JAPAN M. P.'S TO BE FETED BY EMPEROR

Ruler Rescript Read by Hamaguchi in Closing Diet

Special To the Japanese American News TOKYO, MAY 14—The 88th session of the Imperial Diet closed today with an official adjournment ceremony in which Premier Hamaguchi read the Imperial rescript in the House of Peers. The rites concluded, the members of the Parliament received their salary, consisting of 1,250 yen for each member.

The Premier was host to these lawmakers at a banquet held at his official mansion on Nagata Cho at noon today. They will be the guests of His Majesty the Emperor at a luncheon in the palace tomorrow. The invitation was issued by the Imperial Household Minister Ichiki, who intimated in a postscript that the M. P.'s who have been officially indicted for complicity in bribe scandals will not be welcome.

SUMMONS ISSUED

The government today issued a summons for a conference of prefectural governors to be held in this city on May 20.

Several humorous and amusing stories are current in the capital incident to the last Diet. Yesterday Wataru Shige, a Setyukan representative in the Commons, struck Katsuhiko Tanomogi of the opposition in a fist fight. Ordinarily this would have passed as an ordinary incident in the routine of this tumultuous law-making body, but at this particular moment the District Attorney of Tokyo courts, Hirokazu Matsuzaka, happened to be present among the on-lookers. The pugilistic M. P. will be indicted, it was intimated here today.

LOSES TWO POUNDS

A staid official has ascertained that Premier Hamaguchi was summoned to the Diet over 200 times during the three week period of the special session, and for these exertions he lost two pounds in weight.

A number of Setyukan deputies were condemned in a disciplinary resolution passed yesterday by the Diet and referred to an appropriate committee. However, due to adjournment today, no definite measure could be taken to mete out justice for their barbaric manners. Not to be frustrated by this technical difficulty, Chairman Tsuchiya referred two of the most pugnacious deputies, Takeuchi Azuma and Yoshio Shoji, to the Tokyo district attorney's office with recommendation to prosecute them.

Mrs. Debuchi Given Bouquet of Flowers by Girl in Salinas

Special To the Japanese American News SALINAS, May 14—Members of the local Japanese community enjoyed a unique experience last Friday when Ambassador and Madam Debuchi arrived here for a brief call and tour of inspection, accompanied by Consul and Mrs. Sato of Los Angeles and Kwan Yoshida, attaché at the Embassy in Washington.

As the Daylight Limited stopped at the depot at 5:30 p. m., about thirty men from Monterey and Salinas, together with two Salinas girls Miss Masako Fukuda and Miss Edna Nagano, greeted the visiting party. As soon as Ambassador and Madam Debuchi alighted, Miss Fukuda, daughter of K. Fukuda, prominent Salinas resident, presented the Madame Debuchi with a bouquet of American roses in behalf of the Salinas Japanese Association. Then the ambassador's party, escorted by ten cars, went to Del Monte Lodge, a fashionable hostelry located on the Seventeen-mile drive.

On Saturday evening the party was given a welcome banquet at the New San Carlos Hotel in Monterey, under the joint auspices of the Japanese Associations of Watsonville, Salinas, and Monterey. On Sunday morning the party left for the Bay cities.

HARRIS BILL IS APPROVED

Limiting of Mexicans to 1500 Annually is OK'd by Senate

Special To the Japanese American News WASHINGTON, May 14—An immigration barrier against Mexico was voted yesterday by the Senate. Without even a record roll call, the Senate passed a bill by Senator Harris, Democrat, Georgia, restricting Mexican immigration to this country to about 1500 annually.

The measure was approved after the Senate had voted, 51 to 16, to accept a proposal by Harris confining the restriction to Mexico alone rather than to all Central and South American countries, as originally provided by his bill. The Harris bill now goes to the House, where there is no assurance of its early consideration.

Approval of the Mexican immigration measure is believed to end for this session any prospect for consideration of other immigration legislation of a more general nature.

Senator Harris estimated that an average of 8000 Mexicans enter this country annually under this bill, he estimated from 1200 to 1900 would be admitted annually.

In the House, Representative Box, Democrat, Texas, introduced a measure to amend the immigration act by making the quota provisions applicable to Mexico in conformity to the Harris measure.

MEXICAN NEGRO SHOWN

Coincidental with the passage of the Harris bill by the Senate, a statement came from the State Department estimating that on the basis of consular figures, Mexicans were immigrating into this country at the rate of 13,228 a year, as compared with the average annual rate of 56,747 for the last five fiscal years.

Alameda Celebrates Mother's Day With Banquet at Church

Special To the Japanese American News ALAMEDA, May 14—More than seventy young people and their mothers enjoyed a well prepared dinner tendered the mothers of the Alameda Japanese M. E. Church on Sunday, May 11.

