COMMENTS

THIS queer old world loves to make laws, or at least, try to make them. At the meeting of the Federation of Women's Clubs of this state at Fresno, they are proposing a ban on children of alien parents. Someone has suggested, moreover, that no one born in the United States should have citizenship until it was applied for. Why all this red tape and weary argument, ask simple we. To a mind with only a single track like ours, only one thing is evident. The second generation who have been born, raised and educated here cannot help but be American citizens in thought, feeling, appreciation, dress, manners, and speech. How could they be otherwise? We wonder why the ladies did not word their proposal thus: Those who do NOT wish American citizenship should apply for withdrawal.

—oo—oo—

ANOTHER thoughtful lawmaker is talking about a more heroic and appealing way of executing criminals. "Hanging," according to him, "is too mathematical and methodical. The firing squad would give the man an opportunity to die like a gentleman." Quite so. Quite so. But we wonder what they're going to do with the lady criminals.

—oo—oo—

EASTERN cities are going to start having daylight savings time Sunday. That is, some cities are. Be on your guard, gentle Western traveler. As you speed by the villages and towns of New York state, one town clock will point to the hour of 11. Fifteen minutes later you will spy another town clock registering 12:15. You speed by some more towns and pretty soon you will find that it is only 11:30. Do you lunch promptly at 12 in standard time? Then let your stomach be the judge of the proper time, for there is no such thing as a standard time. There are two standard times.

CITY PLANS TO OBSERVE APRIL 29TH

Over 4,000 Expected at Dreamland Aud. Celebration

Expecting more than 4,000 to fill the Dreamland auditorium on Wednesday, April 29, beginning at 7:30 p.m. for a "Fenchoson" program, celebrating the 30th anniversary of the Emperor of Japan, the committees in charge of the affair are today working hard to present a successful gathering.

"Spring Festival," a dance fantasy presented by the Echo girls of the Japanese Y.W.C.A. in their recent benefit show, will again be staged at the celebration exercises, it was learned today.

The other entertainment scheduled for the day are: a pageant, the San Francisco Y.M.E.A. and Y.W.B.A., gymnastics by the boys of the American Y.M.C.A., Japanese dances by the pupils of Miss Motoko Hino. Instrumental as well as vocal numbers are also included in the entertainment program.

School children from the various Japanese schools in the city will take part in the celebrations of the day, it is reported.

Led by Professor Adolph Nelson, a 24 piece band from the Central Y.M.C.A. will play the national anthem of Japan as well as other airs appropriate to the occasion.

DANCER

Miss Motoko Hino, famed classical dancer of Japan, who is appearing in a dance recital, sponsored by the Soko Nippon Bujo Kenkyu kai, on Sunday evening, April 26, at the Scottish Rite auditorium. The program is announced to begin promptly at 7 p.m.

The inimitable Japanese dancer will give a varied program, numbering 16 in all, assisted by her little pupils. She astounded an appreciative American audience by her masterful interpretation of the Japanese classics when she made her formal debut at International house auditorium in Berkeley recently.

Miss Margaret R. Dodge, editor of The Japanese American Weekly, said of her in her article in the issue of April 25: "Miss Hino's work is of an entirely different sort. It is like the Japanese line mastery in painting. It approximates perfection itself. Her slim, boyish figure and her precision of motion and rhythm give her especial adaptability to men's dances. But she also has a graciousness of movement, a quiet softness of changing posture that make her women's parts enchanting."

PRIZE WINNING SPEECH OF MISS OSHU HIRANO

Mme. Sugimachi of L.A. to Broadcast Over KMTR Sun.

[Special to Japanese American News] LOS ANGELES, April 25.—Mme. Miyoshi Sugimachi, Japanese soprano of Los Angeles, will again sing over the radio station KMTR this Sunday evening, April 26, beginning at 9:15 o'clock.

Included in the singer's program are "Barbiere di Siviglia," by Rossini, and "Ah, Ah, Ah," by Valverde.

