JUNIOR CLUB

Let's Gather Together
Juniors, and Talk
and Talk

Hello, Juniors! Can you see Obsan and Aunt Mia? It is too bad that our close up picture together did not come out good enough to print. Perhaps someday soon we can have a better one.

Today we have lots of members to congratulate on their birthdays. August 4 is the birthday of Mary Tokimi Tsutsui, 13, Hidalgo, Texas and Yoshiko Takiguchi, 13, Bush St., San Francisco, Calif.

August 5 is the birthday of Shizue Ishikawa, 12, Rt. 1, Box 50, Mesa, Arizona and Kazue Oyama, 13, 342-W. Tulare St., Dinuba, Calif. Greetings, Mary, Yoshiko, Shizue, and Kazue!

And now let's talk with our members. Here's Roy Honma. Roy just joined us recently, you remember. Here is his letter.

I am just a new member who joined a few days ago. This is the second time I have written to you and the section. I cannot keep from writing because it is so interesting. Thank, Roy.

Whenever any new members join you tell Obsan? Obsan reads our columns everybody and keeps in touch with you all just as she did before when she was our editor, Roy.

The club is getting more interesting every minute. (Thank you. Your letters all help to make it interesting. Nice riddles like the ones you sent especially help to the club lively.)

RIDDLES

1.—What drinks before it works? Ans. Fountain pen.

2.—Which is the best way for making the coat last? Ans. Make the vest first.

3.—What is it that nobody likes to have and nobody likes to lose? Ans. A lawsuit.

Thank you, Roy. Those were good. Write again.

Hello, Martha! We are glad that you have come to see us in our columns. Members, this is Martha Takemura, 11, P.O.Box 144, Livingston, Calif.

"I am glad to meet you, Aunt Mia. (I am too, Martha.) Thanks a lot for starting a big Sunday section. My, but it's nice to have

It is rumored that the couple will visit the bay region after the wedding.

our pictures in the paper!

"Goodness! It's so warm here! In the morning it's warm already and the afternoons are very hot. A few days ago I came back from San Francisco. It was so cold. I was shivering because I did not bring an overcoat. I am sorry I could not see you. I stayed there for two days. (Do come and see her when you come next time, Martha.)

"Every morning I go to get the mail and the first thing I read is the Junior and Senior section. Most likely that is what we all do.

"How do you get on the honor roll? Please tell me. (That is easy. Always remember to write down where you got the jokes, riddles, and poems you are sending in to the section, Martha.)

JUST STARVING

Dick—Mother, give something to eat for the carpenter.

Mother—It isn't noon yet.

Dick—But mother, he was eating some nails.

OH, YES! OF COURSE

Two men were deaf, both the father and the son.

Father—Hey, son, is that Mr. Squat who is passing by?

Son—No, that isn't him. It's Mr. Squat.

Father—Oh, I see. I thought it was Mr. Squat.

ZASSO

Spud—My grandma didn't cut his hair for five years.

Jake—I bet it's pretty long by now.

Spud—No, sir; it's smooth and shiny.

HONOLULU, Aug. 1—Plans are now being made in this city for a territorial fair to be held from October 20-25. An expert has been engaged to work out the agricultural, commercial, and industrial details of this proposed fair. Japan-

TOKYO, Aug. 2—The Privy Council's preliminary investigations on the London Naval treaty will come to a close within two or three days,

and indications are that Viscount

Kentaro Kaneko will be nominated

chairman for the formal discussions on the advisability of ratification.

During the debate the two outstanding phases of discussion will probably be the interpretations of the article 12 of the Japanese Constitution defining the powers of the Army and the Navy, and the question of what to do with the money saved from the naval limitation.

Home Sweet Home when he's away, but after he gets there—

well, there's really nothing to it.

All the pleasure I got was in the anticipation of going home.

It wasn't so glorious when I got there. (Well, well, well! Our Kay that the fun of life, though? Kay?

To always save the illusion of something glorious just ahead of us?)

"It was funny, though. You see,

I've still got bandages on both legs, and so, when the G.F. saw them, she thought they were bullet wounds. "Oh you poor boy," she declared, "you should have been decorated for bravery." I nearly passed out.

By the way, auntie, who made a crack
