THE PRESIDENT delivers his message to Congress. It is comprehensive from every standpoint. Some of the sentences which attract our attention are the following: "We have as a nation a definite duty that no deserving person in our country suffers from hunger or cold." "As a contribution to the situation, the Federal government is engaged upon the greatest program of waterway, harbor, flood control, public building, highway and airway improvement in history. This together with loans to merchant shipbuilders, will exceed $500,000,000 for this fiscal year." "Our immediate problem is the increase of employment for the next six months and new plans which do not produce such immediate result or which extend commitments beyond this period are not warranted." "From which we gather that hundreds of millions of dollars will be spent in providing the jobs with work at least during the winter months." "We also gather that there may be a turn in the road and that our president does not expect the present hard times to last longer than six months." "That is encouraging. Our only hope now is that Congress will not spend the next few dollars and critical 6 months in wrangling, red tape, and debating, trying to decide how to help the unemployed situation."

Our famous Senator from California, Hiram Johnson, appears in the newspaper headlines again, and for the usual reason.—He is finding fault again. This time with the President for introducing the World Court issue at such a time.—Well, why not? If he hadn't found fault with the World Court, he would have found something wrong with something else.

HERE we are in America worrying over our hard times and unemployment problems as if we were the only people in the world so afflicted.—And yet, just take a look across the waters at the land of our ancestors. The Imperial Diet of Japan opens its sessions on Christmas Eve, and if we mistake not, the Diet will discuss almost the identical questions now being taken up by our Congress. Relief of the unemployment situation will be outstanding. In connection with the relief work, the question of the issuance or non-issuance of government bonds will perhaps be another hotly debated subject. The national budget and tax reduction, the new naval plan made in accordance with the London treaty, the new Labor Union law, a bill for woman suffrage, the reduction of the number of Japanese voters—these are some of the questions which will occupy the attention of the leaders of Japan.

The Ricci brothers, two violin prodigies of California, have at last been returned to their parents by a New York City court.—Which, it

S. J. YOUTH WEDS GIRL OF CONCORD

Taketa-Iseri Wedding Solemnized at Huge Rites Sunday

(Special to The Japanese American News) SAN JOSE, Dec. 3.—With about 600 of their friends and relatives present Mr. Harry Taketa, prominent member of the local younger set and proprietor of Toshi's Sweet Shop, and Miss Miyeko Iseri of Concord were joined in wedlock at a lovely marriage ceremony held at the local Buddhist temple last Sunday afternoon. The Rev. Mr. Toyota officiated at the services.

The bride, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Iseri of Concord, was beautiful in her wedding gown of white satin, carrying a bouquet of white roses. Miss Yoneko Ishikawa was the organist.

THE BRIDAL TRAIN
The bridal train was composed of: Miss Yoshiko Iseri, maid of honor; Misses Haruko Honda and Masako Yamauchi, both of Concord, bridesmaids. The maid of honor and the bridesmaids were lovely in their green crepe de chine gowns, carrying bouquets of pink roses.

The groom was attended by Mr. Tokio Ishikawa as best man, Mr. James Yemura and Mr. Ohik Hinaga as ushers.

Following the ceremony, an informal wedding reception was held in the San Jose Japanese hall. Dr. Nakahara acted as toastmaster of the evening.

MANY CONGRATULATE
Friends of the couple, representing various organizations tendered words of congratulation at the reception. They were, Mr. Hum Toy Taniguchi, representing the San Jose Nippo club, Mr. Frank Yamazaki, the Y.M.B.A., Mr. Shigeo Masunaga, the Citizens' league, Mr. Masuro Kitanami, in behalf of the Iseri family. Mr. George Ferris, schoolmate of the groom, gave a toast to the newlyweds.

The couple postponed their honeymoon trip due to the sickness of the groom's mother.

The bachelors were Mr. S. Kanagaki, Mr. C. Kawano of Concord, and Mr. S. Imamura and Mr. I. Tsurukawa of this city.

seems to us, was a good thing. Scientifically speaking, it may be a good thing to raise geniuses under the guidance of experts, but humanly speaking, we feel sorry for the said geniuses. We may be old fashioned but we still cling to the idea that loving parents' care even in poverty and ignorance is far better than a substitute no matter how enlightened that substitute may be.

Which reminds us of Japanese parents who send their little children to Japan to be raised by relatives. In many cases we have often wondered if it is not an injustice to everybody concerned. How can such parents expect filial piety from their children in after years?

JUNIOR AND SENIOR SECTION

Hello, everybody! Are you all being very good and are you all wishing for things that Santa might bring to you?—You can laugh all you want, but auntie is doing all these things. Somehow, every year when December comes around, she remembers all the mistakes that she has made during the past year and feels so sorry for them that she becomes automatically good.—For the time being.—And you? Of course! Santa might come down chimneys or not, just as he chooses, but he exists for auntie and it's lots of fun to believe and wait for him.—Isn't it, nieces and nephews mine?

