READERS' FORUM

(Expressions of ideas on any subject of interest to the second generation will be welcomed by the editor. Contributions should be less than 500 words if possible. —The Editor.)

HOME COURTSHIP IS URGED BY BERKELEY READER

Editor The Japanese American: Through hearsay and close observations for a few years, I find that the San Francisco people are different from their neighbors of the various vicinities in that the girls are not as sociable and pleasant as they could be if they wished.

No wonder the boys are compelled to go to other places in search of agreeable brides. The majority of the second generation does not wish to be coerced into marriage—they want to follow the dictates of their hearts. Most broad-minded and intellectual men do not always count beauty as the first essential being of the prospective wife. They look for one who has a pleasant disposition rather than one who may be apt to become vain.

No wrong or harm is done when a girl is seen in the company of a young man. People nowadays are not broad-minded enough—they are extremely narrow-minded. They do not think of the injury they're causing to a fine person when they start a false rumor just for the sake of old maid's gossip. Both the first and second generation are to blame. The parents' ideas are often so one-sided that the children are afraid their parents will raise objections to most of their wishes.

Parents should encourage their daughters to ask their boy friends to visit their homes and be introduced to the parents. Most parents can judge a boy's character fairly well. If the boy is always welcomed and made to feel at home, he will not need to resort to other cities for a bride, or to parks for privacy.

The situation will be cleared if the boys, girls, and the parents will co-operate and try to understand each and one another by being more broad-minded in their thoughts and frank with their speech, and last but not least—TO MIND THEIR OWN BUSINESS.

M.S. CHICHIBU ARRIVES AND TAIYO SAILS

Japanese Wrestler Is Among Many Noted Passengers

While the San Francisco populace was jubilantly celebrating the annual Harbor Day on Thursday a Japanese liner steamed into its port of anchor here, and another bade farewell and sailed away for Japan.

Aboard the incoming motorship Chichibu Maru was one of Japan's leading exponents of wrestling in the person of Hitachi-dake. The Japanese sumo expert is one of the foremost contenders among the wrestling champions of Japan. He comes here by the invitation of the San Francisco Sumo association. He is highly recommended by Tochigi-yama, the former 300-pound champion of the island empire.

On the same boat was the Hands-Across-the-Pacific tour party of the California Y.M.C.A. returning from a study tour of the Orient. The party was under the leadership of C. Merle Waterman, well known Los Angeles Y.M.C.A. secretary.

Twelve members of the tour party beamed over the pleasant experience they had as they talked with a representative of The Japanese American News who met them on board the Chichibu Maru.

The California group of the fifth Nakamura kengakudan party left San Francisco on board the outgoing steamer Taiyo Maru, which left the port promptly at noon. They were given a big send-off by their friends. The Japanese student tour party spent about a month traveling in California, under the leadership of Mr. K. Tomizawa of the San Francisco Japanese Y.M.C.A.

The former Consul Elize K. Takigawa sailed on the Taiyo Maru for Japan to take up his new post as consul general from Japan in Harbin.

RED CROSS WILL MEET

Prince Tokugawa to Be Invited to Conference

In a campaign to increase membership of the Red Cross among Japanese in California, a conference is being planned to be held sometime this November in San Francisco with Consul General Kaname Wakaugi as head of the committee.

The committee is also planning to invite Prince Iyesato Tokugawa, who is now in London to attend the 14th international convention of the Red Cross to be held in Brussels from October 6 to 11, to attend the Japanese Red Cross convention here.

The Japanese prince is returning to Japan enroute the United States leaving San Francisco on November 29.

In order to gather 90 campaign managers in the country districts, one non-official member of the Japanese Consulate was sent out recently.

FRENCHMAN AIDS LEPERS

Recipient of Honors from Emperor Is Seriously Ill

(Special to The Japanese American News) TOKYO, Aug. 21.—In the leper hospital in the Kamiyama village in Shizuoka prefecture, 732 lepers are anxiously praying that their helper and benefactor may recover. This benefactor is an aged Frenchman, 82, who is reported seriously ill.

Coming to Japan in 1883 as a missionary, he started mission work. Later, he opened a home for lepers, which has grown in usefulness and in numbers through these many years. Today, he is regarded by the inmates of the asylum as a divine friend.

Monsieur Lese is the recipient of many honors for his brave work among the lepers of Japan. The Emperor himself has decorated him with the ranjinhoshō to reward him for his service to the country.

