葡萄酒案と 耕作者の去就進退

葡萄酒の消費は、戦時中を通じて、著しく減少した。これは、戦時中の特殊事情によるものである。戦時中は、戦費の増大に伴って、酒類の消費が制限された。戦後、酒類の消費は再び増加したが、戦時中の減少分を完全に回復するには、まだ時間がかかると思われる。

ADMIRAL KATO SUGGESTS PACIFIC SECURITY PACT IN PARLEY WITH PREMIER

Chief of Naval Staff Voices Opposition To U. S. Plan

Special To The Japanese American News TOKYO, March 20—Possible injection of a general security pact for the Pacific region into the deliberation of the London naval conference marked today's development in the move for a Japanese American naval agreement.

Admiral Kanji Kato, chief of the naval staff, suggested today in a conference with Premier Hamaguchi that Japan consider accepting the American compromise plan with minor revisions in conjunction with a general pact of security in the Pacific, to embrace the situation in China as well as other problems, and to cover in detail the situation developing since the formulation of the four-power Pacific treaty of Washington Conference.

As to the United States compromise plan taken by itself, Admiral Kato voiced an emphatic opposition in behalf of the Navy. He was supported by Admiral Katsunoshi Yamashiro, acting Minister of the Navy, who was also present during the conference.

Admiral Kato, whose report to the Premier was preceded by a general consultation with the highest naval officers, affirmed the original stand that the 70 per cent ratio which Japan demands is an irreducible minimum figure, for the defense of the Empire.

Japan's counter-proposal, as suggested by Kato to Hamaguchi, is reiterated in the following: 70 PCT. MAINTAINED 1. Status quo parly on submarine (with total tonnage at about 78,000 tons).

2. Strict 70 per cent of the American Navy in the big cruiser category. This would mean Japan must build two more 8,900-ton cruisers if the United States insists upon maintaining the 180,000-ton figure with 18 ships.

3. Seventy per cent ratio in the auxiliary ships taken as a whole. The Navy's counterproposal will be deliberated at the next Cabinet Council on March 22.

4. The British delegates, the United Press learns, are seeking some formula in which any suggestion that France admits Italy's right to equality, or Italy officially consents to French superiority, will be scrupulously avoided.

Whether such a vague agreement would be acceptable to either nation remains a question, but it has been stated repeatedly in reliable French quarters that while France is unwilling to "admit" Italian parity with France, she has never actually considered she had the right to "deny" such equality.

S. F. YMBA TO PLAY NISSEI

GAME WILL BE STAGED ON FRIDAY IN OAKLAND

Special To The Japanese American News Because of the recent unexpected victory of the Nissei varsity over the local Japanese Y.M.C.A., much interest is attached to the forthcoming game between that Berkeley team and the San Francisco Y.M.B.A. cagers, winners of the JAAU title, on next Friday night, March 21, at the Oakland Technical high school court.

The Nisseis lost to the OSDS in the JAAU League. The latter in turn lost to the Y.M.B.A. The Berkeley boys, however, are said to be in a top form since that time.

The preliminary game for the contest will be played between the Nissei Club B and the Stockton Y. M. B. A. team.

Those wishing to go from San Francisco are advised to board the 7 p. m. Key Route boat, take the Piedmont train, and transfer to a street car at 46th, ride north to 46th and Broadway, and walk half a block to the boy's gymnasium.

NITTOS VS. OSDS Another interesting game will be the San Jose Nittos and the OSDS at 9 p. m., at the McClymond high school court.

CLERIC WILL FACE MONEY LAW TANGLE

Misappropriation Is Charged Kyogoku Says Paper

Special To The Japanese American News FRESNO, March 20—Kyogoku, of the local Buddhist Church, was charged with having misappropriated and converted to his own use about $5000 of church funds in a suit brought by T. Nomi and S. Murakami in the Superior Court.

This was revealed in an item carried by the Fresno Republican this morning. The news story continues: "The complaint, prepared by the law firm of Lindsay and Gearhart, asks court to appoint a referee to conduct an accounting of the church records and report such funds as may be found due to the church.

The plaintiffs ask that judgment be entered against the priest in favor of the church. Continuing, the complaint says, "Because of the dominance and control exercised and exerted by the said defendant over the management of the church and its financial affairs, neither the board of trustees nor the executive committee will take any action nor proceed to recover money misappropriated and converted."

M. Ozawa, adviser for the plaintiffs in the suit, said that every effort was made to effect peaceful settlements outside the court but without avail, and that every friendly request to examine the books has been flatly refused.

***** JUNIOR AND SENIOR CLUB ***** BIRTHDAYS—Mary Hiroshima, George Tamura. Junior—My Dear Obasan: I've been neglecting to write to you for a long, long time, partly because I hadn't much to say, and partly because I was lazy. I hate to admit it but I guess it's the truth.

We take the Weekly and also the Daily, Obasan, and I read every bit of it, almost. I remember when I first started reading the English section. I couldn't understand anything but I attempted to read it. When the Junior Section started I was very interested and I have watched it grow until now, when the club is very large and active. I think the first or one of the first to join the club, and formerly a very active member, is a boy who lives somewhere on Sutter street, wasn't it?

I'm writing to you to ask to be put in the Senior Section as I have attained the age of fourteen. Junior—(Transferred. Welcome!—Obasan.)

Will you please tell Ruth Watanabe for me through the column please to write to me again? I have lost her address, so I'm unable to write to her. Her letters are very entertaining so are something to look forward to in the mail.

(Ruth's address is P. O. Box 27, Dinuba, California.)

Spring is just around the corner, isn't it? The few peach trees that we have growing in our garden have started to bud, and soon the very branches will be loaded with large, pink, fragrant blossoms. Obasan, have you seen peach trees in full bloom? Have you seen the delicate petals of rich pink pouring forth their delicate perfume? Our trees give very poor fruit which is not fit for eating but the blossoms are certainly something to be proud of.

I am writing a short story now, which I am going to tell you for the Weekly, when it is finished. Will you please tell me what the meter of the "hokku" verse is? I'm not sure but is it 5-7-5? I'd like to write some Japanese and also English hokku.

Lovingly, Tomoye Nozawa 750 Stanyan street, San Francisco.

The first line of a hokku has five, the second seven, and the third five syllables as you thought, Tomoye. I have answered this more fully in the Weekly. I am eager to see hokku written by you and by other members. I believe that you will write them beautifully. It is better I think, not to try for any rhyme.

I do wish that I could see your peach trees! You tell of them charmingly. I seem to remember seeing nearly all other kinds of California fruit trees in bloom, but I do not think that I have seen peach blossoms on the trees.

Beautiful Spring days to everybody!—Obasan.

COLLEGE CONFESSIONAL By GLENN FRANK Look Ellis and the scientific students of the emotions and sex-life of mankind have rendered; I only speak cautiously of turning loose among our students young practitioners of the knowledge of these great spirits. When we professionalize this scientific counsel to students too much we run the risk of stimulating rather than submitting the exaggerated sex-consciousness of modern youth. Finally the greatest guidance to the lives of students must come from the spirit and tone of the total life of our colleges rather than from a single mental hygiene expert available for the occasional case of maladjusted student. Happily the majority of students are healthy minded and have no desire to hurry into a clinic of the stress and storm of emotional psychiatry take their souls apart.
