HURRAH, for "Sam-30" who wrote a nice article entitled "To Hell With Examinations—Let's Learn Something" in the College Forum, a Stanford University publication.

SOMEDAY when the earth is old enough, we wonder if we will get to, or evolve to, or progress to a point where students can really study those things which appear to them and not have to be worried by the shadow of "This is important now. You gotta learn it by heart 'cause the prof might ask it for the midterms or finals sure. Aw heck! Why's it so important anyway?"

'BUT,' asks the professor, or teacher, or board of education, "how will we know how much you know so that we can determine what grades you should get, so that we can determine some standard for giving you a degree?" Oh, well, what's the use. We give up. What's in a name, they say, but we feel more like saying, "What's in a grade, or even a degree?"

SOME expert or other has figured out that 4.1 persons can live on $1111 per year in San Francisco, or not quite $300 per person. Does that include clothing, rent, light, fuel, furniture, and all the other one hundred and one things necessary in keeping body and soul together in a big city? If so, all we have to say is, "Just try and do it!"

SACTO MAN LEAVES FOR EAST TO MEET SOPRANO

Okei-san, the First Girl Immigrant

STORY CONCLUDED WITH HISTORY OF MASUMIZU

(Continued from Thursday) THAT is all we know about this romantic Japanese immigrant girl, Okei-san; and that is all we know about this strange person, Matsudaira Snail.

There is a burial ground for one Masumizu in Colusa, about 10 miles north of Marysville. Masumizu, it is believed, came to America with Okei-san and Matsudaira Snail as a carpenter. He married a Negro woman, who gave birth to three children, still living.

One day many years ago, as Mr. Taketa was strolling along the streets of Sacramento, he overheard a handsome-looking Negro conversing with a Japanese in which he was bragging about the fact that he had Japanese blood in him. He called himself, "Masumizu."

Not very long afterwards, a reader of The Japanese American News in Colusa, sent a letter to the managing editor of the paper that there was an old broken down tombstone with a faint inscription on the face

JAPAN FORMS RADIO CORP.

International Broadcasting System Planned

By MILES W. VAUGHN United Press Staff Correspondent TOKIO, April 28 (UPI)—The Japan Radio Broadcasting Association, a private corporation under government control with exclusive right to make radio broadcasts in Japan, has concluded an agreement for exclusive interchange of international programs with the United States through the National Broadcasting Company.

The first of the international broadcasts from Japan was to be sent from station JOAK, Tokio, on Emperor Hirohito's 30th birthday, April 29, and was to be re-broadcast throughout the United States. PROPOSAL ACCEPTED The proposal for an agreement for exclusive co-operation was submitted to the National Broadcasting Company last month and adopted after some slight changes. National Broadcasting programs will be relayed to Japan for re-broadcasting about May 20.

The Japan Broadcasting Association, organized four years ago under government control, plans additional stations at Fukuoka and Kōbe, within the next 18 months and at Aomori, in northern Honshu Island and Kyoto, in central Honshu, within a year.

OPERATES 3 STATIONS The Association now operates three large stations: JOAK, Tokio; JOBK, Osaka and JOCK, Nagoya. Smaller stations are in Sendai, Hiroshima, Kumamoto, Shizuoka, Nagano, Okayama, Sapporo and Kanazawa. The organization has the exclusive right to radio broadcasting in the Empire proper and charges a fee of one yen a month to all holders of receiving sets. There are about 700,000 subscribers and the number is increasing.

The organization is based on the general plan of the British Broadcasting Company. Kenzo Iwahara, former head of the Shiba Iron Works, is president. Advertising programs are not allowed and the income of the organization is solely from subscribers. The company is a non-profit making concern and its president and directors serve without pay. Income now amounts to about $350,000 a year which is used to pay off debts contracted when the company was started and to cover running expenses, artists, research workers, etc.

BOOM! BOOM! HEAR HIM?

Salvationist Keeps Promise to Old Employer

A few months ago, a member of the editorial staff of The Japanese American News received a pathetic letter of appeal from a 71 year old woman in Japan asking for the whereabouts of her brother from whom she had not heard for many years and begging he might be persuaded to return to Japan.

Touched by the appeal, the editorial writer inserted an article in the paper. A few days later he was pleasantly surprised to hear from the long lost brother himself in San Mateo who explained that he had wandered for many years a devout follower of the Salvation Army. He was now working in San Mateo but would immediately return to Japan.

The writer heard no more. Recently the following article appeared in a San Mateo paper. "Citizens of Kobe, Japan, may wonder why the Kobe Salvation Army band is tooting and parading today but the tooting and parading, with a San Mateo Japanese boy leading the march, will be no puzzle to friends of a San Mateo touring party who recall the promise made by Frank Taketa, houseboy.

