NEW EDUCATION—LAW (5)

By GLENN FRANK
This week I am listing some of the laws that seem to me to underlie a thoroughly modern education, discussing one of these laws each day. The first law, discussed Monday, is that we learn by action rather than by absorption; the second law, discussed Tuesday, is that learning is specific rather than general; the third law, discussed Wednesday, is that the best things to study at any given time are things that are most important to our life and work at that particular period; the fourth law, discussed Thursday, is that the best time to study anything is when we fully realize that we need to learn it.

The fifth law is that students are not alike. The new education is struggling to personalize our schools. Students are different in intelligence. Students are different in physical powers. Students are different in interests. Students are different in motives. Students are different in attitudes. Students are different in purposes. Mr. Mencken has referred to our universities as the rolling mills of

Asakusa Kwannon Going Bankrupt As Hard Times Come Upon Japan and Huge Offerings Dwindle Away

Special To The Japanese American News
TOKYO, June 6—"Divine intervention," say the superstitious of Tokyo, saved the famous Asakusa Kwannon Shrine from being destroyed in the earthquake and fire of 1923. And one would almost be inclined to believe them when one sees that the Asakusa district was burnt down to the very gates of the shrine but the shrine itself was scarcely scorched.

Later another calamity has been approaching, and another divine intervention would be welcomed by those in charge of the shrine. Until 1927 on an average of 1,000 yen in offerings were received daily, but recently due to the Hamaguchi government retrenchment policy hard times have come and only about 250 yen are offered every day.

The Kwannon image which the shrine houses is a statuette of pure gold, one and eight-tenths inches tall, which is shown to the public once a year. One hundred priests are in charge of the building. As a result, expenses are great. Now, what will happen?

WM. CASTLE IN HONOLULU

Visits Father Before Resuming Voyage to Washington Post
HONOLULU, June 6—William R. Castle Jr., special Ambassador of the United States to Japan during the London naval conference, arrived here yesterday from Japan enroute to Washington, where he is expected to resume his post as assistant Secretary of State. Castle will visit his father here and resume his journey June 14 on the Malalo.

"Japan's reaction to the naval treaty agreed upon at the London conference is almost exactly the same as that of America," said Castle. "There are a certain number of people in Japan who feel the conference place the Japanese navy in a dangerous, perhaps inferior, position."

JUNIOR AND SENIOR CLUB

BIRTHDAYS—Shigeo Yonesawa, Teruko Nishida. Asako Vivian Yamada also sent these riddles:
1. What kind of flowers have two lips.
2. If a man were in a house without holes, doors, windows, or anything to eat and he only had a calendar in the house, what would he eat?
Answers: 1. Tulips; 2. The dates on the calendar.

Senior
Hello there!
How's everyone in the Club?
Our school was out on the twenty-third of this month and I've never had so much fun, happiness, good grades and oh everything else as I have had this year. But I've neglected my correspondents more than I've done yet. Now I'll tell you what I've been doing.

I went to Oklahoma A & M college to compete in the State Intercollegiate meets there. I represented our high school in English. But alas! I didn't place. But the trip was well worth it and I've almost gotten over my disappointment.

Senior
I had the nicest time and I met heaps of nice girls and boys and the Dean of Women and the Y. W. president. I attended several classes too, and certainly did enjoy it. It isn't so different from high school, it seems to me, except the term papers and the so many themes.

Senior
Am sending you one of our local papers. I want you to see if you can find something about Miyu in there.
(But it hasn't come! I am waiting for it—Obasan.)

Am also enclosing a snapshot of myself. Hmm. . . I surely hope you're not too disappointed in me! (Well, hardly. And I am delighted to see you! Obasan.) I want to tell you something about the background in the snap. Remember I told you about the little tame creek we have in our back yard? (Yes, we do—Obasan.) Well it got wild one nite and the remains of the flood you can see in this picture because I took it (I mean Michi took it) the next morning.

(I can make out some of the objects nicely. But why the hose?—Obasan.)
Now I must close before you drop off, so bye and tell everyone hello for me.

The charge for the proceedings will be $150. The larger the number of applicants, the less will be the cost, as only the travelling expenses of Secretary Brown need be raised.

MANY FLEE CHINA WAR

Northerners Winning in Shantung
Special To The Japanese American News
SHANGHAI, June 6—Thousands of refugees were fleeing from the walled city of Tsinan, capital of the Shantung Province, as a result of continued bombardment by Northern troops.

The Nationalist troops were apparently beginning to withdraw to Yenchow nearly halfway to Hsuechow, a juncture of the Tientsin, Fukow and Lungshai Railways. Hsuechow, which is of great value as a base, will probably be defended at all costs.

Recent reports that the Nationalists suffered reverses along the Lungshai Line were apparently substantiated but a rally of the troop was considered possible.

