30 LOOMIS PEOPLE JOIN JAPAN NIGHT

Peace Talk Given By Rev. Smith of the M. E. Church

(Special to Japanese American News)
LOOMIS, Dec. 4.—Thirty young Japanese people were in attendance at the Japanese American Friendship meeting held recently by the local First Methodist church.

The pastor first introduced Tom Matsumoto, well known local youth, who delivered a greeting and acted as chairman. Speeches were then delivered by Miss Grace Sakai, Miss Masa Tomoto and Yasuru Suzuki.

Later there was a friendship devotion, during which the Rev. Frank Heron Smith, superintendent of the Japanese Methodist Mission on the Pacific coast, delivered a stirring address of peace and good will. He declared that Japan was a peaceful nation, and that the Japanese are not a warlike people.

An interesting program of Japanese music concluded the program. Miss Kimiko Nakamura on the violin and Miss Helen Nitta on the piano rendered a musical duet, of two selections, "Kojono Tsuki" and "Harusame." Dr. Smith also sang.

LODISET FOR GRID BATTLE

Okasaki To Be Chief Threat for Spud Team Sunday

(Special to Japanese American News)
STOCKTON, Dec. 4.—The Yamato eleven is slated to play the Lodi Y. M. C. A. grid team here next Sunday afternoon in a feature contest. So far this season the local boys have broken even in their games with Japanese teams, losing to the Shoguns and winning from Taikku Matsuo Okasaki, the flashy Lodi high school back, will be the visitors' chief threat, while he will be aided and abetted in his efforts to bring about the downfall of Stockton by June Tanaka, a classy end; Hank Satoru, a center of no mean ability; George Suzuki, the Stockton coach, will present a revamped backfield in an attempt to keep the back in the Spud Capital by shifting Frank Mirikitani from full to half back and placing Nagai in the fullback slot. Cy Hotta will take care of the other half position, while M. Ito will hold forth at the signal barker's post.

The other starters are: Ends, T. Mirikitani, and Nakahara; tackles, Ouchida and J. Noda; guards, Frank Okuma and J. Shimakawa, center, R. Abe.

As far as the game is concerned, it looks like a hard proposition to say who is going to win. Lodi has been defeated already this season by Sacramento, while the Yamato has beaten the Senators, but Lodi has been strengthened since then so the prediction cannot be made. However, it will be an interesting game no matter who is victor.

SAC TO GIRLS FETE GUESTS

Chow Mien Banquet Is Feature Of Gathering

(Special to Japanese American News)
SACRAMENTO, Dec. 4.—Fifteen girls of the Yu-Ai Girl reserves enjoyed a huge chow mein fete, held recently at the M. Chop suey.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Bert Neville and Miss Frances Propp, who were the guests of honor.

Others include the Misses Mary and Alice Abe, Edna Miwa, Futami Ogawa, Frances Fujimoto, Grace Arita, Yvonne and Lorraine Kozono, Dora Sakata, Kimiye Yamasaki, Fumiko Sakamoto and Ruth Fujimura.

After the feast, the girls played many games, and all left for home after singing the club song and taps.

Stockton Youth Will Hear Pacific College Leader in Peace Talk

STOCKTON, Dec. 4.—The young people of the Japanese Church of Christ will conduct an English service December 6, Sunday, from 11 o'clock a. m. The speaker for the morning will be Professor Root of the College of the Pacific. He will speak on the topic "World Peace."

Every twice a month services are wholly conducted in English by the young people. Through these services it enables the young people in the participation of worship period and the better understanding of Christian living.

Camellia Reserve Prepares for Doll Show in Sacramento

(Special to Japanese American News)
SACRAMENTO, Dec. 4.—Members of the Camellia Triangle will bring their Japanese dolls and toys to the local M. E. church, in order that the club as a whole may participate in the Girl Reserve doll festival, to be held at the Memorial auditorium on Dec. 12. Tickets may be obtained for ten cents from any member of the club.

