TIME IS NOT READY FOR JAPAN QUOTE

So Says Scharrenberg In Talk Before S. F. Club

Declaring that it is difficult for a cultured and ambitious race like the Japanese to understand why ignorant Negroes are granted citizenship and they are refused the same privilege, Paul Scharrenberg, secretary-treasurer of the State Federation of Labor, expressed his opinion that "time and patience will surely eradicate the sore spots and lead to a better understanding between the United States and Japan," in an address delivered recently before the Immigration section of the San Francisco Commonwealth club.

The veteran labor leader, who is also a member of the California Joint Immigration committee, declared in part:

Exclusion a Necessity
"Japanese exclusion is a necessity, rather than a principle. Self-preservation of race demands that Asiatics be excluded. It is unfortunate that the immigration act of 1924 could not have been so worded that no nation could take offense at its intent."

"Japan and China no longer claim the right to send immigrants to the United States, nor do they object to exclusion other than a feeling of resentment at the implication that they are inferior races."

Naturalization Law
"The naturalization law of 1890 granted citizenship only to 'free born whites.' The amendment to this law in 1870 gave citizenship to African blacks. It is rather difficult for a cultured and ambitious race like the Japanese to understand why ignorant blacks are granted citizenship and they are refused the same privilege."
"Present sentiment makes it a most inopportune time to change the existing law. But time and patience will surely eradicate the sore spots and lead to a better understanding between the two races."

Mlle. Inouye to Sing Friday Evening at Gyosei Hall

The Japanese American News will sponsor a welcome concert Friday evening, Apr. 1, at Gyosei Hall in honor of Miss Kyoko Inouye, gracious and talented Japanese soprano, fresh from her triumph in Japan, where she was given ovations from one city to another during her eight months' stay.

Concert in Tokyo
The diva, who had been entrusted by the Los Angeles mayor to extend an invitation to Japan to join in the Olympic games next summer, called on Mayor Eidejiro Nagata of Tokyo immediately after her arrival in the Japanese capital and carried out her mission. A huge concert, sponsored by the city of Tokyo, was held in which Miss Inouye thrilled a vast crowd of music lovers.

She also sang at the welcome ceremonies staged last year to congratulate Colonel and Mrs. Charles Lindbergh on their transpacific flight from U. S. to Tokyo.

Before a crowd of 50,000 people who thronged the Hibya park to do honor to the intrepid flyers, Miss Inouye sang a Japanese song specially written to commemorate the flight of the Lindberghs.

Appears in Talks
She also appeared in a Japanese talkie, sang for the Victor records, and conducted a concert in the leading cities of Japan, receiving much praise from the music critics.

Having studied Japanese folk songs while in Japan, the young artist will sing a number of them in the concert to be held here under the auspices of The Japanese American News.

The place and other details will be announced later in these columns.

JUNIOR AND SENIOR CLUB

Conducted by AUNT PEGGY

Here are some more to be added to your ever growing pen pal list. Today I am asking dear members of this club to move over a little so that I may squeeze in. Won't you? (Come in, stranger. Lots of room in "Wall, don't need much room, for I am not fat—about five feet tall and weigh around 100 pounds. (Oh, I can picture a dainty girl. Would you mind telling us some more about yourself?)

"I am Shigeno Etsu, Box 63, Avondale, Arizona. I am 16 years old. "Auntie, will you please have members write to me? I promise to answer promptly and make it as interesting as I possibly can."

—Senior—
"Hanaye P. Takagami, P. O. Box 353, Newcastle, Calif., speaking. How are you Auntie and cousins? (We are just fine, except for spring fever. How have you been Hanaye-san?) "I am just fine and dandy after a flu sickness. "Auntie, will you kindly ask the girls of this club of 13 to 18 to write to me? And please ask Mrs. Sumida of Hollister, Margaret Toyama of Monita, and Haruko Furubako of our corner."

Penryn to write? (I'm sure the girls are reading this and I hope they'll write you real soon.)

—Senior—
"Mary Jingu of San Antonio, Texas, speaking. Hello, California, here I come. Gee, Auntie, your club is wonderful. It has introduced me to many friends, as I am sure also to my unknown and unseen friends. However, I would like to hear from oodles of you, especially those in California. Cousins in Oregon, I'd like to hear from you. Those who wish to write to this 16 year old Texan, just address it to Mary Jingu, Japanese Tea Garden, San Antonio, Texas.

"Auntie, I am sending you a little poem entitled 'Life. I hope you will like it."

—Life—
By Mary Jingu
Gazing upward,
Like snow on the high mountain,
The way is rough and far
Unslaking and tireless,
Carefully press forward.

Seek nothing,
Fear nothing,
Go on walking
Along the one way
To the kingdom of Truth.
—Senior—
That was lovely, Mary. Yes, we all strive toward the Kingdom of Truth. But there are so many obstacles in the way. Mary, that sometimes we become victims of neglect. How weak a human will can be. But your last lines give me strength. "Fear nothing, go on walking along the one way to the Kingdom of Truth." I will always remember that.

That's all today. See you tomorrow.
