TANKS SPLIT CHINESE LINES IN KIANGWAN

Japanese War Office Reports Chinese Lost Many

TOKYO, Feb. 21.—The army office here announced today that the Ninth division operating near Shanghai re-took Kiangwan for the second time today after fierce hand to hand fighting.

The Japanese made effective use of their tanks which led the attack, followed by infantry who worked under cover of a heavy smoke screen.

Artillery, tanks and bombing planes hewed open a lane in the Chinese lines for the Japanese to force their wedge through. The War minister here announces that the Chinese suffered a heavy loss.

Other sectors remained inactive but with the severance of the Chinese line of communication, the Japanese have reached their goal at Kiangwan.

Lieut. Gen. Uyeda reported that not a single Chinese gun answered his artillery fire, indicating that the Chinese guns had been entirely demolished.

Believe it or Not Cousins Wage Grid War on Each Other

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 21.—Delving into the histories of the Chamori family in Fresno and the Yamadas of this city, the fact that the Chamori who is the Mikado fullback, is a cousin of Walter and Sam Yamada, back on the Oliver eleven, was discovered.

Strange as it may seem, according to Mr. Ripley, believe it or not, the cousins have never met but after the grid game Sunday at the U. P. field when the Oliver and Fresno battled it out, they knew plenty

JUNIOR AND SENIOR CLUB

HELLO EVERYBODY!

I don't know whether or not the present fighting condition in Shanghai influenced them, but look at some of the nom de plumers trying to bring all kinds of weapons to this cozy corner just because they want to protect their precious real names from the sharp pen attacks of the anti-incognitos. I wish now to turn the microphone over to Two Cobras of the San Martin Wilds, the two new nom de plumers of our club.

"Hello, Auntie! Here are two nom de plumers just aching to join the Senior club. You have been having a lot of this so-called war between the nom de plumers and anti-incogs. So may we use your microphone for just a moment, Aunt Peggy? We thank you.

"Where is the nom de plumers army? Let's show them our fight! They can't take our masks off. Get the machine gun going and let them have it. We will just use plain, stinging words in our machine gun and torture them for a while, because I do not think there is any harm in concealing our names. We don't care if Sachiko Chikami and others warned us with 'Curiosity Killed the Kittens.' do we, nom de plumers? If you agree with us in fighting the anti-incogs, we will do our best to cooperate. We will be hearing from

Conducted by AUNT PEGGY

You nom de plumers soon, so fill your machine guns with words. "Thank you, Aunt Peggy. We will drop in again. And we hope you will let us join your jolly family." (Certainly, you are welcome to join us. But please let Auntie know your real names, ages, addresses, and birthdays, so that she can put them on file. Crosses her heart and hopes to die, she won't disclose your identities in our column.)

—Senior—

Now, now, members don't flare up at Two Cobras' machine gun attack. Calm down, please. I have a surprise for you. You know, niece and nephews, there is always a pacifist in the midst of turmoil. We have one in our club too. He will not exactly preach peace, but in a very inspirational way, he will tell you the services that the nom de plumers are rendering.

I now turn the microphone over to your own Big Brother. Isn't it a surprise? We haven't heard from Big Brother for a long time!

"Hello, my dear Aunt Peggy, cousins and pen pals!

"My goodness, but you members are making it very difficult for the nom de plumers these days. But pray do not be too hasty in revealing their identity. When the time comes I am sure every one of the nom de plumers will be more than glad to tell you who they are. Those of you who are so hasty in your attempt to expose us will regret their mistakes.

"I have been having the pleasure and satisfaction of enjoying the beautiful and inspirational messages and thoughts of many gifted writers such as, Explorer, Outcast, Lone Trail, and many others.

"The real purpose and efforts of the nom de plumers in striving so hard to bring a message or thoughts of cheer to you is to lighten up a dark and cheerless road for some members who are not as fortunate as ourselves. They write to inspire the down trodden, to give a ### helping hand to the weak, they console the poor in spirit and countless other worthy virtues. Many of them are playing dual roles. They may be entirely different in their every day life.

"And on the other hand, their inner souls urge them to comfort others less fortunate than themselves. Their friends absolutely ignorant of what their good friend is doing, sits calmly by and enjoys his creative talents. But if they were to find out what beautiful thoughts or poems that they have been reading was the work of an old friend, the poor fellow would be the subject of cruel joshing.

"As you all already know it is human nature to be curious, and friends are no exception.

"You must admit that the nom de plumers are doing wonderful service in this club. And if you are so persistent in your threats to expose them, their beautiful thoughts would have been vain efforts.

"Please be kind to the nom de plumers until they are ready to reveal their identities. There is a work of service, a work that can not be done if their real identity is known.

—Senior—

That's all today. See you tomorrow.