NO BASEBALL GAMES ON SUNDAY IN LOS ANGELES

LOS ANGELES, April 25.—There will be no baseball games played this Sunday, April 26, because of a picnic going on at the Luna park.

GIRL ORATOR

Miss Oshu Hirano, winner of the Tenth Oratorical Contest for High School Students sponsored by the U.C. Japanese Alumni association Friday night, Miss Hirano is the third speaker to win the trophy for the Oakland Epworth League. Friday night's triumph put the coveted prize in the permanent possession of the Oakland Epworth League.

By OSHU HIRANO

Mme. Chairman, Honorable Judges, fellow speakers, and friends, will you close your eyes for a few moments and allow me to carry you many thousands of miles away to the picturesque river bank of the Potomac to the capital, Washington, D.C.?

This morn has just dawned. Slowly the sun peers over the horizon, showing his sublime face. He casts a golden ray over a grove of cherry trees. Fairly flushed, they lift their embowered blooms into the clear morning sky. The morning breeze comes softly, winding its way through the branches and causing the petals, like snow-flakes, to flutter and fall to the earth.

OSHU HIRANO WINS U.C. ORATORICAL TROPHY FOR OAKLAND EPWORTH LEAGUE

Printed below is the first installment of the prize winning speech delivered Friday evening, April 24, by Miss Oshu Hirano representing the Oakland M.E. Church Epworth League at the Tenth Oratorical Contest for high school students sponsored by the University of California Japanese Alumni Association at the First Reformed church. The Oakland Epworth League through Miss Hirano won permanent possession of the Alumni Association trophy, Friday night, having won it three times in the last ten years.—The Editor.

TO SPONSOR Y.P. NIGHT

Oakland E.L. Inviting Buddhists Christians, Sunday

[Special to Japanese American News] OAKLAND, April 25.—"Neglect" will be the topic of George Togasaki when he speaks at the young people's night sponsored by the Epworth League members of the local Japanese M.E. church tomorrow night, Sunday, in the newly-constructed Educational Building of the church, on 10th and West streets. Miss Chizu Yamashita will act as chairman.

Included in the main part of the program, which begins at 7:45 p.m., are several choral selections by the M.E. church male quartet, and a violin solo by Masao Yoshida of the Alameda M.E. church. More than 30 young folks' organizations in the Bay district, both Christian and Buddhist, are invited to the affair.

The entertainment part of the program is announced to be as follows:

1. Dialogue, by Misses Sachi Yamada and F. Shiobawa, Oakland Junior League.
2. Vocal solo, Miss Setsu Kitamura, O.E.D.
3. Skit, "Hard Times," Leroy Kajiwara and George Kido, Alameda Epworth League.
4. Saw solo, Miss Margaret Camp, Northbrae E.L.
5. "Keeping a Seat at the Banquet," a skit.
6. Vocal solo, Miss Ritsu Yamagishi, Oakland.
7. Japanese dance, Oakland Y.W.B.A.
8. Instrumental number, Theta Pi.
9. Skit, the Kasai sisters, Oakland C.E.
10. Mt. View E.L.
11. American C.E. in Alameda.

Church Notice

CHURCH OF CHRIST

The local Japanese Church of Christ will hold its regular Japanese morning worship from 11 a.m. to 12 p.m. on Sunday, April 26. The Rev. T. Sakaguchi will preach on the question, "What is a Christian." The Christian Endeavor will meet as usual at 6:30 p.m.

asthetics of the Japanese, greatly admired by Americans, is reverence and piety. It must be these qualities which make the Japanese so sincere and humble, so full of veneration and regard. By the way, recently I have been reading books on the samurai spirit and "Yamato Damashi" of Japan. How I admire such courage and passionate loyalty! I love the art and culture of your people, too. Why, I feel in that alone America has much to learn and a great deal to benefit from."

3 POINTS STATED

As these words fell from her lips, I thought to myself—what a coincidence! Here I had been contemplating on speaking of those very qualities in the presentation of my talk on "What and How the Second Generation Can Contribute to the Life in America."

