CHINA ISSUES CALL TO ARMS IN SINO-JAPANESE CONFLICT IN SHANGHAI

Japan Lands 1200 More Troops to Augment
Forces; Additional Warships are Sent
With New Marine Forces

By THE UNITED PRESS

The reorganized Chinese government Saturday issued a call to arms against the Japanese, regarded as tantamount to a declaration of war, as Japan landed reinforcements in battle-raked Shanghai.

Chinese resistance to the Japanese occupation of Shanghai's Chinese quarter burst forth in a furious counter attack which caused the Japanese occupiers to fall back.

Meantime both the United States and Britain landed more marines at Shanghai to be ready to meet any emergency involving the International Settlement with its numerous American and British citizens.

A small landing party of American marines and 750 British came ashore. Martial law continued.

Bombs dropped by Japanese aircraft killed more than 1000 non-combatants, mostly Chinese women and children it was reported.

Hoover Worried

In Washington President Hoover conferred with the officials, who hesitated, however, to announce any definite stand.

A food shortage was feared in Shanghai. Farmers refused to come to the city with produce.

The British and American consuls generally cooperated in a move to restore peace, which yesterday's truce had failed to bring, but made little apparent progress.

Japanese authorities said they are ready to talk terms but the Chinese were incensed at the ruthless air raids which killed hundreds of innocent non-combatants, including women and children.

U. S. Theatre Burned

An American owned motion picture theatre in the settlement was burned to the ground. Foreigners said Japanese civilians, claiming it harbored snipers, set it afire.

In Tokyo, the government considered sending land reinforcements to Shanghai. Additional warships were dispatched.

A government spokesman said Japan would quit the League of Nations if it invoked articles designed to curb Japan's activities in China.

At Geneva, the eague of Nations council voted to appoint ministers at Shanghai to make direct reports to the league on developments there and invited the United States to participate.

In Manila, the cruiser Houston and eight destroyers of the American Asiatic squadron stood ready to depart on a moment's notice for Shanghai.

Martial Law Declared

Martial law was declared in Harbin. Tracks south of the city of the Chinese Eastern Railway were torn up to delay the advance of Japanese troops marching on the city to protect Japanese nationals against rioting Chinese.

Moscow reported readiness to permit the Japanese to use trains on the Chinese Eastern Railway for troop transport, provided the Chinese joint owners with the Russians, had no objections. The Japanese offered to pay regular passenger fares.

Monterey Citizens Enjoy Dancing and Treasure Hunting

After the business meeting a social hour was held. A treasure hunt was the big feature of the evening. Later dancing was enjoyed, climaxing a well spent evening.

JAPAN BOND GOES DOWN IN N.Y. MART

Decline Due to Row Between Nippon And China

NEW YORK Jan. 30—Despite assurances from bankers who contend that the Far Eastern developments will not be permitted to get out of hand, many owners of Japanese securities, both government and private, offered them for sale today. Prices declined from $10 to over $50 for Japanese bonds of $1000 par value.

The Imperial Government's 6½ per cent bonds declined to $26 following yesterday's break of $26.50. They were quoted today at $79.75 for the $1000 denominations, against $81.50 yesterday. The government's 5½ per cent broke to $690, against yesterday's closing price of $700.

The most precipitate break occurred in the Great Consolidated Electric Power issue of 7 per cent, floated by the Japanese account. They were quoted at $600 against yesterday's closing price of $652.50, which represents a loss of $27.50 from the preceding day.

Ortional development bonds were somewhat steadier in light trading.

Yen Drops to the 34.85 Cent Level in New York Market

New York, Jan. 30—Japanese currency was the weak spot in a general heavy foreign exchange list today. Developments at Shanghai were followed by another sharp reaction in the yen, which closed at nearly 7-8 of a cent off at 34.85 cents.

GRADS GIVEN FETE IN L. A.

Baptist Club Stages Party With Seaman As Speaker

(Special to Japanese American News)

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 30—"One out of every 130 goes to college," said Gale Seaman in a brief address before the Japanese graduates of the Roosevelt high school at a banquet held in their honor by the local Baptist Young Peoples union.

Mr. Seaman, guest speaker associated with the U. C. L. A. pointed out that few college students go with the hope of bettering humanity, returning some of the benefits they received. The majority, he said, seemed to have the idea that they were sent to college to learn easier ways to fleece those who did not go.