JOTS FROM THE SOUTH

(Special to The Japanese American News) LOS ANGELES, Aug. 21.—Dr. Suski, Los Angeles Japanese physician, announced recently that he will survey the physical development of the second generation Japanese in California, as an aide to Professor Ishihara, now in Europe, to study growth in the stature of modern Japanese.

The debating squad of the University of Southern California is said to be seeking an invitation from Japan in the near future to vie with leading Japanese universities in a fight with tongues. The invaders will voice their convictions in English while the Japanese will "tell it to them" in their own native language.

The federal-state crop reporting service announced recently that tipburn has cut No. 1 lettuce to approximately 65 per cent. Increased tomato and bean crops will lessen the usual lettuce acreage in Watsonville and Salinas districts, it is reported.

With a plea for probation on file in a Los Angeles court, Agnes Day driver of the car which fatally wounded young George Totsubo in Pasadena last April is waiting for a decision to be made on this Friday. She is being set free on $1500 bail. It is alleged that the woman was intoxicated when she hit the Japanese boy.

HARBOR DAY CELEBRATED BY JAPANESE

NYK Liners, Fishing Boat Featured at Waterfront

Among the hundreds of elaborately decorated ships and vessels, which paraded down the waterfront of San Francisco Thursday afternoon in celebrating the grand annual Harbor Day, was a Japanese fishing boat manned by Japanese from Monterey.

The fishing boat was constructed by Hiroshi Manaka, pioneer Japanese fisher in Monterey, which attracted the attention of the thousands of visitors who crowded the piers.

The marine parade started from pier 46 and proceeded toward the Marina. In the morning promptly at 9:45 o'clock a series of 12 yacht races started off at the Marina, directed by the Corinthian club, to continue until mid-afternoon.

With the races barely started, the new Japanese motorship Chichibu Maru crossed the Golden Gate, bearing the largest raw silk shipment ever dispatched from the Orient. Besides the 7000 bales valued at more than $7,000,000 the motorship carried $2,500,000 in gold specie.

The model of the Asama Maru was on exhibit with models of ships of other companies, many worth thousands of dollars, in the Ferry building.

Japanese Suspected of Red Tendencies Fights Deportation

A fight is being carried on to save from deportation and possible death a Japanese university graduate charged with being a member of the communist party.

The student, Saldichi Komatsu, is at liberty on $3000 bail pending outcome of his case now before the U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals. He was arrested early this year and ordered deported upon the ground that he is a member of the communist party and took part in a street demonstration at which the Marx and Engels Manifesto was sold and banners were displayed flying

Seattle Salvage Concern Head and 'Admiral' of His Own Private Fleet of Warships Causes Diplomatic Stir

(Special to The Japanese American News) SEATTLE, Aug. 21.—Abe Goldberg, picturesque head of a big Seattle salvage concern and "admiral" of his own private fleet of warships, was the subject of grave diplomatic negotiations between the United States, Great Britain, France and Japan Wednesday.

Goldberg acquired a "navy" early this year when he purchased the absolute cruisers Huron and Charleston from the United States for the purpose of scrapping them. But after obtaining title to the two fighting craft, he decided they were too valuable to junk.

He offered to sell his ships to the city of Seattle as floating power plants, declaring that each could generate 20,000 horsepower. The city turned down the offer.

The Goldberg navy became a delicate international problem today when it was reported that unnamed persons were negotiating for the purchase of the Charleston.

The State department of once went into executive session and sent very diplomatically worded cables to Great Britain, France and Japan, signatories to the Washington disarmament agreement, asking if, in the opinion of these powers, a private American firm can sell a warship that can't fight.

NOTED RUSSIAN PIANIST PRAISES JAPAN'S ARTISTS

(Special to The Japanese American News) KARUIZAWA, Japan, Aug. 21.—Within the next ten years Japan will produce a number of world famous pianists in the opinion of Mr. Leonid Kochanski, the noted Russian pianist. Mr. Kochanski is staying for the summer at the Eastern House, Karuizawa. He has been for the last five years professor at the Ueno Academy of Music.

"My five years of teaching in Japan have impressed me with the great influence which Western music is having among your people," he said in an interview. "The works of the great composers are more becoming more and more popular among the Japanese."

Asked whether he has found any talent among Japanese pianists Mr. Kochanski said, he had not only discovered here but that there are several Japanese pianists, such as Miss Akiko Sawasaki, and Mr. Naotoshi Fukui who do not fall below some of the noted pianists of Europe today.

