THOUSANDS SEE FETE OF SAKURA DAY

Southern Californians Attend Beaumont Festival

[Special to Japanese American News]
BEAUMONT, Mar. 29.—(The highways leading to Beaumont are covered with automobiles from all parts of Southern California and the Imperial Valley going to the Cherry Blossom festival being held here today. Young people in this section have been preparing for the festival for weeks and reports today state that the acres of exquisite blossoms are at their loveliest today. The blossoming trees in the park are like a delicate mist of pink and present a charming contrast against the snow-covered summit of Mount Gorgonio, and the spring breezes carry surprising wafts of fragrance. The program of the day's events include the singing of the "Star Spangled Banner" at the beginning of the ceremony, followed by the Japanese national anthem, "Kimi Ga Yo." Mayor J. E. Roberts of Beaumont and Mayor J. S. Long of Riverside will speak briefly, with responses from Dr. T. Satow, consul, and president K. Taniguchi of the Central Japanese Association of Southern California. Professor Ken Nakazawa, of the University of Southern California, who is an active member of the festival committee is to preside at the dancing numbers and will give an interpretation of the movements. Guy Bogart, festival founder, is general chairman of the day's events. According to latest report Governor James Rolph Jr., is to be an honored guest here this afternoon. It is estimated that over 20,000 will come to Beaumont today.

Pasadena School Receives Cherry Trees as Presents

[Special to Japanese American News]
LOS ANGELES, Mar. 29.—"Fuji Park" is the name given to the little garden of Japanese cherry trees, on the Pasadena university campus. Consul Sato and Professor Ken Nakazawa and Dr. Zan were guests of honor at the planting ceremony. The trees were donated by Kichitaro Buto of this city as a gift from his sister who is studying at the university.

SENIOR CLUB

Wherein We Welcome 5 New Members in One Letter

HELLO, SENIORS!
What do you think of welcoming 5 new members all in one letter? Well, believe it or not, here it is. A letter came to auntie yesterday—a big, fat letter—and it said on the envelope flap "Open quick! We is in a hurry to join!" Fat ole auntie shook all over with delight to know that someone wanted to join that badly and that quickly. We "is in a hurry" to welcome them, aren't we? Course!

The letter is written by Natsu Misono of P. O. Box 728, Delano, Calif. She writes, "Dearest Aunt Mia and Honorable Cousins! My, but that's a long salutation and a lot of boloney, isn't it? Well, here's how I'd put it: Hello, pals! How's everyone?"—Aw heck, auntie, I didn't mean to put two sets of quotation marks. Oh well, who cares! I'm not going to be graded on this letter,—thank goodness. (Sure, who cares?—Nobody.—But suppose you tell us about yourself.)

"Who? Me? Oh, I'm just a gal from dear ole Delano, the pride of the almighty San Joaquin Miller valley. Peg pardon, auntie, I guess that 'Miller' doesn't belong in the title, does it? You all know or heard about Delano, haven't you? Well, if you haven't you'll sure get an earful from now on, and I don't mean maybe,—oh, no! (We'd love to hear about it, Natsu.)

"Well, cutting out this nonsense, I want to introduce Hatsuaki Ariguchi, age 11, birthday February 4, address Rt. 1, Box 156-A, Earlimart, Calif. (Welcome to our club, Hatsuaki-san. Please won't you write to us yourself?) and here are my sisters, They are Emmy Mary Misono, age 13, birthday February 12, Lincoln's birthday but don't get excited. She's far from being a slave, free—Hey! how do you spell it? (Auntie doesn't know, either, Natsu, so we guess it's not very important. Besides we know what you mean, don't we members?) I rather think she's good at making a slave outa me. Oh well! Next comes Nobu Ruth 'Miso' for short, age 10, birthday November 3, and Aya Betty 'Miso'—don't forget them their quotations, yes, them's important, so says 'teach.'—Oh yeah! Aya is 8 and her birthday is on November 11. (Ooh, isn't this lovely? Hello, Emmy Mary, Nobu Ruth, and Aya Betty! C'mon over and join in our fun, won't you?)