More than thirty persons attended the banquet. The guests of honor: Mary Shibata, Mary Teredo, Ruth Tukumine, Masao Murakami, Masashi Hori, Masami Muramoto, Kimiko Hattori, Hollenbeck junior high honor graduate, was also present.

Mrs. Block entertained with songs and humorous monologues. Eddie Monell played several pieces on a small one-inch harmonica. There was also a ukulele solo.

Guests classified: "The parents" states a masculine editorial writer, "were never flooded with any stories about her husbands, pet dogs, trained lizards, tantrums or gambling debts." Oh, come, now! Husband can't be as bad as all that!

JUNIOR AND SENIOR CLUB

Hello everybody! You all remember Bill Yamamoto of Sacramento, don't you? He is Bobby Jr.'s elder brother, and we were told recently that Bill had a motorcycle accident. Well, Bill wrote to us. Let us read it together:

"Dear Auntie and cousins: Well,

I'm back again. This is Sir Knight Bill speaking. I had a fine vacation last summer in a hospital. Oh yeah, my brother Bobby Jr. joined this club after all, didn't he? Gee, sock him. Now I will tell you a little about the accident. We had a motor cycle road down the highway last year in April, so I got my brother's cycle because mine was broken. We were hitting down the road at 90 to 95 miles an hour and I slowed up to 75 miles, and the motorcycle just happened to jump into a hole. I flew about 30 feet and landed on my right side, and I broke my left rib arm and had a fracture of the skull. (Oh, how terrible.) I stayed in bed about six or seven months, but now I am all right. (We are glad you are well, Bill.) Well, I guess that's all I have to say this time. Now that I am well again I will write the club often. Goodbye. Always, Sir Knight Bill Yamamoto, 1212 4th St., Sacramento." (Goodbye, Bill. Take good care of yourself. Write to us again.) —Sister

Please remind me of something. Please do not get an idea that Bobby Jr. is a junior member. As you have noticed, the word Junior has been several times inserted by mistake at the end of his letter. I wish to tell you that although he is called Bobby Jr., he is a senior, being 15 years of age.

—Senior

Would you try to sympathize?

And try to sympathize?

"All I ask is an answer. Ouch!

Aunt Peggy, help. Don't let 'em jump on my neck."

Diplomas Are Given At Exercises at M.E. Church

Iwao Moriyama, a graduate of the University of California, sailed Friday on the Dollar steamship President Lincoln for a three-month's trip of inspection and research in sanitation to the Philippine Islands.

His primary purpose is to investigate sanitary conditions on the various liners operating in the Pacific between here and Manila via China and Japan.

The young Japanese is being sent on this important mission by the Cooper Medical Research foundation of the University of California due to his exceptional merit as a sanitation engineer. He will return sometime in April. The present is his second trip to the same destination on a mission of similar nature.

While on his way, Moriyama is expected to stop over in Japan for two weeks. If opportunity affords, he will visit his parents' native country of Fukuoka Ken.

The commencement exercises was attended by the members of the board of directors of the hospital, the faculty and relatives of the graduates.

Men read mystery stories to distract their minds. But almost any woman can get the same distraction by reading a time table, going over her check book or trying to figure out where her husband is at night.

(Special to Japanese American News)

ALAMEDA, Jan. 30—Kyo Nogami, a Mudhen man in every way except the matter of religion, led the local Bussel five to a victory over the Mudhens in the fierce battle for the game's mythical title in an exciting league game by the count of 27-26.

The game developed into an individual scoring war with Nogami sinking 15 counters while Imura bagged an even dozen tallies. The tilt started out like it might be a landslide in favor of the Mudhens who sagged the twine for a 6-0 lead in the first five minutes.

However, by the end of the half, the Bussel machine started clicking, rolling up 17-15 score in their favor. With the Mudhens unable to overcome that single basket handicap throughout the balance of the game, the Templars froze the ball in the closing minutes of the contest to successfully stall their way to a one point victory.

The Takei brothers looked best for the Oaklanders, keeping them in the game.

With the Kaneko brothers assuming the star roles, the Sutter street Y's continued on their winning ways, downing the U. C. Bears on the Oakland high floor, Friday evening, by the margin of 31-15.
