INEKO HANDA NAMED FOR HONOR POST

Vacaville Graduate Is Salutatorian of Class

(Special to Japanese American News)
VACAVILLE, May 26.—Miss Ineko Handa of this locality was selected salutatorian for the commencement exercises of the local Union high school which is scheduled to be held on the night of June 5, Friday. It was made known by faculty members of the school recently. The Japanese graduates this year are Miss Handa and her sister Miss Tsugiko.

KAN UEYAMA TO GO TO TRAINING CAMP

It is rumored that Kan Ueyama of Berkeley, second year medical student at the University of California Medical School, is planning to leave June 1 for the army summer training camp at Camp Lewis, Tacoma.

Thieves, contrary to the popular superstition, have arms of only average length.—Why, oh why, didn't we write that thesis of ours sooner! We knew that long ago.

San Francisco celebrates Living Music day.—A horse in the middle west dies of fright and shock when it heard the noise of a train rushing past.—Wonder what that same horse would have done if it had heard some of this thing called "modern jazz music!"

JUNIOR AND SENIOR CLUB

Hello, everybody! Are you all here, family mine?

Have you already written to cheer up Carl Kondo, dears? He is in the hospital after a sudden operation for appendicitis, family mine, and he is so eager to hear from you all. His address is 457 South Fickett Street, Los Angeles, Calif. My, but it must be terrible to have to lie still in a hospital bed day after day. It is now ten days since Carl had his operation and auntie is hoping that Carl is getting much better. We all hope so, don't we dears?

And here is another who needs our comfort and love and cheer. He is "Just Nutty," Lieutenant of the Band to which Lo belongs. Remember dears? The Band just recently lost Stout Fella, its Captain, auntie's nephew and your recently gained cousin. This is what "Just Nutty" says:

"Thank you ever so much for your kind message.—It was so 'Auntie' of you.—I think you're the most wonderful aunt in the world,—nay, in the universe—"

"May I say a few words to my cousins? (Surely, nephew mine) "Dear cousins.—It's just a little line. — May happiness always be yours.—Just Nutty."

Thank you, nephew mine. Just Nutty says, "Just a little line," family mine, but that little line from the fullness of a heart that has just lost a dearly beloved brother is the deepest most heartfelt wish that you ever could wish to see. It says volumes, nephew mine. Thank you. You remember Alice Iwamoto of P. O. Box 167, Latuda, Utah, don't you, dears? Well, here she is as hale and blithe as usual.

"How is everything? (Everything's fine here, Alice. How's everything over there?) Here? Oh, pretty good but I sure hate to have school days speeding away so quickly. Don't you just love school, auntie? I do and I don't mind if we had school forever. This year I'm graduating from grammar school. (Auntie must have liked grammar school because she wept when she graduated, Alice.)

"I thought about writing to you today 'cause I read about you in the New World. In it, it gave your name and now I'm sure glad to know your full name. I feel like telling everything but of course I won't 'cause you don't want me to. (Yes, let's keep that our little secret, shall we? Of course lots of our family know it already but there's no use in shouting it from the housetops, is there?)

"Auntie, who was it that thought of sending Kay and Dorothy those roses? Bet it was you, wasn't it? Always loving, thoughtful, and sincere. No wonder everyone so loves you, auntie. Wish I could be like you! (My, My! What compliments! Auntie will become so proud pretty soon at this rate that she will burst—and she's fat enough to burst already you know.—As for your being like auntie, dear, perhaps you are better. You see, family mine, it's like this. We all have common interests, haven't we, of friendship, love, sympathy, kindness, fun and laughter. That is why we have come together in our one big family, and that is why we write to each other, and chat with each other, and enjoy our columns so much. Why, then, dears, we are all like

MISS S. HANASUMI CHOSEN YWBA CONCLAVE DELEGATE

FRESNO, May 26.—Miss Shinobu Hanasumi was chosen delegate to the Y.W.B.A. federation conference to be held in San Diego this summer by the Fresno Y.W.B.A. held last Sunday.

The president of the organization announced that there will be a special meeting on Sunday, June 21, coming soon, dears. Won't you write in articles and poems and thoughts on Memorial day? No doubt, many of you have your own mothers, fathers, brothers, or sisters to remember. Won't you come to our club treasury for you so that we can use it sometime when we need it to cheer sick members with cards and flowers, or do some other worthwhile thing.

By the way, family mine, what do you think we should do in memory of Stout Fella? Memorial day is each other. Don't you see?—And auntie is so glad that she is just one of you and not one bit better than any of the rest of you so that she can join in with your fun and merriment and understand your woes and troubles as well as your joys.

"Wish I could help pay for those roses. Please tell me how much I could send. I'm just as eager to help pay tribute to our dear departed cousins as the rest of our members. (Kay's and Dorothy's roses have already been paid for, dear. However, if you want to, you may send in any small amount that you wish and auntie will keep it in our club treasury for you so that we can use it sometime when we need it to cheer sick members with cards and flowers, or do some other worthwhile thing.)

"Oh, I almost forgot to tell you that I am moving soon to Helper, Utah. Please fix my name and address in the directory, will you please, auntie? I want to be in the directory without fail so that the members can write to me. (Of course auntie will see to that, Alice, but you must let her know your address at Helper, Utah. Or is that enough?)

"Well, I don't think I'll ever quit my gossiping if I don't force myself to, so I'll close for this time and will write soon again. Adios, auntie! (Adios, niece o' mine. Come again soon.)

And adios, family mine, till we meet again tomorrow. Aunt Mia,

Aged Venice Japanese Driven by Hard Times Kills Crazy Spouse, Shoots Self in Double Tragedy

(Special to Japanese American News)
LOS ANGELES, May 26.—After shooting to death his crazed 42-year old wife, Tonitiro Tanabe, 62, farmer, committed suicide by piercing two bullets through his throat at his home in Venice about noon yesterday. It is said that pessimism, due to prevalent hard times, led the man to this tragedy.

Yesterday morning the woman, who was extremely hysterical, seemed to have gone insane and was about to set fire to her employer's barn and was discovered by some children who were playing near by. She was forcibly dragged into her room by her 62-year old husband where he killed her by shooting through her mouth. The man then turned the gun on himself and by pressing his .32 calibre revolver against his throat, committed suicide. The double tragedy was discovered when the employer, Mr. Iwakiri visited the home a little afterwards and found the dead bodies lying in a pool of blood.

According to their friends, the aged couple have a 17-year old daughter in their native home in Fukui prefecture, Japan.

The young people will start out in the afternoon to the American river for swimming, hiking and other recreations. After the weenies and "eats," a devotional meeting will be held in the out-of-doors under the stars. Among the college graduates being honored are: Miss Mutsuko Miura, Neal Nomura, Tolu Miura, and Westy Oyama, who have all recently received their degrees from the University of California.

Because many members of the Senior and Y. P. leagues will be absent during the summer vacation, the two organizations will hold combined meetings during the months of June and July. New topics will be discussed in order to enliven the meetings which have fallen "dead" of late.

Discussion topic and leaders scheduled in advance are: May 31—"Character and Personality" William Nikaide. June 7—"Outdoor Devotional service." June 14—"Recreation and Amusements"—Miss Mary . . . June 21—"Honor Thy Father"—special speaker.