Fresno Church Will Hold Memorial For Noted Japan Writer

Special To The Japanese American News
FRESNO, June 6—Memorial services will be held for Kanzo Uchiyama, widely known Japanese religious writer, at the Fresno Japanese Congregational church on June 11. Uchiyama died three months ago.

His book, "Why I am a Christian," was translated into many languages. The Rev. I. Kyojoku of the local Buddhist church, Rev. Y. Yoshioka, of the Japanese M. E. Church, and Capt. C. Yamane of the Japanese Salvation Army will be the main speakers.

The service is being sponsored by T. Mori of Sanger and J. Kazato of Fresno, followers of the noted publicist.

Uchiyama's essays on the Bible, published in monthlies, were among the most widely read of all the religious works in Japan. His opposition to the Japanese-Russian War first gained him prominence. He studied in America for many years and wrote in both English and Japanese.

Japan and American Attitudes Tally on Ship Replacements

Special To The Japanese American News
WASHINGTON, June 6—Japan is in accord with the American interpretation of Article 19 of the London naval treaty relating to replacement of ships. This was the reply received by the State Department to its recent query as to Japan's attitude.

Article 19 states that under the treaty provision replacements shall be only of the same kind as the ships to be scrapped. In other words, six-inch gun cruisers which during the life of the treaty become obsolete can be replaced only by cruisers of the same class or "sub-category."

The British government also expressed itself in accord with this interpretation. The texts of the British and Japanese replies to the recent notes dispatched by the State Department was made public.

CALIF. OF 20 YEARS AGO RECALLED BY OLD TIMER

By AN OLD TIMER
Twenty years ago today was Monday, if you please, and it happened that a certain Japanese organization in San Francisco, calling itself the Thursday Club, made a proposal to establish a kindergarten and a special Japanese language school. This proposal was sent on that date to the special committee of the Japanese Association for its consideration. The committee found, according to record, that it was a great necessity, and it announced its intention to hold a public meeting soon.

The proposal of the Thursday Club was inspired by a census taken at that time which revealed that there were 87 Japanese children in San Francisco who were four to six years of age.

WASEDA TEAM VISITS U. S.
I remember of reading in a newspaper about that date, that is, twenty years ago today, of the coming of the Waseda baseball team to this country for a six months' tour under the leadership of the still famous Itoh Abe. The news read that the team would leave Yokohama on the 2nd of June. The Japanese people at that time, bubbled over with joy to see the sons of their own native country come here to beat the "ketos" as they called Americans. Those were feverish days of anti-Japanese propaganda.

L. A. CENTER OF BALL TILT JULY 4, 5, 6

Asahi, Merritts, Showa Alameda Will Clash Nippons in South

Special To The Japanese American News
LOS ANGELES, June 6—Los Angeles will be the center of baseball interest on July 4, 5, and 6. The best teams of the entire state will contest on the diamond here. The Southern California Japanese Baseball Association and Mr. Kono, baseball director of Alameda, are making arrangements for this three day baseball event.

The Nippon team has been picked to represent the South when it meets the strongest team from the North to be picked from San Jose, Asahi, Oakland Merritts, Alameda, and Showa Club. All of these teams are coming down to meet five or six representative teams of Southern California. The Aratani team of Guadalupe will take part in the tournament also.

WRECK VICTIM SEARCH
Search is being carried on for Mr. Sumori and Mr. Murakami, missing victims of the Santa Monica Memorial Day fishing boat tragedy. A Japanese searching party is dragging the bay off Santa Monica for the bodies. Backed by the Japanese Fishing Club, the Kihata Maru, a Japanese fishing boat equipped with a forty horsepower engine and captained by Mr. Tatsuono, left at 4:00 a. m. Wednesday.

Relatives and friends of the victims accompanied the searching party. Led by Seitichiro Yoshimoto, several divers will dive in an attempt to find the missing bodies.

RIVERSIDE HI GRADUATES

At the graduation exercises at Riverside high school on June 29, six Japanese students will receive their diplomas. They are Kichizo Harada, Takeshi Nishimoto, Masao Nishimoto, Shizuko Shibata, Mineko Okubo and Tsuyako Yoshida. The Japanese Union Church is planning a banquet for the graduates on June 15. Kazuo Fujisaki, Yoshio Tsuhoto and Tadashi Ochiai, junior high school graduates, will be feted also.

S. F. Citizens League Holds Feast Friday June 13th for Luck

The New American Citizens are not superstitious. Their monthly dinner for June happens to fall on Friday the thirteenth, but no member as yet has made any suggestion or protest as to the change of the date, so the monthly affair will go right on.

The affair will take place at the popular Sho Wa Low on Post street, starting from 6:30 p. m. Henry Takahashi, president, acting as toastmaster.
