COMMENTS

By A. M.

"HOW do you do, Shibaraku des-shita!—Did you not send me a nice letter once? That was good of you.—Do come up and talk.—And we, who had been sitting in the lobby of the Fairmont hotel waiting for His Excellency, Prince Iyesato Tokugawa to arrive quite sure of the fact that the Prince had forgotten the insignificant young person whom he had seen in the House of Peers several years ago, gasped with astonishment at the Prince's wonderful memory.—"B-b-but, Your Excellency," we stammered in our surprise, "It is for me to do the thanking. It was indeed kind of Your Excellency to write to me."—"Not at all. Not at all," said the Prince genially, noting our confusion, "and now won't you come up and talk with me?"

INCIDENTS like the one above help the second generation to realize that the Japan and the Japanese leaders of today are very different from the Japan painted for them by parents who have not seen Japan for many years and by text books which play up the Japan of the pre and early Meiji era.—Are the leaders and officials on Japan autocratic, proud and overbearing? As far as A. M. was able to make out, the greater and higher a man's position in Japan, the more democratic and kindly was that man in his attitude towards us. The humble policeman on the streets was the only one who averted and at the same time irritated us by his overbearing and autocratic behavior.—In that respect the Japanese in America and the newly rich in this country have something to learn from democratic Japan of today.

Hamaguchi Reported As Convalescing Very Nicely

(Special to The Japanese American News) TOKYO, Nov. 28.—Premier Yuko Hamaguchi, who was shot by a youth at Tokyo station on the morning of Nov. 14, is today convalescing so satisfactorily that attending physicians at the Imperial university hospital expect that he will be able to leave the hospital by December 5. Immediately after the shooting the premier was taken to the hospital where a hurried operation was performed and 8 inches of the smaller intestine was taken out. So well has the government leader progressed that today he is able to turn over freely in his bed. Attendants report that the "Lion" sleeps well and even smokes loudly. The family of the premier is feeling entirely relieved by now and plans are being made to bring him to Yugawara, a winter resort south of Tokyo, to rest and convalesce.

All payments have been made and transactions have been settled so that it is expected that this will have no disturbing effect in financial circles, it is reported. ## ALAMEDA GOOFS TROUNCE BERKELEY NISSEIS 6 TO 0

(By JOHN YOSHINO) ALAMEDA, Nov. 28.—In a light drizzling rain that showered upon the field, the undefeated Alameda Goofs trounced their traditional rivals, the Berkeley Nisseis eleven, for the second time this season before a handful of enthusiastic football fans by a score of 6-0, at the Oakland Technical high school gridiron on Thanksgiving day. Undaunted by their defeat earlier in the season, the Berkeley players with their usual trick plays and unlimited reserve strength made many vain efforts in their attempts to score against the Goofs. Louie Nogami, roving center of the Goofs, proved to be the hero of the day with his remarkable defensive playing.

GOOFS OUTPLAYED
It was quite evident that the Goofs were outplayed in every department of the game Thursday afternoon, due to the absence of their star halfback, Noboru Takagi, who was taken out of the game in the first quarter when he sustained a fractured nose. The spectators that stood patiently on the sidelines rooting for their teams were accorded the only thrill of the game when a forward pass from Miki to Tanaka was completed over the Nisseis' goal line, giving the Goofs their only score.

GOOFS UNDEFEATED
So far in the season the Goofs have been undefeated in their pickup tussel with four leading teams of the bay region. The Alameda team is mustering all their might and main to keep up this honor. The crucial test of the Goofs' ability to play football will be seen this Sunday afternoon when the local team tackles with the touted Lodi Y.M.A. Black Bears. The clash will be staged at the McKinley park here, starting at 1:30 p.m.

UNSHACKLING EDUCATION

(By GLENN FRANK) Our educational system is suffering from too much systemization. In most of our states our goal has been a very closely articulated system of schools extending in an unbroken chain from kindergarten to graduate school at the state university. We have labored long and hard on establishing an unbreakable sequence of studies from top to bottom. The kindergarten shapes its work so that its students will be acceptable to the grade schools. The grade schools shape their work so that their students will be acceptable to the high schools. The high schools shape their work so that their students will be acceptable to the college. The college shapes its work so that its graduates will be acceptable to the graduate school.