"Nope, I'm not through yet.—Ladies and gents, I know—Gosh, I mean now—I now take great pleasure in introducing Miss Natsu May Misono, Ind. Ph.D., and what other honorary degree there be. (Pardon, but what may that Ind. mean?) This honorable person is no one else

THREE MEMBERS VISIT US

JUNIOR CLUB

See Dimples, Michiko san, Yoneko-san 'n Everybody?

HELLO, JUNIORS!
Aren't Obasan and Auntie vain? Especially auntie? Look! As Natsu says in the Senior section, look at our "mugs"! But you know, we were so happy to see so many nieces visiting our office that we just had to celebrate by taking pictures and letting you all see them so that you could rejoice with us just as if you had been there, too.

Three little nieces came to see us and my, weren't we happy to see them? You can see that on our faces, can't you?—Course! The picture on the left, dears, was taken when our new member, Michiko Yamasaki, 12, of 1750 Sutter street, San Francisco, Calif. and her chum, Yoneko Takeda, 1608 Laguna street, San Francisco, Calif. (an old member of our club) came to see us. Yoneko-san is on the left and Michiko-san is on the right in the front row.

Who are those in the back row? Well, you know every single one of them. The one on the left is Obasan, of course. And to the tall lady in the middle is Miss Sydney Sulerman. She has talked with you several times before. And the one on the right is fat auntie—who else?

Guess who the cousin in the other picture is?—It is Dimples of 1669 Turk street, San Francisco! Too bad you can't see the dimples in the picture! Anyway, one afternoon the nicest little girl came skipping into the editorial room and said, "Which is auntie?"—Auntie stood up and said, "This is auntie."—Then the little girl gasped and said, "Oh, are you auntie?"—Oh, I expected you to be so much, much fatter." Of course auntie was flattered and who is to be the nicest friends.

What are we doing in the picture? Well, see that big letter box just bulging over with letters from you all! Well, auntie is showing all the letters to Dimples, and we were both so happy that we just had to grin. That letter that auntie is holding in her hand just came from Brownie.

And now, Junior, mine, let's welcome some new members into our club just to celebrate. Here is Mary Morimoto of Rt. 1, Box 1187, Portland, Oregon. She says, "May I join the Junior section? (Course, you may, Mary. Come and join in our fun. I will be 12 years old in April. I have been reading the section and have been enjoying it so much. Please ask members around my age to write to me."

And here is another new member, she is Ayako Tamura of Rt. 1, Box 465-E, Gardena, Calif. She writes, "May I join your wonderful club? I am 12 years old and will be

JAPANESE STUDENTS WIN MANY L. A. SCHOOL HONORS

League of Nations Also Appreciates Recent Cable Law

The passage of the Cable Law Amendment is being appreciated not only by the American citizens of Japanese descent, but also by the League of Nations. This move on the part of the United States is in accord with conclusions reached at the Hague conference last year. The United States is the first country in the world to declare for equal naturalization rights of men and women in respect to citizenship rights, irrespective of marriage to aliens.

but me, myself and I. Yes, it's just one of your pals. Pal, yes, because I know quite a number of the members some ever since I was brought by the stork. I am seventeen and my birthday falls in a terrible month, July, and the 26th day. (What's so terrible about that, except that it must be rather hot in Delano about that time? Yes, we recognize a kindred spirit already, Natsu. Please keep in touch with us now that you belong to our family, won't you?)

Miss Reiko Ito Named Phi Theta Kappa Member

[Special to Japanese American News]
LOS ANGELES, March 29.—The first Japanese student to become a member of Phi Theta Kappa, Miss Reiko Ito, was elected to the honorary society yesterday. Phi Theta Kappa is a scholarship society corresponding to Phi Beta Kappa in universities, and is organized in Junior colleges. Miss Ito attends Compton Junior college.