Therefore, this evening I will make special emphasis on these important characteristics:

- (1) Reverence and filial piety.
- (2) Courage and loyalty, and
- (3) Art and culture.

DELIVERS STIRRING TALK

On the question, "What and How Can the Second Generation Contribute to American Life," Miss Oshu Hirano pointed out in her beautiful and stirring oration those inherent qualities in the makeup of the Japanese race such as reverence and filial piety, stoicism of the Japanese people, their loyalty to their masters, and the traditional art and culture of the Flowery Kingdom, which can well be contributed by the second generation in full is printed elsewhere in this page.

Miss Miya Sannomiya, editor of the English section of The Japanese American News, acted as presiding chairman of the evening. The three judges mentioned were guests of the sponsoring organization, at a Japanese sukiyaki dinner prior to the opening of the oratorical contest.

SIX ORATORS

The participating orators in the order of their appearance were: Kazuo Yamagishi, Berkeley Fellowship; Miss Alice Fujishige, Sacramento Student club; Miss Oshu Hirano, Oakland Epworth League; Haruo Kawashima, Berkeley Nissei club; Dave Tatsuno, San Francisco Y.M.C.A.; and Miss Tsuyoko Okazaki, San Jose Epworth League.

HEALD COLLEGE STUDENTS

The newly organized Heald College Japanese Students Club will hold a meeting this Sunday at 3:30 p.m. at the home of Victor Yamakawa on 1848 Buchanan street.

Tateishi's ideas and I do hope that what Senor Browne Furutani has proposed about forming a literary section will come true. Also please tell a certain Miss M.M. of Oklahama for mails but never come in. (If you mean Miye Mariyama of Sapulpa, Oklahoma, Bonnie, auntie would like to say, "Ditto.")

"And now, ahoy, auntie and lasses and lasses all!" (Ahoy there yourself, Bonnie! May starshine and cool breezes attend you as you swiftly sail back to Berkeley over the waters of the San Francisco Bay.)

And now, night-night, family mine. Sandman is long since due and you must all scurry off to bed. Auntie, too, must hurry back to her home on top of the hill, and we shall meet again in our dreams, shall we? Right, 'bye everybody!

AUNT MIA.

Chiyoko, Japanese Jazz Singer Leaves South for East

[Special to Japanese American News] LOS ANGELES, April 25.—Miss Chiyoko Sato, acclaimed to be the most popular jazz singer in Japan, who has been studying voice under several noted masters here during the past several months, left the city today on the Santa Fe head-4 for the East. Her destination is Italy.

"I hope to come back here again and see my friends in Los Angeles," Miss Sato said as the train pulled out of the station.

SAC'TO GIVES BIG OVATION

Huge Audience Packs Showa Hall to Hear Miss Sekiya

[Special to Japanese American News] SACRAMENTO, April 25.—More than 500 lovers of music here packed the Showa hall, 3rd and O streets, to an overflowing capacity last night to hear the internationally noted Japanese coloratura soprano, Miss Toshiko Sekiya, sing. She was accompanied at the piano by Miss Norma Ditano of San Francisco.

After the recital, Miss Sekiya and several others who worked in the presentation of the evening's recital were guests at a tea party given by Mr. and Mrs. Aoki, one of the sponsors of the concert.

Miss Sekiya is scheduled to leave this city on April 27 for Los Angeles where she is giving another recital before the Japanese public.

FOOLISH QUESTION

The other day I was speaking to a dear American friend of mine. I asked her if she believed that the young Japanese could contribute something to America.

"Why! My dear child," she exclaimed, "what a foolish question! The young Japanese have a great contribution to make to this country. Now," she continued, "I have come into contact with thousands of students. Yet, I have found the Japanese to be the most diligent, high in scholarship, earnest, courteous, and most respectful to their elders. That is why I have enjoyed teaching the Japanese so much."