Miss L. M. Ort of 1187 Powell street, San Francisco, Calif., our kind American friend, has written to us again telling us of her progress in buying prizes for the winners of the Brownie contest. Evidently, Kay Yasui wrote to her and asked for a less impossible prize than Miss Ort's picture and she tells us that she has ordered the present by air mail from New York. Isn't she kind, members? All have written except Tsuguyuki Okasaki. Please Tsuguyuki, please hurry. You need not be so modest. Miss Ort adds, "I am a little slow but hope to have them all pleased. Arigato for your patience." A. P. S. says, "This will be a surprise party."—O dear! Auntie is getting curious. What will be a "surprise party," we wonder. Remember, nieces and nephews mine, that auntie told you that Big Brother came to visit us the other day on Thanksgiving Day? Well, he is writing to tell you about his visit and his impressions of auntie. The letter is so flattering that auntie is hesitating to publish it but have finally decided to do so because it seems to be so sincerely meant and perhaps you would like to know about what a visit to auntie's office is like.

"My dear cousins:—I am going to tell you something that might be of great importance to you. That is, if you're thinking of the same thing that I am about to impart to you.

"For a long time, I wanted to go and visit our dear auntie but somehow or other I was afraid to go 'cause I always had the impression that people who work in large newspaper concerns such as The Japanese American News were "high hats." But after much hesitation I went and as I stepped into the room, there came to my ears the ticking of someone in the room typing something on the typewriter.

"I was so scared that I was about to leave the room, when a delightful woman with cheerful and kindly eyes came up to me with open arms and told me that she was Aunt Mia. How happy I was at the moment, I cannot express in words even if I took half a year to do so.

"We became good friends in an instant and there appeared in my mind all the cheer, sympathy, and gratitude of our dear aunt just as I had read in our section.

"When the time came for me to leave her I felt sorry that I couldn't stay with her any longer.—And imagine my embarrassment when she kissed me goodbye!

"So, dear cousins, that is the impression I received from my visit to our aunt on Thanksgiving Day.—Cheerio all, Big Brother."

Wasn't that nice of Big Brother to paint auntie in such lovely colors? Of course he was "spoofing" you, nieces and nephews mine, when he said that auntie kissed him. If Big Brother hadn't been so big—but he was much taller than auntie.—My, but auntie was glad to see Big Brother! You see, dear, auntie sits at her desk and tries to picture each and every one of you as you write in to her and she soon comes to feel that she knows you intimately. So, when Big Brother came in, she did not have to get acquainted

Sanami Company Play on Fox Circuit in East Bay

OAKLAND, Dec. 3.—Sanami and company, a troupe of Japanese dancers, and rope walkers, are now playing at the Oakland Fox theater. They will make their last bow in that city on Thursday.

From Oakland the troupe will travel north playing in the leading cities on the Fox circuit. Just before Christmas they will appear in Portland. During the Christmas week they will play in Seattle.

The Sanami company which started its circuit in Pasadena on October 2, has a 45 week contract with the Fox company. After its contract here is finished, the company of dancers will tour England and France.

Mr. Sanami, the head of the company, appears in strangely appealing and grotesque dance of a four armed buddha. Another member of the troupe nightly thrills his audience with a rope walking stunt in which he slides backwards from the balcony of the theater to the stage.

with him at all. She already knew his kindness, sympathy, and big-heartedness. Auntie hopes that all the rest of you will at some time or other come to see auntie just as Big Brother did. And please don't be afraid. Auntie won't bite.

Just in time! Our new member, Mae Okubara of R. F. D. 1, Box 429, Sausalito, Calif., writes to ask auntie about Big Brother. She says, "Hello, auntie, how are you? (Just fine, thank you, Mae. And how are you?) I'm O. K. except for a little cold. (That's too bad, Mae. We hope that you will get well soon.)

"I'm writing so soon because I would like to know who this person called Big Brother is. Is he the "office boy?" What is his real name? I know so many "big brothers" that that expression is just blank with me. (No, Mae, Big Brother is not "office boy." Office boy edits the English section with auntie. Big Brother lives across the bay from San Francisco. He has not given auntie permission to print his name as yet but perhaps he will. Suppose you write to him in auntie's care, Mae, and see if he won't answer you and tell you his real name and everything? Auntie will be glad to forward it to him.)

"What I am looking forward to now is Christmas vacation. I don't know much about the other schools but we only have ten more school days. I have to get busy and practice "karuta" before long. Do you know that game, Aunt Mia? (No, Mae. Auntie wished that she did. She will have to learn a great deal more Japanese than she knows now before she can tackle karuta. But it's lots of fun watching other people getting so excited over it.)

"I'm going to say goodbye now until next time. See you again, Aunt Mia."

"Bye, Mae. Come and see us again soon. And 'bye, everybody. See you all tomorrow."
Aunt Mia.