Mr. Kochanski believes there is more talent among Japanese girls than boys.

Co-ed of Pasadena Junior College to Give Sport Dance

(Special to The Japanese American News) SOUTH PASADENA, Aug. 21.—A sport dance to be held at the home of her guardians, Mr. and Mrs. Heath on Fremont avenue this Friday evening, Miss Shizu Tateshi, Pasadena Junior college co-ed, will entertain nearly 30 of her friends.

The hostess is popular among Japanese circles here. She will enter the upper division of the Pasadena Junior college this fall.

"Imperial War." He contends that the government has no right to deport him because of his membership in the communist party and that his life would be in jeopardy were he to be returned to Japan. Legal action in his behalf is being handled by Austin Lewis, attorney.

JAPAN SENDS GUNBOAT IN CHINA WAR

Communists Pillaging Close to Foreign Settlement

(Special to The Japanese American News) HANKOW, China, Aug. 21.—A Japanese gunboat has been ordered at top speed to the vicinity of Wusueh to protect foreigners there in the new communist ravages in that district.

Chinese press dispatches today said Kiangsi provincial troops scored a crushing victory over Communists in the western part of that province, killing 4000 Reds and capturing 2000 rifles.

REDS BURN TOWN

Wednesday it was the Reds' turn. They burned the town of Wusueh, 27 miles from the larger Yangtze river city of Kiukiang, with its big foreign settlement.

The red band charged down through the hills about Wusueh, looted its population of 6000, and destroyed the town, made famous by the resistance there of the Taipings rebels more than eighty years ago. Communist armies which sacked and partly destroyed Changsha last month, and latter threatened the other large cities of Hankow, Nanchang and Kiukiang; apparently were frightened away by foreign warships rushed to protect their nationals.

REDS PILLAGE PLACES

Breaking into smaller bands, the Reds have been pillaging smaller places, avoiding cities where the Nationalist government has concentrated troops spared from its campaign against the northern alliance rebellion in Honan and Shantung provinces.

The civil war itself has lagged, hampered by torrential rains which turned canals into rivers and converted battlefields into quagmires.

Temporarily, at least, the Nationalists have the advantage. Thrusting the rebels from captured Tsinan, the Nationalists pursued them through the Shantung capital and chased them across the Yellow river to the border of Chihli province.

In Northern Honan, attack and counter attack continue along the Hainchow-Tungkwang railway.

WHAT MADE US PROSPEROUS?

By GLENN FRANK

(1) The World War. The war and the deflation that followed it left almost half of the world's gold supply in America's lap. This made possible an elaborate American credit structure in scale with an era of unprecedented industrial and commercial expansion.

Post-war America was economically healthy and industrially efficient. Post-war Europe was economically sick and industrially backward. And a war-racked Europe needed more goods and machines than she could herself produce.

(2) The Automobile Industry. The mass passion for automobiles and the mass production of automobiles at a price the millions could pay was, perhaps, the greatest single domestic factor in the prosperity of the last decade.

We were producing 5,000,000 cars annually before the storm started. (3) The Suburban Building Boom. With cities becoming increasingly unlivable centers, with reators bringing a restless eagerness and a rare efficiency to their enterprise, with capital and credit for homebuilding readily available, and with cheap automobiles to carry men from their work to their wives, the last ten years saw new homes spring up like mushrooms throughout suburban America. This building boom accounted for billions of dollars in the prosperous business of the last decade.

(4) The New Religion of Style. In the decade just ended, Americans embraced the new religion of style and became addicted to annual models in almost everything but the parish pump. This added to the normal market for things needed for utility's sake a new, if not abnormal, market for things wanted for style's sake. The factor of replacement bulked large in the business of this boom decade.

(5) The Installment Buying Plan. For the last ten years, Americans have been buying, as they never bought before, out of anticipated income rather than acquired income. This has obviously meant a mounting volume of business.

Tomorrow I shall describe five further factors in the prosperity of the last decade.

JUNIOR AND SENIOR CLUB

Hello, everybody! Don't you feel kind of tired and lazy on a warm afternoon? Aunt Mia does. Of course that lazy feeling isn't anything new to her but this feeling of wanting to go to sleep is very foreign in a newspaper office.

What do you say to a royal scrap of some kind? No, not a real battle, you know, but just a pleasant little scuffle of words. You all remember what Kay Yasui said about girls not understanding masculine ways, or interests, or something or another? Aunt Mia thought Kay was putting himself in a dangerous position when he said that. Now see what has come in the mails.

