MISS OSHIMA IS BRIDE IN L. A. RITES

United To Mr. Izumi
In Rites by Rev.
K. Unoura

(Special to Japanese American News)
LOS ANGELES, Jan. 13.—Miss Misao Oshima became the bride of Mr. Shinsuke Edward Izumi at a beautiful wedding held on Sunday afternoon, Jan. 10, in the chapel of the Japanese Christian church. The Rev. Mr. K. Unoura officiated.

The bridal group included four bridesmaids. They are the Misses Eimi Saito, Helen Okumura, Aiko Yamada and Louise Suki.

The three flower girls were followed by Miss Tomi Saito, maid of honor. The bride was accompanied to the alter by Mr. N. Tataro, who gave her away in marriage.

Robert Wakiji was the best man, and the four ushers were Toshihiko Wakiji, Hoshio Oshima, Yoshizue Tanii and Kunioh Oka.

The prelude was played by Miss Charlotte Shimizu and Miss Chiyoko Murooka sang "O Promise Me."

The wedding banquet was held at the Alexandria hotel, with Mr. Masao Dodo acting as toastmaster.

Puella Societe of Sac'to Given Play
Lessons by Brown

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 13.—As a part of a series of lectures on drama the Puella Societe had its first practical lesson on dramatization at the meeting held Friday, Jan. 8.

Mrs. Irma Case Brown had the members give impromptu pantomime acts in groups and individually. Each group was given the outline of a plot and allowed five minutes in working out the details.

The acts were then presented and constructively criticized afterwards. "Walk like a man, sit down like a man, now be an old man, be a politician," and so forth were some of the interesting orders.

The next lesson, which will be held Friday evening at the Y. W. C. A. club house, Jan. 15, at 7 p. m., will deal with the voice. All members and friends are invited to attend.

AUTO CRASH
ENDS LIFE OF VENICE CHILD

Tetsuo Tomie, 10, Is Hit on Way Home
From School

(Special to Japanese American News)
LOS ANGELES, Jan. 13.—The play time of little Tetsuo Tomie, 10 years old, eldest son of I. Tomie, of Venice, was over forever when he was struck by an automobile and knocked unconscious Sunday morning about 11 o'clock on his way home from Sunday school.

He was rushed to Santa Monica hospital, where all the efforts of attending physicians proved of no avail. He died at 8 p. m.

Tetsuo, with four other school mates, had just got off the bus and were crossing the street when the accident occurred.

The funeral rites were held Wednesday, Jan. 13, at the Union church of this city.

After the reception was over, karate and sugoroku were played.

MARY OTANI
BRIDE-ELECT

Elk Grove Girl Will
Wed N. Sakamoto
In Sac'to

(Special to Japanese American News)
ELK GROVE, Jan. 13.—Bishop K. Matsumoto of San Francisco, head of the Buddhist church district in which Elk Grove is located, was here Monday to take charge of the church for the next three or four months while a financial campaign to clear the church debt is being carried on.

Bishop Masuyama left Monday night for Los Angeles for a week's visit, after which he will return here to carry on the work. Meanwhile a new group of 160 trustees from the area, extending from Madera to Dinuba, will be chosen by church members for the next three or four months while a financial campaign to clear the church debt is being carried on.

The bishop's coming follows the retirement of Rev. I. Kyogoku, who is now at Lampoon engaged in translating Buddhist writings from Chinese and Japanese to English.

Rev. T. Ichikawa, the assistant priest at the church, announced that the bishop is expected to appoint a successor to Rev. Kyogoku at the expiration of his visit here. The bishop will make his home at the Buddhist school dormitory on the church grounds.

Mr. Sakamoto is a popular Elk Grove youth, having formerly been president of the Japanese Elk Grove Young Men's association. At present he is the president of the Japanese Rural baseball league of this county. He is also treasurer of the Elk Grove Young Men's association.

Miss Mary Otani is a former Wal-Mart girl. She was the former vice president of the Young Women's Buddhist association.

After their honeymoon the couple will make their home in Elk Grove.

Rev. Machida To Preach Sunday
at M. E. Church

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 13.—Sunday morning, Jan. 17, the Reverend T. J. Machida of the M. E. church will preach on "The Heroism of Christian Courage." He will preach both in English and Japanese.

The largely rural grand jurymen of Dutchess county, together with the townsfolk of Poughkeepsie, who sat intently through the arraignment, offered a strange contrast to the tragically dejected defendants.

Gentaro appeared in a dark suit. He looked thoughtful, sad and depressed. Sadako entered the courtroom with a bowed head, apparently desiring to avoid the gaze of the curious throng. Although dressed in plain dress, she looked comely and refined.

The defendants, through their attorney, Jesse L. Rosenberg, of 15 Park row, pleaded not guilty.

In seeking the delay of the trial to April, Rosenberg declared that there was considerable hysteria in Dutchess county resulting from persistent sensational newspaper reports, and that a trial after much of the feeling has subsided would support the cause of justice.

NICE TO EVERYBODY
AND WHY SHE'S NICE

Fifi Dorsey, torrid French actress, says she is always nice to everybody on the lot. Fifi puts it, "I'm nice to everybody, even the littlest boy at the studio, because who knows but that some day he may be the big director!"

Arthur Morimitsu, present secretary of the Young People's league will lead the discussion on "Influences—Worthwhile and Bad," on Jan. 31.

The president requests that leaders and friends be at the church promptly at 7.

Hinode To Tangle
With Oaklanders
Saturday Night

Hello everybody! Well, did you get a headache trying to guess Ferry's resolution? Excuse Auntie if you did. But how many of you guessed right? Ferry's resolution is simply this: "Resolved, that I will write to Aumi Peggy and the cousins at least once a month." Now, isn't that a splendid resolution for every member of this club to follow? And look how determined Ferry is to keep up!