GRIDMEN SET FOR BATTLE

Senators To Tackle Fresno Sunday At Yolo Field

(Since this paper has already presented a new nickname of Senators to the Taikku, in order to equalize the matter, Fresno is given the nickname of Mikado. — Sports Editor.)

When Captain John Oki of Sacramento goes into the huddle with referee, "Pop" Bronson, and the Fresno leader to call the flip of a coin to see who is going to kickoff to start the big game on Yolo field this coming Sunday, the football followers of the Capital will see a real game.

Taiku Wants Revenge
At least, that seems to be the gist of reports pouring into the Bay region from both Fresno and Sacramento. It appears to be the feeling of the Taikku grid warriors to wipe out the stain of the past 2 defeats that the Capital grid squad have suffered at the hands of the Raisin City lads.

Having faith in the old adage that "the third time is the charm," the Senator fans look to their team to upset the Mikado apple cart. However, the Fresnoans are equally determined that the third time will be identical as the first and second chapters.

Point to Sam Yamasaki
The chief basis of the Fresno optimism appears to be the feats of Sam Yamasaki, their triple threat ace, who is a player who never seems to click better as the going gets tougher. As far as speed goes, the Taikku followers believe that he can make as good time as "Light Horse" Takai, the Senator threat, and being a heavier man, Yamasaki can hit harder.

It can be seen without stretching anyone's imagination that both teams are speedy outfits, and they will use open plays in order to score. Indeed, it would not be a great surprise if the contest developed into a jockeying call for passes.

Barkers calling for passes.

Oki Can Catch
In that respect, Fresno will not be at a disadvantage as they have a pretty combination in Matsui to Saiki, which worked well in the Clovis game last Sunday. But John Oki is also a pass snatcher of high caliber, hence, if the air attack is resorted to, the Taikku will have good receivers in Nikaide and halfback Noda.

Looking over the whole situation from a neutral corner, the game will be a tough battle, regardless of who wins. Both lines are good. Neal Noda, the Sacramento guard, seems to be a powerful lineman while the Mikado tackles, Kondo and Nakamura, have been playing bang-up games. Consequently, the fans will be treated to a hard, fast game with two evenly matched clubs fighting for the victory, with the Gods favoring the victors.

JAPAN SENDS LAST STAND TO GENEVA

Direct Negotiations With China Sought By Government

(By United Press.)
TOKYO, Dec. 4.—New instructions believed to be Japan's last stand for peaceful settlement of the Manchurian dispute were forwarded to Paris today.

Meanwhile, it appeared that the government would resort to arms rather than diplomacy to force Chinese troops to withdraw from China inside the great wall.

The government did not consider the situation at Paris hopeless if the league would leave evacuation of the Chinese area to direct Sino-Japanese negotiations, except Japan's modifications to the league's plan to settle the conflict with China. That of course, is what Japan has insisted.

Aristide Briand's declaration regarding the rights of Japanese troops to operate against bandits in a neutral Manchurian zone was described officially as especially unsatisfactory. One of the provisions to which Japan objected was that neutral military observers should be company either Chinese or Japanese forces in action in the zone.

Reported increase of Chinese troops in the Chinese area increased the belief that Japan would resort to military strength rather than diplomatic measures to clear the district.

Hollywood Buddhist Girls To Send Gift Bags To Manchuria

HOLLYWOOD, Dec. 4.—The ever thoughtful girls of the Hollywood Buddhist Shoyo-Kai will gather and send gift bags, or "imon bukuro," to the Japanese soldiers now in Manchuria. It was decided recently at the club meeting, held at the home of Miss Marie Sakimoto.

These bags will be assembled together at the home of the club president. They will then be bundled together for shipment to the Japanese War office aboard the N. Y. K. liner Tatsuta Maru.

The Buddhist girls are conducting this work for the purpose of gladdening the lives of the dough boys, who are living in trenches and barracks in weather below zero, in the war zone in Manchuria.

