NOT very long ago, we were warned by our parents that we were to be clannish in that we did not take advantages existing openly while in public school to mingle with our American friends.

We have grown since then. And we are now being warned, not by our parents this time, but by the so-called leaders of our own group saying we are greatly clannish, cliquish, provincial and all that among our own selves.

They are the leaders of this church organization, that citizens league, that students club, and this athletic association. Every leader of every second generation organization has the idea that unless we belong to his league or her society we are narrow-minded, cliquish, and provincial.

Leaders, before you call each other narrow-minded and cliquish, may we suggest that you remember that we, humans, have our individual interests, vocations, and avocations.

When men of the same interest or even of vocation follow their gregarious instinct and come together, there will be born businessmen's clubs, civic unions, sports leagues, dramatic societies, religious conferences and so forth.

Each and every organization has its own program and objective to attain. It should, therefore, it is simple logic, that we are not able to belong to each and every club and society. And we should not. It is unnatural for any man to do so.

We are discouraging those leaders of young people's organizations from calling the members of other organizations clannish and provincial, in a blind effort to enlarge their membership. Do not be so superficial as to think that only in quantity there is strength, power, and everything that a club needs to have.

We discuss religion, literature, music, drama, and art; we take part in political campaigns; we dance; we go farming during the summer vacation; we play football, baseball, tennis, and even pee-pee golf; and what is more we sometimes participate in kendo and sumo tournaments.

Premier Yuko Hamaguchi's Life Is That of One Purely Devoted to Service of Country in a Meteoric Rise to Fame

Yuko Hamaguchi, premier of Japan, who was shot by a young fanatic at the Tokyo Central station early Friday morning while awaiting a train to take him to the military maneuvers in Okayama, has had a varied life, but it has been one of a purely political nature.

LAW GRAD AT 25 In the year 1895, at the age of 25, Premier Hamaguchi graduated from the school of jurisprudence of the Tokyo Imperial university. During the same year, he passed civil examinations, and the year following he was appointed the head of tax collectors of Yamagata prefecture.

THE SATISFACTION SALARY

By GLENN FRANK

I have written so much lately about the crucial importance of high wages as a way out of economic depression—depression that is due primarily to the fact that our capacity to purchase has lagged behind our capacity to produce—that I might be accused of thinking that bread and butter considerations are end and aim of the human venture.

Now let's settle down to business. First, we have a correction to make. Remember Koko Yemoto of Fresno whom we welcomed into our club recently? Well she writes to tell us that there was a mistake about her address. It is R. 9, Box 198, Fresno, Calif. She does not want auntie to print her letter but will discuss one thing that she mentions, because so many letters have mentioned the same thing. She says, "You know, auntie, you keep me guessing all the time whether you were an American or a Japanese lady. But now that I know which one you are, all I've got to think is what a kind, nice and sympathetic auntie you must be. (Thank you, Koko.) I've never had such a young aunt before. Please put Obasan's and your pictures in the paper."

Before you die of curiosity, niece and nephews mine, auntie will tell you that she is just like you all. She is American and Japanese both just as you are. And she has gone through the same kind of schools as you are going through and she has had the same kind of troubles, and problems and sorrows as you are experiencing—So, dear nephews and nieces

LION'S SON IN N. Y. GETS CABLEGRAM

Katsuhiko Hamaguchi 'Startled' by Word from Mother

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—(UP)—Katsuhiko Hamaguchi son of the Premier of Japan who was shot in Tokyo today, has received a reassuring cable from his mother and is hopeful of his father's recovery. He does not plan to go to Japan immediately.

Young Hamaguchi, a secretary in the Foreign department of the Bank of Japan here, said, he was startled when he received word that his father had been shot.

"My father is well liked by the people of Japan," he said, "and I can't understand why anyone should attempt to take his life. I never heard of any threats against him."

Hamaguchi said his mother's cable informed him the Premier had been operated on and appeared to be improving. Hamaguchi, who is married and has one child, has been in New York for two years. He plans to return to Japan in the spring to take up new duties with the Bank of Tokyo.

JUNIOR AND SENIOR SECTION

YOO! HOO! EVERYBODY! AND HEAR THE GOOD NEWS! WE HAVE 769 MEMBERS. Just think of it, members! Auntie had a hazy idea that we were over 600 as she told you many times before but she had no idea that we numbered 769! Auntie is just tickled pink to think that she is aunt to so many nice and nephews.

Here is another letter asking an interesting question. It is from Jesse Tabata of 1019 E. Quimlentos, Santa Barbara, Calif.

"Hope you'll pardon me for rushing in with such unexpected news, but may I ask a question? (Of course, Jessie.) To begin with, there's an Italian girl in my class to whom I told about our Junior and Senior club, and she became very much interested in it. She asked me if she could possibly be admitted into this club. May she auntie? Of course, if she can't I wish you would tell me. (We would be delighted to have her join our group, won't we members? Auntie, for one, would welcome her especially. You know they say that "variety is the spice of life" and surely members of many different nationalities in our club would help to make it more interesting. Tell your little friend, Jessie, that she will be received with open arms.)"

"By the way, when may we nominate officers for the club? Or haven't we decided yet? (Many members can't see any use in having officers when we are so far separated, Jessie. There have been so many thoughtful pros and cons that auntie is waiting to see just exactly what it is that you all want before we go ahead with anything definite.)"

As this paper goes to press, a cable comes from our special correspondent in Tokyo stating that the Emperor has sent a large pot of exquisite chrysanthemums from his private gardens in the summer palace at Shinjuku Gyozen to the bedside of Premier Hamaguchi who was shot early Friday morning. His Majesty is quite concerned over the condition of the Premier.

The Premier is progressing very satisfactorily after a hastily performed operation Friday afternoon. Calling his wife, Mme. The local Showans Athletic club basketball team will secure one of the foremost loop coaches in San Francisco in the person of James Dal Born, former star of the Y. M. I. and the Rossi Florist quintets, it was declared Friday by Nobu Tabata, secretary of the Showans club.

Police, of whom there were scores on the platform, seized the assassin before he had a chance to turn and flee. The assassin was identified as Tomoe Sagaya, 23, a member of the Alkokuha, which literally translated means, "Love of Country Association," a reactionary patriotic organization.

BLOOD TRANSFUSION Blood transfusion was again used at the hospital, the Premier's secretary, Yadanji Nakajima, supplying the blood this time.

ENROUTE TO OKAYAMA "The Premier was enroute to Okayama, when the annual army maneuvers began today with the Emperor and all the high officials of the Empire present. The Emperor had left Tokyo to review the maneuvers on Wednesday.

Members of the Cabinet which Hamaguchi heads, including Baron Shidehara, Minister of Foreign Affairs, gathered at the railroad station son after the shooting, awaiting news of the Premier's condition.

Oh, yes! We forgot to say "Welcome!" because we were so interested in your character analysis. But of course you know that you are very, very welcome.

And now let's say 'bye until tomorrow. 'Bye, everybody. Aunt Mia.

The Premier is 60 years old.