"That was what they heard in Kobe today as citizens and tourists from the big liner stopped to stare and listen and question each other. "It was Frank Taketa, Japanese house boy of San Mateo, greeting his San Mateo friends, as promised."

JUNIOR AND SENIOR SECTION

O, My! 'Scuse Auntie! Joy Ushio's a Boy Not a Girl!

"LO, EVERYBODY! Auntie is going to tackle the big pile of letters as fast as she can today. Let's see how many. Many can answer today. Right. Let's start. You all remember Betty Jane of San Juan Bautista, don't you? Well, you wondered and auntie wondered who she was. Well, today Betty Jane has whispered the secret in auntie's ear. Oh, of course it is a secret, so auntie can't tell you. But if you will write to Betty Jane in auntie's care, she will forward your letters to her. Right, family mine? Here is Tomoe Mary Nishiyama of P.O. Box 168, Coyote, Calif. She says, "Cheerio, folks! How is your aw heck! I mean 'How are you?' (Just fine, Mary, and how are you?) Who? Me? I'm just fine."

"I wrote about ten copies of this letter. (Too bad, Mary. Next time just shoot it in the mail box as soon as you write it.) How old do you have to be to be a Senior? (Usually fourteen, Mary, or a Junior high student. But as far as auntie is concerned, you may have saw's address is Rt. 1, Box 170, Salinas, Calif., Mary.) OOOOP! Auntie has committed another social error! Nothing new, nieces and nephews mine, only—it is a trifling bit embarrassing every time it happens. "Joy Ushio" writes posthaste to tell auntie that HE is not a girl and that his name is spelled Ushio. In fact, his full name is Joy Tsunehiko Ushio, he tells us. Auntie is always doing things like that. Remember? When our now famous Brownie first joined us auntie called him "her." Pardon us, Joy, we'll never commit another mistake like that, in your case at least.

"Aunt Mia, have you ever seen snow? That's all there is out here at the time of writing this letter. As the poets express it, it is beautiful. But they never had to feel too much of it. I detest it even if it is beautiful. And it's supposed to be spring. (Yes, Joy, auntie lived in a snow country for several years and she will never forget it. Of course, by the time spring comes one is pretty tired of it and wishes that the snows would melt and that the first snowdrops and yellow bells would start blooming between the patches of snow on the warm south hillsides. But, if you lived in a land where they never have snow, Joy, you would long for some snow just as auntie is doing right now. But cheer up, Joy, spring will soon be there with a pop, and—oh, what a spring it will be after all the snow! That's the nicest part of a spring after a long winter.) Just to cheer you up, Joy, little Minnie Tsuji of 2724 West St., Oakland, Calif. is sending us a poem on spring. Here it is. SPRING Spring is here! Spring is here! Spring is here! Spring is here! Sing the robin sweet and clear. Happy little children dear, dancing far and near. Don't you hear the robin gay? Singing sweetly on its way. Spring is here! Spring is here! Isn't that a lovely spring poem, everybody? Auntie loved it. Thank you, Minnie. Tom Iwasaki of San Martin, Cal., writes to tell us that his address is changed and is now Rt. 2, Box 234,

Have You Burdens and Cares? Let's Laugh Them Off!

San Martin, Cal. He says, "I don't think you know me because I did not write to you since you became our aunt, but I did not and never will miss reading your section. Have been reading our daily and weekly papers and am enjoying reading every bit of it. (Thank you, Tom. It's nice of you to say and do that. 'Course auntie would love to hear from you often but the next best thing to do would be to be with us every day in our columns as we chat and laugh by reading us, and auntie sees that you are doing that already.) Here's Helene Yamanaka of Hollister, Calif. She says, "Busy! Busy! You've got your poor little shoulders overflowing with letters. It's best tho', don't you think so, auntie? (Course it's best, Helene. The more overflowing the letters, the more tickled auntie feels. And another thing, auntie's "poor little shoulders" are really big, fat shoulders. Helene, and the burdens just can't stay on them because they slide off the sloping, well padded, slippery said shoulders. Isn't that grand? For the last several dozen years in auntie's life many, many troubles, burdens, duties, and sorrows have come to sit on her shoulders and bother her, but they never could hold onto her fat shoulders. One by one they slide off. All auntie has to do is to wait for them to slide. Lots of you nieces and nephews mine, have burdens and troubles on your poor, thin shoulders. In our warm, cheery corner, let's laugh and make so merry that
