ARREST OF INDIA REBEL IS EXPECTED

British Cabinet Will Support Delhi to Crush Revolt

Special To the Japanese American News
LONDON, May 1—The arrest of Mahatma Gandhi, Indian Nationalist leader, is expected momentarily in view of the British cabinet's decision to support the Indian government in its measures to stamp out the incipient rebellion, this morning's London papers declare.

Gandhi's countrywide influence has resulted in so dangerous a situation, the papers add, that the cabinet is convinced his arrest is inevitable. It only remains for the Indian government to decide when to act.

ANOTHER SON IMPRISONED
BOMBAY, April 30—Further bloodshed, arrests and the imprisonment of Devi Das Gandhi, youngest son of the Indian Nationalist leader, Mahatma Gandhi, were today's outstanding features of the native rebellion against the British regime.

"There will be a great battle raging present that cannot but end in the liberation of India. Gandhi's son told the court at New Delhi before he was led off to one year's rigorous imprisonment.

Devi Das was convicted of sedition. His older brother, Ram Das Gandhi, was early this month sentenced to a six months' term for defiance of the salt laws.

Pasadenans Stage Japan Program Garfield School

Special to the Japanese American News
PASADENA, May 1—In their efforts to promote a more sympathetic understanding of Japan among the American people of the community, the Japanese parents of the local Garfield School presented a delightful and instructive Japanese program in the school auditorium on Monday, April 28.

Such subjects as the Japanese institutions of girls' and boys' festivals, the tea ceremony, and household arts, were given lucid explanation by Mrs. M. Koyama and Mrs. Y. Kawata. The program also includes a series of musical selections on Japanese instruments.

"Modern Education of Women in Japan" was the subject of Miss Tsukao's address. Henry Shimanouchi, English editor of The Los Angeles Japanese American News, gave a talk on "What the Second Generation Hopes to Make of American Life."

Japanese refreshments were served later.
