ARTISTS! WE WANT HEAD DESIGN

OUR telephone number has changed from Prospect 0238 to FRANKLIN 3311 or 3312. Our business manager alleges that he used great thoughtfulness in mitigating the tortures of Japanese people who had to twist their tongues in giving central the former number.

Headache is a disease peculiar to the intelligent, announce specialists who have been investigating the matter. We are no expert on the matter but we always suspected that such was the case—judging by the ease with which we developed headaches upon reading certain books and articles on certain weighty subjects.

Princess Marie Jose pugnacious? Hardly ever, say news headlines. Continually, say gossip mongers. Anyway it is a choice bit of gossip for lovers of tongue wagging—Gossipers of Italy and Belgium notwithstanding, we stand up for the princess and her husband, Prince Humbert of Italy.

CITIZENS OF N.Y. FORM NEW LEAGUE

Organization Banquet Held at Nippon Club House

The organization made its debut at a banquet held Wednesday last week, at the Nippon club at which time more than 100 prominent members of the local Japanese community, both the first and the second generations gathered to celebrate the occasion.

Among the speakers of the evening was Consul General Horikuchi of Japan, in whose speech the Japanese official stressed the fact that the American born Japanese young men and women have the mission to introduce the civilization of the Orient, and that they are destined to bring about a harmonious relationship between Japan and America.

Several from the second generation group spoke during the evening in which they suggested the future activities of the Citizens' League. They were, Shutarō Matsushita, Miss Shigeko Yamaguchi, and Miss Kikuzawa.

Japan Plans War on Scribbling Tourists

Thoughtless tourists who scribble their names on the ancient lacquer which protects the wooden pillars and walls of Japan's famous Buddhist temples will be liable to prison sentences with hard labor beginning April 1.

JUNIOR AND SENIOR SECTION

Nieces and nephews mine, come and gather around Auntie. Many of you have already heard of the news. Auntie herself is so shocked that she can scarcely believe that it can be true—Members, the life of our club—gay, witty, loving Kay is gone. Kay Yasui of the jolly letters suddenly passed away recently from heart attack.

That is the terrible news which was telephoned to Auntie's home yesterday by Office Boy and that is why she couldn't go on with the column.

Today Auntie came back to find two air mail letters from club members. One from Ferry Yamaoka of P. O. Box 717, Baker, Oregon and the other from Mary Sakimura of P. O. Box 1045, Yakima, Washington.

You all saw Kay's picture and read Ferry's letter in yesterday's section for the grownups, didn't you? You see, Office Boy couldn't wait for Auntie to come back to tell you and Auntie is so glad he didn't. It makes it easier for Auntie today.

Mary's sad letter. "My dearest Aunt Mia and members. Oh, I'm so sorry that Kay Yasui passed away. It was such a shock. I didn't believe it at first but—it was true. I'm sure every single one of us in the club feels the great loss.

"Not another soul could fill the place of our joyful, fun-loving, wonderful character,—dear Kay. Kay was the most popular member in our club and liked by all. From now on there will be an empty space in our club group, but the memory of Kay and his wonderful spirit in doing things will always remain. All of us who were acquainted with Kay ought to send a letter of comfort to the family of our dearest member.

"Although Kay is gone from this earth, let us never forget him.—Mary"

IN MEMORY OF KAY YASUI

Beloved Member of The Junior and Senior Club Japanese American News

Yes, Mary, although Kay is gone from our world in sight and touch, he is and will be always with us in spirit. And of course we can never forget him.

Members, the mail has just come again and it brings two more letters about Kay. One is from Kay Kikumaki of 109 B. Canon, Ferndale St., Santa Barbara, Calif. Her letter says, "I'm here again but on a different matter. Have you heard? Today I received a letter from Kay's brother, Ray, telling me of Kay's death.—I wonder, really wonder if it could be true. I can't believe it. I am sending you the letter I received.

It is hard for all of us to believe it, Kay. It is hardest of all for Auntie to believe it.

Members, let's read Ray Tsuyoshi Yasui's letter to Kay Fukamaki telling us of his brother's death.

"Please pardon and forgive me for opening your letter of the 24th of February to my brother, Kay. He has passed away. His death came suddenly and he passed away due to heart failure at 11 a.m. on the twenty seventh of February. "I know he would be glad if he could only know that I would be very much pleased to carry on his correspondence with his pen-pals. Sincerely yours, Ray Tsuyoshi Yasui."

Any brother of Kay's would find a warm corner in our club section and in our hearts, Ray. Won't you come and fill the corner left vacant by our brother? We would love to have him, wouldn't we, members?

Here is a member in Alameda who has already read about Kay's sudden passing and has written in to the club. "Aunt Mia, I have just read of the sad death of Kay Yasui, one of the most prominent members of the club. I am sure all young and old members regret and will miss him, especially those who knew him personally.—I think that Miss Yamamoto's idea of doing something for his memory is a very good idea and I will help my best to carry out the plan.—Grace Nomura, 1122 College Avenue, Alameda, Calif."

Yes, let us do something in memory of Kay. Auntie is writing to Kay's parents giving the club's sympathy. Obasan, who heard the sad news yesterday, has already written. Auntie must find out certain things first. Then she will let you know what our club is doing in memory of Kay.

As Auntie writes this, there is on her desk a shiny memorandum pad and a still newer calendar stand to remind her of Kay. Every now and then Kay would to surprise Auntie by sending her these presents. Auntie somehow suspects that he was planning to finish the desk set by sending her a desk cover pad or something for her birthday. Not so long ago he suddenly sent Auntie an enlarged reproduction of that picture which we once printed in our section.—Dear, jolly old Kay, Auntie and all her nieces and nephews will miss him and mourn for him.—But it is better to have loves and less than to have loved at all, they say, dears. Let us be thankful that Kay was with us for even a short while to cheer us and laugh with us. The club is better and brighter because of him.

And now, nieces and nephews mine, bye-bye until we meet again tomorrow. You will take good care of yourselves, won't you, for Auntie cannot lose any more of her family. Aunt Mia.

NATION EXPECTING HEIR TO THRONE ABOUT MAR. 10

TOKYO, Mar. 6.—(U.P.)—The Emperor of Japan, whose confinement for the birth of a child is expected about March 10, remained inside the Imperial Palace today for a quiet celebration of her 28th birthday—her 29th by Oriental computation.

PRINCE EXPECTED

As the Empress prepared for the arrival of her fourth child, preparations both official and unofficial were made in confident hopes that it will be a prince and heir apparent to the throne. The prince eventually would succeed his father, the Emperor, as 15th emperor in the unbroken line descended from Jimmu Tenno, the first Emperor of Japan.

APPEALS TO MASSES

The last presentation, "The Sword," is a two-act drama written by Yobun Kaneko. It is claimed to be the most radical drama that has the greatest appeal to the masses. It depicts the life of a samurai who leaves his clan because of his revolutionary ideas.