JUNIOR AND SENIOR SECTION

HELLO MEMBERS! You ought to see how easily your Auntie gets excited over every single letter that comes to her desk!

Here is a letter from Takaye Kawahira, P. O. Box 170, Perkins, Calif. Let's read it together.

"Hello Juniors and Seniors! How is everybody? I'm hoping you are all fine. (We are fine and dandy, thank you. And how are you?) As for my part, I'm O. K.

"I'm just going to drop in for a little while, just to say 'hello' for I haven't much time to write. (We're glad you did. Hasn't Auntie talked with you before through this column Takaye-san? Auntie remembers your name.)

"Golly, how I missed our little club column in the paper! But now it's revived and one of our Aunties are back with it. I hope it will be just as jolly as ever. Come on Juniors and Seniors! Write to the club or to Aunt Peggy so that I may know that you are all alive yet! Gee, I hope we don't lose some of our members. Do you think we did during the long silence of our dear club, Aunt Peggy? (Let's hope not. And let's all try our best to have this club working in full swing. Can we do it? Yes and how!)

"Now I've no more to write for this time, I'll sign off. Goodbye to you all these fine days. Fine, I hope. (Hello, Tomiko-san. Thank you. We are just as fine and happy as ever. And you?) As usual I am O. K. How is Aunt Mia, Auntie? Please give her my best regards when you see her next time. (Aunt Mia is at her home sweet home in Rio Vista. We hope she is just as cheerful as ever.) I have missed her so much in our cheerful corner, but we'll cooperate with Aunt Peggy and keep our club lively until she returns, won't we? (That's the club spirit, Tomiko-san.) I won't be much help to you, but I will try and do my best. (You are a great help. Auntie appreciates your aid.)

"That Saturday was a gloomy one for me. (Which Saturday, dear? The Big Game day?) Do you know why, Aunt Peggy? Sure! I'm for Stanford and they lost! (So you are for Stanford. Well, then the Big Game day will be the only day in 365 days that you and Auntie turn our backs to each other. Auntie is

Mrs. Takahashi, the hostess, formerly Miss Barbara Yamamoto, a co-ed of the University of California and one-time president of the Japanese Women's Student club of that institution.

BEAUTIFUL NIKKO IN MAY STIRS ADMIRATION

By YUZO HASEGAWA
Kegon Falls wakes up from its long sleep of quiet, when the young leaves of the silver birches by the shore of Lake Chuzenji begin to bud. Snow on the mountains of Shirane and Nantai melts into crystal water and brings tidings of spring to the trout in the lake. The water of the lake, rising day by day, washes the reeds along the shore, until it flows out from the mouth of the lake, rushing down the rapids of a short stream to the cataract of the big and graceful Kegon.

As the decent of the water begins on Kegon fall, there comes black numless black-chinned martins spreading the tidings that May has come to the region. May—robed in lovely flowers and fresh verdure. May has come to Nikko.

Nikko, Japan's Gem
Nikko, as one of the beauty spots in Japan, is too well known to the world. It is the place that throngs of tourists long for. We never fail to find Nikko in their itineraries. Within the radius of five miles of Kegon Fall—wherein artificial beauty combines with that of nature, we find temples and shrines, rivers, mountains, lakes, water falls, plateaus and hot springs.

The salient feature of Nikko is that it has outstanding charms on all four seasons of the year. Verdure in early summer, autumnal tints of foliage, pleasantly cool summer days, skating and mountain climbing and boating and fishing on the lake are a constant lure to visitors.

In the Spring
Of all the charming features of each season, verdure in summer is most striking to visitors. May is the best of months. And Nikko, May in Nikko being the supreme flower month, the cherry blossoms, wisteria, and many varieties of wind flowers come in the region, hills and plains and valleys everywhere being covered with soft verdant vegetation. Nikko in May or in early summer

The whole yard of the Hotel is a big display of crimson azaleas colored with light purple and white blossoms. The pink colored rhododendrons with their large clusters of flowers covering the hill behind the hotel. Sitting on the veranda of the hotel and looking across the swift Daiya River upon the groups of shrine and temple buildings, set amid harmonious surroundings, I felt a thrill of sheer delight.

