- (4) A SMALL SPINACH CROP
- (5) BRIGHTER AND BRIGHTER

DID YOU ever hear of H. L. Mencken praising anything or any person?—We always thought that his sole aim, end, and purpose in life consisted in taking "whacks" at other people. He seemed to take such great delight in doing so that we thought he would never give up. —But anything is possible in this impossible world, it seems. First of all, the confirmed bachelor got married. Now, he lauds Lizette Reese as the "glory of American letters."

(2) "Nothing could give me more pleasure," said the president of the U. S. Radio and Television Corporation, "than to sleep in a haymow again."—The next night when he went to his bedroom, a strange sight greeted him. His bed was nicely made up with hay, much to the amusement of the magnate!—If our guess is correct, the magnate "hit the hay" that night, literally speaking. We don't know how pleased the magnate was to have his wish come true. Did the hay itch? Did it rustle and make him nervous? Did he enjoy the sweet slumber of his boyhood years?—We wonder. We also wonder how often we would gasp with dismay if our one million and one "I wishes" and "Oh, for the good old days" ever came true.

(3) THE Palo Alto Women's Peace Union is worried because the co-eds are learning to shoot rifles, bows and arrows, and do other unladylike and warlike things. The secretary of the union says, "Why, it is nothing short of dreadful and I am going to call a meeting and see what can be done about it.—Well, it seems that a great many meetings have already been held "to do something about" this practice of shooting rifles and bows and arrows and doing other "warlike" things.—We are a pacifist, but we believe in women taking up target practice and other warlike activities. That, it seems to us, is that the best means of maintaining peace.—Why? If the women spent more time and energy exercising their bodies and their muscles, perhaps their tongues would exercise less.—And that is a distinct step towards peace.

(4) FARMERS in the Midwest are groaning from the results of last summer's disastrous drought, but their little boys and girls are jubilant. The reason is that the spinach crop possibilities are small on account of the drought.

(5) Who was it that said, "Everyday in every way we are getting better and better"?—Well, whoever it was, we know it. With a glance at the reports of the Board of Education proves that the boys and girls of this community are getting brighter and brighter.—If we don't deteriorate, we might get some place someday yet, in spite of the worries of the older generation.

CABLE ACT AMENDMENT STIRS L. A.

Has Great Bearing on American Born, Says League

(Special to Japanese American News) LOS ANGELES, Jan. 17.—The local consulate has just begun investigating the nature of an amendment to the Cable act in conjunction with the Citizens' league of this city. The consulate received a copy of the amendment some time ago, but failed to take any action until recently.

The Citizens' league is taking charge of the investigation. The act has a great bearing upon the second generation Japanese in this city. It endeavors to amend the law relative to citizenship and naturalization. It is now being presented before the House for its consideration.

CITIZENS TO SUPPORT
Some of the members of the Citizens league are quite enthusiastic about the matter and are endeavoring to create a co-operative spirit among the young Japanese citizens in this city to support the passage of the amendment in Congress.

The Cable amendment endeavors to abolish distinction based on sex in the law and practice relating to nationality, and it aims to give rights now enjoyed by one sex to be equally available to the other.

The amendment in full says:

"That Section 3 of the Act entitled, 'An Act Relative to the Naturalization and Citizenship of Married Women,' approved September 22, 1922, as amended, is amended to read as follows:

WILL REMAIN CITIZEN

"Section 3: That a woman citizen of the United States shall not cease to be a citizen of the United States by reason of her marriage after this section as amended, takes effect.

Any woman who has ceased to be a citizen of the United States by marriage to an alien and residence in a foreign country or by marriage to an alien ineligible to citizenship may resume her United States citizenship in the manner prescribed in Section 4 of such Act of September 22, 1922, as amended, and if any woman were a citizen of the United States at the time of her marriage, she shall not be deemed to have lost her citizenship by reason of her marriage to a citizen of the United States.

SECTION 5 REPEALED

"Section 2. Section 5 of such act of September 22, 1922, is repealed.

"Section 3. Section 1993 of the Revised Statutes of the United States is amended to read as follows:

"Section 1993: Any child, whether legitimate or illegitimate, born out of the limits and jurisdiction of the United States whose father or mother may be at the time of the birth of such child a citizen of the United States is declared to be a citizen of the United States; but the right of citizenship shall not descend to any child whose father or mother had never resided in the United States previous to the birth of such child."