JUNIOR AND SENIOR SECTION

"LO, EVERYBODY! OOOOHHHH!! It's pitch dark outside and the wind is soooooo cold!! Really, it would be a nice night to tell ghost tales. The great big office, where so many of the editorial force sit all day and about and hustle, is very quiet and auntie is all alone. Is auntie scared? Not in the slightest. She has been reading your merry letters and grinning and even giggling. She's not one bit lonely. Come and gather, everybody.

Ooh Look who's here!

"Do you recognize me? I guess auntie recognizes my writing. (Yes, members, it's Bib O himself!)"

"Well, friends, I'm here again. Do you remember me? (Course, Big O! Who wouldn't?) I promised to write a letter at Easter and where is Easter now? Goodness! I presume it's all over excepting for me. (Are you still having Easter, Big O? Can we join in, too? At any rate, I'm writing, so don't get mad. (No, we're not mad, and if we were, we forgot it when your letter came, Big O.)"

"Yes, indeed, Easter is past. Can you beat that? I'm not back at school yet. I mean my brains aren't, but I suppose my body it 'cause they, the teachers don't mark me absent. Imagine where I left my brains. To tell you the truth, part of it is at a grand picnic, part of it in our back yard, and part of it oh, but that would be telling. (Isn't it too bad that we can't always have our brains with us?)"

"I was surely glad when auntie said just that because I find it so easy. It is kind o' hard to say things when one gets so formal like, like."

"I went back to school on Monday after Easter and guess what I heard. (Spring fever, spring fever, spring fever!)" To my mind there seems to be an epidemic of spring fevers afloat. I don't think this is the time for such a thing. Are not the grasses the greenest and freshest now, and aren't the flowers blooming and birds singing? Why shouldn't boys and girls be the people? (Well, now, that's a hard one to answer, Big O. What about it, philosophizing nieces and nephews mine?)

"Well, I got home work to do, so good-night, I mean good-bye.—P.S. I 'becarefulled' not to turn the cup over and reveal my real name this time, but I'll tell you part of it next time. O.K.? (O.K., Big O. Auntie is patiently waiting.)"

Yoshie Imura of 2225 Pacific Ave., Alameda, has dropped in for a chat.

"Well, it seems ages since I wrote to you last. I was busy with my studies. (Auntie is glad to hear that you have been studying hard, Yoshie-san, although she has missed you.)"

"I hope you will forgive me. I heard that you came to our Benefit Show and I was disappointed that I couldn't meet you. I hope that I will meet you some day." (Auntie was just as sorry to miss you, Yoshie-san. But of course we will meet. Next time auntie comes to Alameda, she will let you know.)

"Ding! Dong! Gangway! Here comes one of your members from Bakersfield. OOP! Hello, auntie and the members! I thought I'd write since I haven't written for so long. Let's see. Yep! Not since I've joined. (Well, well, well! Hello, Iola. Members, you remember Iola Miyaji of Rt. 4, Box 135, Bakersfield, Calif., don't you? Ooh! she's moved, members. She says that she moved six months ago.)

"Auntie, I would like to ask you a favor. Do you think that members would like to write to members from all over the United States? Oh, I should love to hear from various places! (Of course they would like to write to you, Iola. Wouldn't you members?)"

"Course!"

And now, here's a bonnie letter from our bonnie lassie Bonnie Kambara of 1614 Russell Street, Berkeley, Calif.

"Heave a-ho there auntie, lasses, an dlasses all! Honkie honki! Say, auntie, may I anchor for a while and chat with this merry group 'fore I weigh the anchor and swiftly put, putter away? (Yo ho, Bonnie! Heave ho there and let us reach you a hand for the rope while you anchor and chat with us.)"

"Who do you think I saw the other Saturday night at the new International Auditorium? None other than our dear Obsani! A friend pointed her out to me so I did see her but the funny part is I didn't get to meet her. I scoured with my eyes and craned with my neck for a sight of you but 'twas all in vain! (That was too bad, Bonnie. Auntie is sure that Obsani would have been so happy to meet you. No, auntie was not there. If she had, you would have easily spotted big, fat auntie.)"

"I hear the 'All aboard!' and must leave now but 'fore I do, I wanna say I'm in accordance with Sir Ka
