invitation

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—Jerome D. Greene, the Boston and New York banker who succeeded Secretary of the Interior, Lyman A. Wilbur, as chairman of the American council of the Institute of Pacific Relations, has left for Japan via Moscow for the purpose of inviting Soviet Russia to participate in the Institute's session which will be held in Kyoto next October. He says that the present Sino-Russian controversy in Manchuria as well as the Sino-Japanese difficulties existing in the same region will undoubtedly be the main topics of discussion at Kyoto.

Mr. Greene asserts that the attendance of Russian delegates is of the greatest importance because of the Soviet's interest in any discussion of Manchuria.

Forty American delegates to Kyoto to represent the advance guard and headed by James G. McDonald, chairman of the Foreign Policy Association and John D. Rockefeller, III, already are in Europe en route to Japan.

This story is dramatically presented in the one-act play to be given tonight.

The other play, "Tera-Koya," will be given in English.

The dance pantomime, the last act on the program, will be featured by Julius Craven, a distinguished dramatic artist, and Miss Koyuki.

NEW YORK, Aug. 15.—Jerome D. Greene, Edward C. Carter and most of the other American delegates to participate in the discussions.

Mrs. Carter said the Sino-Russian dispute regarding the Chinese Eastern Railway makes it all the more desirable to have Russian delegates at the conference. However, it will be made clear that all the delegates are to be absolutely non-official.

The American group will visit Manchuria, Peiping, Nanking, and Shanghai before going on to Japan to attend the conference.

HEAVY GUN FIRE STARTS RED ATTACK

Moscow Protests Use Of Czarist Troops By Nanking

MUKDEN, Manchuria, Sept. 10.—(UP)—Heavy cannonading by Red Army artillery was reported today from several points along the 1,000 mile frontier where Soviet forces were said to have resumed their "offensive" against Chinese outposts.

Russian attacks, which took a reported toll of 500 casualties over the week-end, continued in full force, with both sides using field guns, machine guns and concentrated rifle fire. Soviet planes were used for reconnoitering.

Heaviest fighting was reported in the vicinity of Manchul, Manchurian border town at the western terminus of the Chinese Eastern Railway. At Pogranitchnaya, on the eastern terminus, looting by Brigands was reported following the Sunday bombing by Soviet airplanes.

Exact extent of the casualties in the Manchul section was not revealed, but considerable damage was reported at the 86th waiting station of the railway near the western frontier. Heavy artillery fire was reported from nearby Mulline, with squadrons of Red coast planes hovering overhead.

A dispatch direct from Manchul said the Russians were striking vigorously with both artillery and machine guns. The Chinese troops returned the fire and the loss of life was severe. Bitter cold added to hardships in the trenches.

By EUGENE LYONS United Press Staff Correspondent MOSCOW, Sept. 10.—(UP)—The Soviet Foreign Office sent a new note to the Mukden and Nanking Governments today warning them that they must discontinue the Czarist Russian divisions which have become a part of the Chinese army along the Manchuria-Siberian frontier.

The Foreign Office at the same time warned the Manchurian and Chinese Governments to cease "aggressions" which have been forcing the Red army to respond militarily after incursions into Siberia.

The Foreign Office delivered its note through the German Embassy, which represents both China and Russia during the current impasse.

The note called attention to a list of 18 White Russian and Chinese attacks upon the Soviet troops massed along the border since Aug. 19. These attacks, the note said, reached a climax during the past week-end when the Red troops were forced to pursue and disperse the attackers.

10 Yen Charged for Pleasure-Riding in Japanese Airplanes

TOKYO, Sept. 5.—Going up in airplanes for the pure thrill of it will be possible in Japan beginning some time this fall when plans now under contemplation by the officials of the Japan Air Transportation Company are put into effect. These men say that the country is becoming more air-minded all the time and that there is no reason why pleasure trips among the clouds should not be within the reach of the populace here as in many Western countries.

It is expected that a charge of ¥10 per person for every half hour in the air will be made, each plane holding six passengers.

The airplanes will be put into service first of all in Tokyo, Osaka, Fukuoka and Dalren and if the project proves satisfactory other cities will be put on the list of those where pleasure-riding in the air is possible.

members in this Club. I am sending some jokes that I found in the old magazine. I would like to have Juniors of 13 or 14 year old write to me.

Loveingly, Shimeu Onishi, E. F. D. No 1, Paul, Idaho.

Shimeu's jokes: "I fear that young man to whom I gave a job in the shop last week is dishonest."

"You should not judge by appearances."

"F'n judging by disappearances." "Papa, Mr. Fubdub will probably call on you tonight."

"Well?" "Tell him gently but firmly that I can never be his."

"See here, girl, don't you send that young man to me. I owe him ten dollars."

"I can't imagine why Bertie is so brainless; can't you?" "Why of course. There's a theory that he was brought up on a vacuum bottle."