From the hotel, crossing the bridge over the river, I went in a motor looking up at the stately trees on the right and looking down on the turbulent river on the left and soon reached Unagaeshi. On the way, at the back of the roadside houses, could be seen cherries still in bloom, though they have already gone around.

FRESNO MAN CONVICTED, THEFT CASE

Decision Reached By Jury in Fifteen Minutes

(Special to Japanese American News)
FRESNO, Dec. 4.—A Fresno daily contained yesterday the following account of the embezzlement case involving a Japanese, T. S. Murakami:

"But 15 minutes was required by a jury in the superior court yesterday to find T. S. Murakami guilty of grand theft in connection with the embezzlement of $300.25 from the Fresno Mutual Savings association, a Japanese association of which he was treasurer.

Austin Sentences
Sentence will be pronounced by Superior Judge H. Z. Austin tomorrow morning. Carl Lindsay, attorney for the defense is to make a motion for a new trial and give notice of appeal in the event the motion is denied.

Murakami did not take the stand in his own behalf. After the prosecution, conducted by Deputy District Attorney Rae B. Carter, completed the taking of evidence, Lindsay announced that the defense had no evidence to offer. In his argument he said the prosecution had not presented sufficient proof to sustain a conviction.

"Lindsay, it is understood, will base his appeal on the contention that the savings association is a partnership and that Murakami, as partner, cannot be held criminally culpable of stealing partnership funds.

Policeman Admits
"Captain of Police J. P. Murphy who returned Murakami from Japan and Leroy Gunter, auditor, who were the two principal prosecution witnesses.

On cross examination, Murphy admitted he had Murakami at the seaside of a ship docked at Yokohama, in order to circumvent a treaty provision that unless a prisoner is removed from Japanese territory by the returning officer within a certain time the prisoner must be freed of custody.

"The use of unlawful methods to bring this defendant back," asked Lindsay, Carter objected to the question and it was sustained.

"Gunter told of auditing the association's books and finding numerous discrepancies which he reported to District Attorney De Vore and which led to the filing of charges against Murakami.

Lindsay directed his cross-examination toward showing that Murakami had no connection with the bookkeeping of the association and that there was no evidence to show that he kept the proceeds of a $300.25 check from T. Mori which he endorsed.

The prosecution proved that the check was intended for the association but that it was never deposited in the bank in favor of the association.

The jury consisted of ten men and two women. The trial was expected to consume an entire week but was finished in three days.

Jungle Monarchs Are Added to Uyeno Zoo; Scare Young Children

TOKYO, Dec. 4.—A lion and a lioness, monarchs of the black jungles of Africa, now in captivity at the zoological gardens in Uyeno park, are roaring with homelickness, causing frightened children to cling to their mothers.

This pair of wild beasts was presented to His Majesty the Emperor by the King of Ethiopia through his emissary, who came to this country a month ago.

The Uyeno zoological garden, where the beasts are kept, is one of the largest in Asia.

TWOPLAYS IN Y SHOW

Kaneko To Portray Important Role In Drama

Mister James J. Stewart will be the title of R. Kaneko, as the versatile young man steps into that character role in one of the feature plays, "Easy Pickings," which will be given this Saturday evening at the Y. M. C. A. program at the Kilmorion hall.

Miss Fusaki Sakai and Miss Sophia Abe are the two ladies who will be featured in the same act with Kaneko in "Easy Pickings," while the Merchant of Venice is another part of the entertainment which will take the spotlight.

Should the famous gate crasher, "One Eyed" Connally, chance to read about the Y. M. C. A.'s program, he will undoubtedly find the gate men to be easy pickings, because instead of trying to show him the exit he will be given a glad hand, as there will be no admission charge.