Misses Grace Kawachi, Mary Nagai, Ken Goto, and Helen Imura were given much praise for their efforts in preparing for the delicious repast. The "Japan" quartet, composed of Miss Mary Nagai, John Yoshino, Miss Mary Takii, and Masao Yoshida, accompanied on the piano by Miss Vera Tanaka, rendered special musical numbers.

Much of the success of the banquet was due to the diligent work of Bob Mizoguchi, chairman.

The program included a talk by Shozo Fujii, response by Mrs. T. Hanamura, songs by Hi League girls, song by Walters' Quartet, skit by Henry Yamamoto and Bob Mizoguchi, song by Bob Mizoguchi, song by the quartet, skit by Teshima Ichiro and Sakae Date, story by Shozo Fujii, tricks by "Cowboy" Rokutani, and community singing.

EXPERIMENTAL COLLEGE

By GLENN FRANK

A flood of letters has come to my desk in the last few weeks stimulated by an erroneous news story, carried throughout the United States, that the Experimental College at the University of Wisconsin would be discontinued in June.

Paragraphers jumped to the conclusion that the experiment had failed and was being liquidated. I have been amused by the score of reasons editors found for the alleged discontinuance of the experiment.

The experiment is not to be discontinued in June, and it has, in my judgment, dramatized with singular effectiveness the problem in liberal education that every college must sooner or later face, and has produced an unusual educational result in the students who have subjected themselves to its stimulation and discipline.

First, it must be a lecture that will convince the student of the first-rate importance of the theme or field of which it treats, thus inspiring the student to personal investigation.

Second, it must be a lecture that contains genuinely new knowledge or a point of view not obtainable in readily accessible books, or give old facts a new perspective.

Third, it must be a lecture that raises problems out of old material that will force the student to think out for himself the nature of the solution of the problems.

We believe that lectures that do none of these three things have no place in a college.

BODY SEEKS NAVAL CHIEF TO QUIT POST

Admirals Plan Resolution Aimed at Takarabe

Special To the Japanese American News TOKYO, May 14—The Yoyokai, a society composed of Japanese admirals, today decided to draw up and pass a resolution advising Admiral Hyo Takarabe, Japanese delegate to the London Naval Conference, to resign as Minister of the Navy in the present Hamaguchi's Cabinet. This action was taken following disclosures yesterday that Takarabe had approved the treaty in spite of the adverse opinion held by the naval experts on the delegation staff.

Captain Kamesaburo Nakamura, a naval expert who had arrived in Tokyo from London in advance of the delegates, was summoned before the Naval General Staff yesterday and required to testify on the processes of the parley.

Admiral Takarabe, meanwhile, left Harbin at 9 o'clock this morning for Seoul, where he is due at 9 p. m. Thursday. Vice-Minister of Navy Baron Shozo Yabuki will leave Tokyo tomorrow for Korea to meet Takarabe and accompany him home on May 22.

Peiping Palace of Former Empress is Let to Foreigners

Special To the Japanese American News PEIPING, May 14—Foreign and Chinese residents were interested in a "want ad" appearing in an English language newspaper here, which runs as follows:

"To Let, good houses in Summer Palace. A number of buildings in the summer palace are now to be let as residences. Situated amidst beautiful surroundings, these buildings are both sanitary and comfortable, being neither too cold in winter nor too warm in summer. For further particulars regarding rental, please apply to the City Government of Peiping."

The Summer Palace, as most tourists know, is one of the show places of the ancient capital. It was the particular pride of the Empress Dowager Tzu Hsi, who ruled China with a despotic firmness for forty years. History records that she diverted millions in silver for the repair of her summer home which had been appropriated for a Chinese navy, and thereby assured the success of Japan in the Sino-Japanese war.

JUNIOR AND SENIOR CLUB

The club certainly is getting more interesting every day, isn't it? And it's a very good club, I think every one that can ought to join, don't you?

(Everyone certainly is welcome—Obasan.)

How are you getting along with the Japanese language? I am getting along finely. It is a little bit difficult, but I am trying very hard. I hope that some day I shall be able to read the paper. I sincerely hope you will be able to soon. I wish you good luck in learning the language and as the English editor of the Japanese American News.

(I am making discouragingly slow progress, thank you, Kiyoko. Maybe in a few months I'll get along a little faster. It is kind of you to send such good wishes. But I am not the English editor of The Japanese American News, but of The Japanese American Weekly. In the News (this paper) I am only Club editor—Obasan.)

Best wishes to you and the members. Please ask some of the members to write to me, both girls and boys. Sincerely yours, Kiyoko Nakano (Kiyoko is a senior, you know—Obasan.)

Next Sunday will be World Good Will Day. On Thursday the children of the United States are sending out a radio Good Will message through the Junior Red Cross.