LOS ANGELES, Mar. 29.—Two Japanese students in the graduating class at University high school were awarded life membership in the California Scholarship federation. Only eight were elected to membership altogether. The two young people who have received this signal scholastic distinction are Alice Asaka and Tom Suzuki.

me. (That's wonderful, Natsu. Auntie is tickled to hear you say that you've been a member in your own mind ever since the club started. Then of course you are our kindred spirit, so do come often with your merry chatter.)

PASTOR TO GO SOUTH

Rev. J.K. Fukushima, Fresno, Hands in Resignation

[Special to Japanese American News]
FRESNO, Mar. 29.—The Rev. J. K. Fukushima, pioneer pastor of the Fresno Congregational church has tendered his resignation from the pulpit, Thursday, March 26. The reason stated in his resignation is that he is going to accept a position in Montebello, in Southern California, where he has been asked to reorganize the Japanese Congregational church. The resignation will be effective on June 30.

The Rev. Mr. Fukushima, who is one of the founders of the Fresno Congregational church, has lived in Fresno over 25 years where his work among the Japanese, especially the second generation, as well as among the American church activities, has been outstanding. According to reports his departure will be very much regretted by all the people in Central California.

That certainly a cheering letter, "Nuts!" Do write often and help to make our family merry and gay again, Nuts.

And now, Seniors, let's say 'bye.—'Bye, Seniors mine!

OAKLAND, Mar. 29.—Miss Kyoko Inouye, ever popular second generation soprano of Los Angeles, will appear in a farewell recital to be held here Sunday, April 12.

BAISHAKUNIN SYSTEM TO BE SUBJECT

U.C. Student Club to Hold Debate on April 4

"Resolved: That marrying for love is preferable to the baishakunin system."
The U. C. Japanese students' club will debate this subject April 4, at 8 p.m. at Kinnon gakuen hall, Wesley Oyama, Kikuo Taira, and Haruo Imura, will uphold the affirmative, and Shigeru Saito, Yoshio Hayashi and Kay Miyakawa will defend the negative. Each speaker will have eight minutes for the presentation of the argument, and three minutes for rebuttal.

Musical entertainment will be furnished by the Japanese Women's club quartette, Maki Okubo, Fumi Yanagisawa, Misako Ijima, Miki Ichio, accompanied by May Taketa. The club will also furnish other musical numbers. There will be a popular decision by the audience.

140 Japanese Girls Apply for Jobs on Tokyo Air Lines

TOKYO, Mar. 29.—From among 140 girls who applied for the position of "air girls" on the passenger planes of the Tokyo Air Transport company, ten were chosen as candidates for the three positions which are to be filled. Approximately 85 per cent of the applicants are students or graduates of the leading girls schools in Tokyo. The candidates must take an examination before being accepted for the posts. A part of the examination consists of taking "test flights."

CONTEST TO BE APRIL 10

L.A. 'Y' Announces Three Subjects for Talks

[Special to Japanese American News]
LOS ANGELES, Mar. 29.—The philosophy, culture and language of Japan are the subjects of the Y.M.C.A. oratorical contest on April 10. This is the second annual contest to be held under the auspices of the Japanese Y.M.C.A., and is open to all high school students under 18 years of age. Speaker will be allowed to choose their own topics and treat them in any manner they see fit, limiting all speeches to 12 minutes.

Judging will be based on the content of the speech and not upon the delivery, but special emphasis will be placed on originality and development of the subject matter.

Further details of the contest may be obtained from Goro Murata and Wilfred Horiuchi. Last year's winners competed for state honors at San Francisco.

13, May 8. Please tell members to write to me. I will answer them as fast as I can.

Welcome in our midst, Ayako-san. Course we'll write, won't we Juniors. And now, Juniors, let's say 'bye before we go Bump!—Bye, Juniors! Aunt Mia.