Miyu Maruyama of Route 2, Box 189, Sapulpa, Oklahoma is writing to us. Let's listen to her. "Lo, Auntie Mia! (Lo!) How's this mundo treating you? (My! hien, gracias. Y Y?) Me? Pretty hot! 'Bibe weather, tho'." "I'd like to speak to Don Kay Yasui, May I? Here goes:—

"So, Senior Kay, you don't think that a girl, or girls, exists that's loco (that means wild or crazy, doesn't it?) over rifles and throwing tomahawks, huh? Well, they DO exist, only you don't know it. I say, were you ever in Oklahoma? There are heaps of girls (plural) that have thrown and can throw six guns or pull a trigger with out flinching and that means Winchester included. Bye the by, have you ever seen an honest-to-goodness tomahawk? It happened to be in a museum—what? Well, this is where they were used heaps and I know of some Indian maidens that haven't forgotten how to toss a wicked tommy. Just because sitting Ball happened to be a HE that's no sign that Sanding Cow didn't know of the gentle arts of warfare.

"May I tell you of my case? I'm positively nuts about hunting, etc. Yeah! Lots of good it does yours truly! I'm a girl! We're not lacking in game nor rifles and on snowy mornings when it's time to go hunting, one usually asks permission to go places (especially if you're a girl) and I don't seem to have the knack of persuading my parents that I'd be as safe as any boy would be. I'd either get lost or get pneumonia (?) (Aunt Mia judges that word has intentionally misspelled, so misspelled it remain.) Now if it happened to be that brother mine, why all O. K. See the difference?

"That's not my only grievance. (Is it still intentional or are you so mad that you can't be bothered with such trivial matters as spelling?) I'm dying, perishing, passing out and what not, just to drive our tractor.—All the good it does me! Always the same old story!!!

"You're a girl! Whew! No one knows it better than I do! Ask for a girl being ninety-eight miles from civilization—balance! (Aunt Mia looked up that last word in the dictionary to see if that was spelled right, but alas! It wasn't there. I must by another dictionary.) I wish some one'd give me a chance to be! Have you a sister, Herr Yasui? If you had, would your Mom and Dad let her go by by like that all by her lonesome? Fat chance! What do you think girls do to keep alive? If I ever have to say so in this world, I'm going to give the fems a chance at things like R.O.T.C.'s and C.M.T.C.'s—

"So, Mr. Yasui, learn to appreciate the things done for the members of the sterner sex and while you're at it be glad that you're a species of that horrible sex. And don't kiss any more than your superior-feeling-cabeza can keep from doing. What resent it. Now, don't get me wrong. I wouldn't be a boy if you hired me to be. Donning overalls, a sambre, and a bandana handkerchief doesn't make a girl a boy. I've tried it! (So has Aunt Mia, Miyu. I just doesn't work, does it?) I'm tired of throwing mud. Whacha say we quit for the present?"

"Thanks a million, Tia Mia. Some of these days I'll do something nice for you. Bye for a while until get mad again."

—Junior—

Bye, Miyu. Aunt Mia almost wishes that you would get mad often because that was not only a hot letter but it shows a lot of interesting things about the feelings of a girl. Aunt Mia can understand that feeling perfectly. Do write to us again, Miyu. You needn't HAVE to get mad, you know, to write.

Isn't it funny? Kay Yasui must have felt it in his bones that some such letter was being written. Anyway, Auntie has just received a letter and an article for our writing contest from Kay, and what do you think that he's written about? Three guesses.—No! —No!—No!—Well, I'll tell you. His article is on the subject of Kay Yasui as a wonderful housekeeper, cook, dishwasher, and laundress (or launderer). Too bad, but Aunt Mia can't print it until all the manuscripts come and the best 5 are chosen.

Which reminds me! You haven't forgotten Brownie's prize contest, have you? Remember, the subject is to be on any thing that happened during vacation, the length to be well under 500 words, and the time limit to be August 31. Hurry, everybody. There is also a contest for Juniors, you know.

—Junior—

The club pins are here, you know. The gold ones for Seniors cost 50 cents and the silver ones for Juniors cost 45 cents. You may send in the order to Obasan or Aunt Mia and the money may be sent in stamps.

Oh, dear! Space's gone! Bye-bye, everybody. Aunt Mia.
